

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to thank the readers of my advertisement for the liberal way in which they have patronized me of late.

I shall continue to try to give them furniture cheaper and better than any other dealer, especially on my cheap day—Tuesdays.

-LORD-

THE FURNITURE MAN

Next Morrison's Hotel BROOKVILLE

P.S.—Look at my elegant maple extension table with 6 legs for $7.00.

BROOKVILLE Business Cottages

SHORTHAND A SPECIALTY Commercial Course Thorough

TERMS REASONABLE

Send for Illustrated Catalogue before deciding where you will go.

GAY & McCORD, Principals

Dissolution

Partnership

THE partnership heretofore existing between Thomas Mills of the City of Kingston and Robert Craig of the Town of Brockville, is dissolved this day by mutual consent.

Signed: THOMAS MILLS, ROBERT CRAIG, 12th June, 1893.

R. CRAIG.

IN connection with above I have great pleasure in stating that I will carry on the business of Hatter and Furrier in my own name, and in thanking the public for their assistance and patronage in the past.

Signed: R. CRAIG, 12th June, 1893.

War Declared

In the Shoe Trade. Another big drop in prices at D. W. Downey's One Price Bargain Shoe House.

Men's solid leather dress shoes, high cut, for $3.00. Men's fine Mackay sewed, for $2.00.

Ladies' fine Honegna button boots, hand, $1.48. Ladies' fine Honegna button boots, worth, $2.49.

Ladies' fine Kid Oxford shoes, for $1.75. Children's fine Honegna button boots, for $1.00.

Misses' fine Kid Oxford shoes, for $1.00. Men's solid leather boots, for $2.00.

Our stock is very complete in every department and all other lines are equally cheap.

Remember, the above goods are all new and from the best manufacturers. We carry a full assortment of American boots and shoes for ladies and gentlemen.

Agents for Butterick's Patterns. Mail orders promptly attended to.

D. W. DOWNEY

The One Price Bargain Shoe House, Brockville.

Karley & Seymour

ARE FRIENDS TO THE Farmer and Builder

They have the best Assortment of Hardware, Tinware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Calumines, Glass, Silverware, Fishing Tackle, &c., in town, and prices to suit the times.

The Daisy Churns—best in the market—always in stock and at lowest prices. Guns and ammunition of best quality. See them.

COAL OIL

Best Quality. Low Price

KARLEY BLOCK ATHENS

A.M. CHASSELS

THE OLD RELIABLE

TAILORING

HOUSE

Gentlemen who wish to have their suits made up in the very latest style and perfect in fit and workmanship should patronize

A. M. Chassels, Athens

All work guaranteed.

BANK OF TORONTO

ESTABLISHED 1827

CAPITAL PAID UP $2,000,000.00 RESERVE FUND $1,000,000.00 ASSETS MAY 31, 1893 $14,000,000.00

BROOKVILLE BRANCH

SAVINGS BANK DEPARTMENT

Interest on Current Notes ON SUMS OF ONE DOLLAR & UPWARDS

Compounded May 31 and Nov. 30

FARMERS' NOTES DISCOUNTED

AT LOWEST RATES.

The officers of this Bank are pledged not to discuss the transactions of any of its customers.

ING. PRINGLE, Manager.

THE REPORTER

ATHENS, JULY 11, 1893.

Business notices in local columns 10 cents per line each insertion.

Miss Paulina Moore is home for holidays.

Misses Mason and Birzell are now camped at Winchester Springs.

With one fifth of the entries of cheese at Chicago, Canada took four-fifths of the prize.

Two car-loads of cheese left Athens Saturday. Of these, Plum Hollow contributed 260 boxes.

The corporation workmen are now harvesting the crop of weeds that annually disfigure the streets of Athens during June.

A James, Elgin St., Athens, has a second hand spring wagon in good order, capable of carrying 1200, or 1600 lbs. for sale or exchange.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cornell, of Wellington, Ont., are spending the holiday season in Athens and vicinity.

The season for raspberries and blueberries has arrived. The first of the latter offered in Athens sold for 7c per lb.

Mr. Herb Rhodes, of Sweet's Corners, visited friends in Athens last week.

If the "Enlistman" left any friends in this vicinity they should take steps to repair his monument at Charleston, which is being badly wrecked by the elements.

The papers for the primary and junior leaving exams are generally regarded as having been fair and not too difficult.

The students finish writing to-day.

