The Ideal Beverage

ASK FOR Labatt's
(LONDON)

A PALE ALE, palatable, full of the virtues of malt and hops, and in sparkling condition, is the ideal beverage.

Now when chemists announce its purity, and judges its merit, one need look no further.

Safe For a Short Distance.
 A young man who is blessed with a Scotch kinsman need never fear that he will be allowed to hold too high an opinion of himself.

"What do you think of my project to study law?" asked young Witherby of his great-uncle, Robert Donaldson, a person whom he was desirous to propitiate.

"I should call it a vera harmless amusement," said Mr. Donaldson dryly after a comprehensive survey of the young man's fatuous face and gay attire. "if not carried too far."

Revolutionists Killed by Own Bomb.
 Paris, May 4.—A bomb explosion occurred in the Forest of Vincennes at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, killing a Russian named Striga, and dangerously wounding a companion named Sokoloff. The two men were proceeding through the wood, each carrying a bomb, with the evident purpose of hiding them for future use. Striga and Sokoloff both were students of the School of Mines, and members of Russian Students' Union.

The general strike shows further evidence of disruption. Minor disorders reported are confined to the outlying factory districts.

Abbey's Effer-vescent Salt puts the whole system in the best possible condition to resist the enervating effects of "spring fever."

It is the only tonic needed to purify and enrich the blood—regulate bowels, liver and kidneys—sweeten the stomach—and strengthen digestion. Physicians everywhere recommend it.

How to Use Brains.
 A head man in a manufactory was watching a drayman tugging at a heavy case one day. The drayman's face was red, and the muscles of his neck were bulging. The overseer, says a writer in the Baltimore Sun, thought it was the right moment to offer practical assistance.

"Wait a minute there," he said. "Let me show you how easy it is when you use a little brain with your muscle." And he grabbed a hook, stuck it into the case, gave a yank and went springing into the gutter under the dray. He got up, looked at the hook and said, "Confound it, the handle comes off!"

"Yes, sir," said the drayman respectfully. "My brain told me that, and I didn't use it."

A Lucky Circumstance.
 In the house of commons no incident is greeted with more hearty laughter than that of a member who, after an eloquent oration, plumps down on his silk hat on the bench behind him. A young member who had just made his maiden speech sat upon his new silk hat. There were roars of laughter.

An Irish member immediately arose and gravely said, "Mr. Speaker, permit me to congratulate the honorable gentleman upon the happy circumstance that when he sat on his hat his head was not in it!" This remark upset the dignity of the house, and the speaker called "Order, order," amid roars of laughter.

An ounce of gold in the bank is worth a pound of luck.

DR. AGNEW

WITH THE FORESIGHT OF A PROPHET, BY THE AID OF THAT GREATEST OF KNOWN TREATMENTS—"DR. AGNEW'S CURE FOR THE HEART"—IS LEADING THOUSANDS OUT OF "EGYPTIAN BONDAGE," OUT OF ILL-HEALTH AND UNTOLD SUFFERING TO THE "PROMISED LAND" OF PERFECT HEALTH

DOES YOUR HEART ACHE?

DR. AGNEW'S CURE FOR THE HEART WILL STOP THE PAIN

Is there palpitation—Is there fluttering—Is your breath short—Is it hard to find your pulse sometimes—Do you have smothering spells—Do your feet and ankles swell—Do you have fainting turns—Do you have nightmares—Do you have pain in the left side, shoulder or arm—Ever experience great hunger and exhaustion—Do you have chilly sensations? Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart has saved thousands of sufferers, and it can help and cure you; but you cannot afford to toy with heart troubles, so if you have any of the heart symptoms to-day then to-day is the day to put yourself in touch with a remedy—this great heart treatment that never fails.

"I was under treatment," says Mr. A. Lavers, of Collingwood, Ont., "with some of the best physicians in London (England) for what they diagnosed as incurable heart trouble. I suffered agonies through pain about my heart, fainting spells, palpitation and exhaustion. As a drowning man grasps at a straw I tried Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart. The first bottle relieved me greatly; two bottles took away all traces of my heart trouble."

ONE OF THE OLD GUARD

His Career.