The 12th (to-morrow) is to be celebrated in so many places throughout the district that there will probably be no great gathering at any one place.

A large number from Athens will go to Unionville.

Thompson Bros., cheese buyers of Prescott made an assignment on Wednesday last. As they were extensive buyers, the number of factories that will lose by the failure is correspondingly large.

A meeting of creditors will be held at Prescott on the 15th inst.

It is probable that the return baseball match between Athens and Brockville will be played in a few days.

Rumor has it that Brockville will play very few of the men that came here, so our team will do well to scan closely the personnel of their opponents.

The Athens Auxiliary of the Brockville General Hospital will meet at the residence of Mr. H. B. Arnold to-morrow (Wednesday), at 4 p.m.

A cordial invitation is extended to all interested in the General Hospital.

At the Brockville cheese board last Thursday 2540 white and 2417 colored were sold, the former averaging 9c and the latter bringing 8c.

It is thought that the total sale on over 10,000 boxes.

Two farmers residing near Perth paid a penalty of $30 and $20 respectively for watering and skimming their milk. Inspector Pablo prosecuted.

The Babcock test is a great detective and farmers are very foolish to risk their name, fame and dollars for the small sum that in the course of a season they may succeed in stealing from their neighbors.

Reports in reference to the crops, furnished by the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company, have been received from nearly every county in Ontario, and it is shown that in every section of the province the prospects are of the brightest.

Hay is now being harvested and in all parts the yield is abundant; while the outlook for wheat and other grains, as well as fruit, is most gratifying.

English Spavin Liniment removes all hard, soft or caloused Lumps and Blisters from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Ring Bone, Sweeney, Stiffes, Sprains, Sore and Swollen Throat, Coughs, etc. Save $50 by use of one bottle. Warranted by J. P. Lamb.

How to Get a "Sunlight" Picture. Send 25 "Sunlight" Soap wrappers (wrappers bearing the words "Why Does a Woman Look Off Sooner Than Man") to Lever Bros., Ltd., 43 Scott St., Toronto, and you will receive by post a pretty picture, free from advertising, and well worth framing. This is an easy way to decorate your home. The soap is the best in the market and it will only cost 1c postage to send in the wrappers, if you leave the ends open. Write your address carefully.

LETTER FROM LONDON, ENGLAND.

Mr. A. B. Morrison, Editor of West End has been and writes in Great Britain's "The Metropolitan."

The following extract from a letter addressed to Mr. D. Fisher will be read with interest by the many friends of the writer.

LONDON, ENGLAND, Monday, June 19, 1893.

"On Thursday last I called at House of Commons and sent my card to Canada's beloved and distinguished son, Edward Blake; was obliged to remain waiting for some time, but after half an hour's duration I was the distance Blake's massive form making his way, as I thought, to receive me, which was a fact. My name was called out by a policeman and at once I rushed through the waiting crowd to clasp the hands of him we all admire. We had a few moments' conversation, Blake seemed to have a worried, worn expression, which seemed to say 'this is no easy task I have undertaken.' I was a little surprised that he did not ask me a few words about Canada, but when I consider his peculiarities I presume he only acted natural, as you know he is not possessed with that warmth that many of our public men are. Of course, you will understand I am not finding fault, as I can only say he gave me a warm welcome, and to know such came from the heart of my own countryman was indeed a delightful pleasure for me to enjoy. Mr. Blake then gave me a card to the House of Commons gallery, where I at once went and drank in all I could from the lips of such men as the G. O. M. (you will know who I mean). Really, when I saw the old gentleman coming I felt a thrill of enthusiasm passing through my Canadian blood. He whom I had read of since childhood and longed to meet, face to face there stood before me. I could scarcely realize such was my privilege. You doubtless have heard of old saying, 'Better to be born lucky than rich.' Why I quote the above is this: I was my good fortune to hear many of Great Britain's world-renowned orators on the Home Rule debate (June 3, 4, 5, 6), which was indeed a rich treat. The speeches were short, spicy and cutting. I heard Balfour, who is nephew of Lord Salisbury. He is a very pleasant speaker. I also heard the G. O. M. several times. Lord Randolph Churchill, Mr. Morley (dearly to Ireland), Joseph Redmond, Tim Hales, Joseph Chamberlain, Sir Charles Russell, the world's greatest lawyer; Sir Edward Clark, another distinguished lawyer; Mr. Carson (ex-Australian premier of Ireland), and several other distinguished men, some of them cabinet ministers. But when Mr. Gladstone would rise you could hear a pin drop. His voice is rich, sonorous, and words are beautiful as they fall from his lips. Knowing you are such an admirer of him, how I wish you could have been present. I have so much to say concerning the House of Commons that I will be obliged to pass on to another part of my letter and continue that in the next issue. Ella and I visited St. Paul's Cathedral, only spending an hour; in order to do it well, we must spend at least a day. Then we crossed over to Westminster Abbey, only paying a brief visit, as time would not permit us remaining any length of time, but shall in the near future visit it again. We also visited Hyde Park, the most fashionable drive in the world. We spent one afternoon there. One can feast his eyes royally all he wishes if he only has some one to point the people out to him. I am pleased to inform you that we shall have an excellent opportunity of seeing the wedding procession of the Duke of York, as they pass by our office which is located in Poultry street, No. 42, E. C. We could get good prices for our windows, which would be used by tourists, but as we have our own Canadian party we have decided to enjoy that pleasure ourselves and do without the money, which, I have already learned, is one's best friend in London. True, things only cost a penny, but every time one wins some one else has to pay for the penny, and when the shades of evening fall you find yourself minus of a pound or two. To-day I called on Sir Charles Tupper, had a few minutes' conversation with him, found him very pleasant and communicative, gave me a pressing invitation to the Canadian Dominion Day dinner which is to take place in Westminster Palace Hotel. In this hotel the "Fathers of Confederation" met and decided our fate as a nation. Enclosed find programme for the dinner and name of the speakers. I notice our next Governor-General, Earl of Aberdeen, is to be there; also Marquis of Lorne. Sir Charles told me they would expect about 150 Canadian guests. The price will be thirty shillings—intend going. I must not neglect to write you that Ella, the boys and myself attended service at City Road Chapel, Join Wesley's church yesterday. It was indeed a great treat. How my thoughts turned to the little stone church at home and to the old pioneers of Methodism in Farmersville. What a glorious sight it would have been for some of those to have stood inside of Wesley chapel and by his grave. The next guest to John Wesley's is Dr. Adam Clarke, whom you have often quoted to me. Just across the road is Bunhill Field graveyard. Here was stood by the grave of John Bunyan and the mediator for a moment on his Pilgrim's Progress. A little further on we came to the sacred spot where lie the remains of Susannah Wesley, the mother of John and Charles, here we paused and thought of her faithful work. I find I am obliged to cut my letter short, as I have so much to write you about. * * * A. E. DONOHAN.

CANOEING IN CANADA.

THE GRAND SCENERY SEEN BY DEVOOTEE OF THE SPORT.

A Hundred Mile Trip Down the Grand River from Elora to Brantford—The Glory of Running the Rapids—An Unheard-of Feast for Women.

Three tent little beam wood canoes, manned at Elora, maintained a steady pace down the river, at a rapid, agile paddle, and before us a run of nearly seven miles on one of the most rushing rivers in Ontario, who would ask more than this for a typical outing in many a day's life. For three girls who were mad enough to attempt running these wild rapids while the water was at flood height, and the river swollen by recent rains until the ferry was unsteady enough to lessen the desire for a spring cruise even in the sturdy hearts of some of our best club men. But what were three girls won't attempt in the way of an outdoor frolic, and the testing of genuine Canadian sport is not without its pleasures. That canoeing is the most popular sport in the Canada is day is beyond dispute, and few are the back-lanes, rivers and forest streams that have not mirrored paddle and Paddleboard and birchbark; but never before have the Grand Valley and the Grand gorges between Elora and Brantford been run by ladies. Old canoeists told us we would do it, they told our boys they would regret taking us before the first night closed in; that the cruise was too long, too arduous, too hazardous; but one day only counted, and the girls were declared that we girls would "pull through" in "better shape" than many of the men they had piloted down the Grand Valley at Elora. It seems past the pretty little city of Brantford, nearly 100 miles distant.