Hon. Peter White, M. P., Passes at Clifton Springs, N.Y.,

After Lingering Illness, Member For Pembroke Succumbs at the Age of 67 Years—Sketch of His Public Career—Sir Wilfrid Laurier Pays Him a Noble Tribute In the House of Commons.

Clifton Springs, N. Y., May 4.—Hon. Peter White, M. P., ex-Speaker of the House of Commons of Canada, died at a sanitarium here yesterday. His body will be taken to Pembroke, Ont., his former home.

Mr. White was 67 years old and had been stopping here for five weeks.

Hon. Peter White was born in Pembroke, Aug. 30, 1838, the town founded by his father in 1823, when he came out from Scotland to enter the lumber trade. He was educated in the public schools and received his business education in Ottawa. He entered the lumber business in partnership with his brother, and with head offices in Pembroke began to take an active part in municipal affairs, occupying the position of reeve for some years. He actively supported the construction of the Kingston & Pembroke Railway. He was first elected M. P. for North Renfrew in 1874, was re-elected on petition and defeated a by-election which followed. He, however, captured the seat in 1876. He was for years one of Sir John A. Macdonald's "old guard," but separated from the Conservatives on the Manitoba school question, being opposed to coercion, and at the elections of 1896 was defeated by Mackie, Liberal. He was again defeated in 1900, but in 1904 was successful, holding the seat until his death. He was Speaker of the House of Commons from 1891 to 1896. He was connected with several important industrial and financial undertakings. He was a member of the Presbyterian Church and was married in 1877 to a Miss Thompson.

Mourning by Commons.
 Ottawa, May 4.—At the opening of the House yesterday afternoon, Sir Wilfrid Laurier announced the death of Hon. Peter White (North Renfrew).

"A more respectable, able and honest member never sat in this House," said the Premier.

"The younger members of the House could hardly form a fair estimate of his ability. He had been returned to the present Parliament after a long period of absence, but the hand of death was then already upon him.

"The older members of the House, of whom, unfortunately, I am one, will recall his sterling qualities as a member of the House of Commons. For ability, courtesy, firmness and impartiality, he had no superior."

Mr. R. L. Borden thanked the Prime Minister for his kind words of sympathy. The deceased had retired for a time from public life, at about the time Mr. Borden had entered it, in 1896. Mr. White sat in Parliament all through the long term of Conservative supremacy. He possessed high qualities of courage, integrity and dignity. His death was a distinct loss, not only to the Conservative party, but to Parliament and to the country.

THE RAILWAY ACT.

Amendments Proposed by Hon. Mr. Emmerson in the House.

Ottawa, May 4.—Hon. Mr. Emmerson last night presented to the House, as amendments to the Railway Act, a number of measures that grapple with the hardships inflicted upon the public by the great railways of the country. In brief they are:

Railway Commission may take testimony, if desired, in foreign countries.

New industries locating within six miles of a railway may, by depositing in bank cost of desired extension, compel its construction.

This money to be repaid to the manufacturer by rebates.

Where crossing are considered convenient, the board may order railways to make such connection one with another as will accord reasonable opportunity for transfer of passengers and mails.

Switching, demurrage and connection with private lines are drastically dealt with.

The board of commissioners are given full power to order railway connection and service.

To Safeguard Peace.
 Paris, May 4.—King Edward dined at the Place of the Elisee with President Fallieres. The President toasted the King, saying:

"Your Majesty's frequent visits are a precious pledge of the cordiality of the relations between France and England. Both are happy to sincerely act together for civilization and peace."

King Edward expressed the pleasure his visits to France had afforded him, adding: "I am sure the cordial will do more than anything else to safeguard peace."

Thanks of Congress.
 Washington, May 4.—A special message was sent to congress yesterday by President Roosevelt, in which he expressed the attitude of the Government regarding the offer of contributions to the San Francisco fire and earthquake sufferers from foreign countries, and recommended that the thanks of the supreme Legislative power of the nation be tendered them for their sympathy and friendship.

Almost Electrocuted.
 Neustadt, May 4.—While engaged in building in the cellar of Rahn Bros' store, Peter Harburn came in contact with an electric light wire and narrowly escaped being electrocuted. A severe electric storm yesterday afternoon caused considerable damage to electric trolleys, per wires and set fire to George Bin Watercross, 5c.