And did start, right in a down-pour of rain, whose mist and grayness shut out all too soon the long, little village of the Grand Falls, which was indeed a rich treat. The speeches were short, spicy and cutting. I heard Balfour, who is nephew of Lord Salisbury. He is a very pleasant speaker. I also heard the G. O. M. several times. Lord Randolph Churchill, Mr. Morley (dearly to Ireland), Joseph Redmond, Tim Hales, Joseph Chamberlain, Sir Charles Russell, the world's greatest lawyer; Sir Edward Clark, another distinguished lawyer; Mr. Carson (ex-Australian premier of Ireland), and several other distinguished men, some of them cabinet ministers. But when Mr. Gladstone would rise you could hear a pin drop. His voice is rich, sonorous, and words are beautiful as they fall from his lips. Knowing you are such an admirer of him, how I wish you could have been present. I have so much to say concerning the House of Commons that I will be obliged to pass on to another part of my letter and continue that in the next issue. Ella and I visited St. Paul's Cathedral, only spending an hour; in order to do it well, we must spend at least a day. Then we crossed over to Westminster Abbey, only paying a brief visit, as time would not permit us remaining any length of time, but shall in the near future visit it again. We also visited Hyde Park, the most fashionable drive in the world. We spent one afternoon there. One can feast his eyes royally all he wishes if he only has some one to point the people out to him. I am pleased to inform you that we shall have an excellent opportunity of seeing the wedding procession of the Duke of York, as they pass by our office which is located in Poultry street, No. 42, E. C. We could get good prices for our windows, which would be used by tourists, but as we have our own Canadian party we have decided to enjoy that pleasure ourselves and do without the money, which, I have already learned, is one's best friend in London. True, things only cost a penny, but every time one wins some one else has to pay for the penny, and when the shades of evening fall you find yourself minus of a pound or two. To-day I called on Sir Charles Tupper, had a few minutes' conversation with him, found him very pleasant and communicative, gave me a pressing invitation to the Canadian Dominion Day dinner which is to take place in Westminster Palace Hotel. In this hotel the "Fathers of Confederation" met and decided our fate as a nation. Enclosed find programme for the dinner and name of the speakers. I notice our next Governor-General, Earl of Aberdeen, is to be there; also Marquis of Lorne. Sir Charles told me they would expect about 150 Canadian guests. The price will be thirty shillings—intend going. I must not neglect to write you that Ella, the boys and myself attended service at City Road Chapel, Join Wesley's church yesterday. It was indeed a great treat. How my thoughts turned to the little stone church at home and to the old pioneers of Methodism in Farmersville. What a glorious sight it would have been for some of those to have stood inside of Wesley chapel and by his grave. The next guest to John Wesley's is Dr. Adam Clarke, whom you have often quoted to me. Just across the road is Bunhill Field graveyard. Here was stood by the grave of John Bunyan and the mediator for a moment on his Pilgrim's Progress. A little further on we came to the sacred spot where lie the remains of Susannah Wesley, the mother of John and Charles, here we paused and thought of her faithful work. I find I am obliged to cut my letter short, as I have so much to write you about. * * * A. E. DONOHAN.

LOVERS' LEAP.

mer hotel therein. In the very heart of the city, the Grand Falls, which was indeed a rich treat. The speeches were short, spicy and cutting. I heard Balfour, who is nephew of Lord Salisbury. He is a very pleasant speaker. I also heard the G. O. M. several times. Lord Randolph Churchill, Mr. Morley (dearly to Ireland), Joseph Redmond, Tim Hales, Joseph Chamberlain, Sir Charles Russell, the world's greatest lawyer; Sir Edward Clark, another distinguished lawyer; Mr. Carson (ex-Australian premier of Ireland), and several other distinguished men, some of them cabinet ministers. But when Mr. Gladstone would rise you could hear a pin drop. His voice is rich, sonorous, and words are beautiful as they fall from his lips. Knowing you are such an admirer of him, how I wish you could have been present. I have so much to say concerning the House of Commons that I will be obliged to pass on to another part of my letter and continue that in the next issue. Ella and I visited St. Paul's Cathedral, only spending an hour; in order to do it well, we must spend at least a day. Then we crossed over to Westminster Abbey, only paying a brief visit, as time would not permit us remaining any length of time, but shall in the near future visit it again. We also visited Hyde Park, the most fashionable drive in the world. We spent one afternoon there. One can feast his eyes royally all he wishes if he only has some one to point the people out to him. I am pleased to inform you that we shall have an excellent opportunity of seeing the wedding procession of the Duke of York, as they pass by our office which is located in Poultry street, No. 42, E. C. We could get good prices for our windows, which would be used by tourists, but as we have our own Canadian party we have decided to enjoy that pleasure ourselves and do without the money, which, I have already learned, is one's best friend in London. True, things only cost a penny, but every time one wins some one else has to pay for the penny, and when the shades of evening fall you find yourself minus of a pound or two. To-day I called on Sir Charles Tupper, had a few minutes' conversation with him, found him very pleasant and communicative, gave me a pressing invitation to the Canadian Dominion Day dinner which is to take place in Westminster Palace Hotel. In this hotel the "Fathers of Confederation" met and decided our fate as a nation. Enclosed find programme for the dinner and name of the speakers. I notice our next Governor-General, Earl of Aberdeen, is to be there; also Marquis of Lorne. Sir Charles told me they would expect about 150 Canadian guests. The price will be thirty shillings—intend going. I must not neglect to write you that Ella, the boys and myself attended service at City Road Chapel, Join Wesley's church yesterday. It was indeed a great treat. How my thoughts turned to the little stone church at home and to the old pioneers of Methodism in Farmersville. What a glorious sight it would have been for some of those to have stood inside of Wesley chapel and by his grave. The next guest to John Wesley's is Dr. Adam Clarke, whom you have often quoted to me. Just across the road is Bunhill Field graveyard. Here was stood by the grave of John Bunyan and the mediator for a moment on his Pilgrim's Progress. A little further on we came to the sacred spot where lie the remains of Susannah Wesley, the mother of John and Charles, here we paused and thought of her faithful work. I find I am obliged to cut my letter short, as I have so much to write you about. * * * A. E. DONOHAN.

Below the narrow and rocky rapids ran the magnificent and splendid precipitous stream into the Cokerker Rapids, then successively into the Grand Falls, and finally into the Lake of the Falls, which is the most beautiful and scenic spot in the world. One can feast his eyes royally all he wishes if he only has some one to point the people out to him. I am pleased to inform you that we shall have an excellent opportunity of seeing the wedding procession of the Duke of York, as they pass by our office which is located in Poultry street, No. 42, E. C. We could get good prices for our windows, which would be used by tourists, but as we have our own Canadian party we have decided to enjoy that pleasure ourselves and do without the money, which, I have already learned, is one's best friend in London. True, things only cost a penny, but every time one wins some one else has to pay for the penny, and when the shades of evening fall you find yourself minus of a pound or two. To-day I called on Sir Charles Tupper, had a few minutes' conversation with him, found him very pleasant and communicative, gave me a pressing invitation to the Canadian Dominion Day dinner which is to take place in Westminster Palace Hotel. In this hotel the "Fathers of Confederation" met and decided our fate as a nation. Enclosed find programme for the dinner and name of the speakers. I notice our next Governor-General, Earl of Aberdeen, is to be there; also Marquis of Lorne. Sir Charles told me they would expect about 150 Canadian guests. The price will be thirty shillings—intend going. I must not neglect to write you that Ella, the boys and myself attended service at City Road Chapel, Join Wesley's church yesterday. It was indeed a great treat. How my thoughts turned to the little stone church at home and to the old pioneers of Methodism in Farmersville. What a glorious sight it would have been for some of those to have stood inside of Wesley chapel and by his grave. The next guest to John Wesley's is Dr. Adam Clarke, whom you have often quoted to me. Just across the road is Bunhill Field graveyard. Here was stood by the grave of John Bunyan and the mediator for a moment on his Pilgrim's Progress. A little further on we came to the sacred spot where lie the remains of Susannah Wesley, the mother of John and Charles, here we paused and thought of her faithful work. I find I am obliged to cut my letter short, as I have so much to write you about. * * * A. E. DONOHAN.

Two farmers residing near Perth paid a penalty of $30 and $20 respectively for watering and skimming their milk. Inspector Pablo prosecuted.

The Babcock test is a great detective and farmers are very foolish to risk their name, fame and dollars for the small sum that in the course of a season they may succeed in stealing from their neighbors.

Reports in reference to the crops, furnished by the Great Northwestern Telegraph Company, have been received from nearly every county in Ontario, and it is shown that in every section of the province the prospects are of the brightest.

Hay is now being harvested and in all parts the yield is abundant; while the outlook for wheat and other grains, as well as fruit, is most gratifying.

English Spavin Liniment removes all hard, soft or caloused Lumps and Blisters from horses, Blood Spavin, Curbs, Splints, Ring Bone, Sweeney, Stiffes, Sprains, Sore and Swollen Throat, Coughs, etc. Save $50 by use of one bottle. Warranted by J. P. Lamb.

How to Get a "Sunlight" Picture. Send 25 "Sunlight" Soap wrappers (wrappers bearing the words "Why Does a Woman Look Off Sooner Than Man") to Lever Bros., Ltd., 43 Scott St., Toronto, and you will receive by post a pretty picture, free from advertising, and well worth framing. This is an easy way to decorate your home. The soap is the best in the market and it will only cost 1c postage to send in the wrappers, if you leave the ends open. Write your address carefully.

WALL PAPER

Wall Paper

Ten Rolls of Paper and Border for 50c.

25c Paper for 18c

20c " " 14c

15c " " 11c

10c " " 8c

8c " " 6c

AT O'DELLE'S

TELEPHONE 183

WATCHES

The best makes at the lowest prices—Gold, Silver and Filled cases.

JEWELRY

Largest styles in Bracelets, Pins, Brooches, Fancy Combs, &c.

PLATED WARE

A fine selection of the nicest and newest patterns. Extra value in Spoons, Forks and Knives. Engraved Free.

STATIONERY

Note paper, Envelopes, Blank Books, School Books, Sunday School Library Books, &c. Discount to clergymen and Sunday Schools.

ALL GOODS WHOLESALE & RETAIL

Our Specialty.—Correct fitting of Spectacles by graduates of Ophthalmic Schools.

WM. COATES & SON

JEWELERS & OPTICIANS

220 King Street, Brockville

DRESS GOODS

This week we are having a run on Dress Goods. Our customers are taking advantage of our low price sale. We are selling those all-Wool Serges in Blue and Black, 42 inches wide, at 37c. 60c Serges in Blue and Black at 50c. Black Cashmere's at 35c, 35c, 40c and 45c are grand value Whip Cord, Fancy Tweeds and Summer Dress Goods at 20 per cent less than regular price. See our Remnant File at 25c each.

CLOTHING

We have a few Summer Coats and Vests left, also a few Alpaca Coats which we will clear at a sacrifice. Felt Hats at cost. Latest styles in Children's Suits, Children's Fancy Caps and Turn 'o' Shanters, at

BRADLEY'S

KING STREET W. BROCKVILLE

JOS. LANE,

Main St., opposite Maley's Boot & Shoe Store, BROCKVILLE

LARGEST STOCK OF WATCHES

of any house in town

His stock of Clocks, Jewelry, Diamonds, Spectacles, Etc., is complete in every department and

WILL BE SOLD RIGHT

Repairing by Skilled Workmen Our Specialty.

Give us a call when wanting anything in our line. We can suit you.

LOST OR FAILING MANHOOD,

General and Nervous Debility.

HERE ARE A FEW PRICES THAT I WILL SELL FOR THIS MONTH:

No. 1 with reservoir... $10.00 No. 2, square... " 20 " 14.00

No. 3, with reservoir... " 20 " 19.00 No. 4, bottle... " 20 " 12.00

No. 5, square... " 20 " 15.00 No. 6, bottle... " 20 " 8.00

No. 7, with reservoir... " 20 " 17.00

W. F. EARL - ATHENS

Buy It! Try It!

Buy the favorite brand of Machine Oil, viz: Peerless Machine Oil

GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

Bargains in Dry Goods.

Stock Must be Reduced

ALTHOUGH our spring and early summer trade has been much larger than former years, yet we are carrying $3,000.00 more goods than we should at this date, and will reduce the amount during the next 30 days by making GENUINE and SWEEPING reductions in price throughout the entire stock. This certainly is a money-saving opportunity. Will you improve it?

A NEW FEATURE

Our Special Bargain and Remnant Counter—every article a prize. Don't fail to make an early visit.

Central Block, Athens. H. H. ARNOLD

SEEDS

We have them—all kinds of Flower, Field and Garden—Stocks Bros., Fisher's, Evans', Fryer's—all fresh and reliable.

PURE TIMOTHY AND CLOVER

GROCERIES For the Home and Holidays we have just in the market, fine line of Sugars, Spices, Flavoring Extracts, pure Coffee, Full supply of Pickles and Canned Goods. Oranges only 25c per doz. Lemons, Bananas, Pineapples, Fruits, Raisins, Currants. We take in exchange all kinds of farm produce. We want a large quantity of dried apples.

When you go fishing or camping come to us for your supplies.

The Athens Grocery