

$10,000,000 FOR MISSIONS.

Great Pan-Anglican Movement
Clearly Outlined.

Congress Will be Held in London
in June

And Thank Offering Will be Collected Next Sunday.

The following very excellent article on the coming Pan-Anglican conference, and the great thank-offering to be taken up in all the churches of the denomination next Sunday, has been supplied to the Times and is printed with pleasure:

That the great Pan-Anglican Congress, which is to be held in London from the 10th to the 24th of June, will be an epoch-making event is certain, though it takes a good deal to grip the imagination and arouse the whole-hearted enthusiasm of the average stay-at-home Churchman. There are many outward evidences that the Spirit is "brooding over the Church" and kindling with a holy zeal many hearts; but what the ultimate result will be, it is impossible for human tongue to tell or pen to write.

There will first be a gathering of Churchmen and Churchwomen of such a character and on such a scale that its importance—may easily equal or even surpass that of any similar assembly in the long history of the church's organic growth. From the mission fields, from the United States of America, from the cities and plains of the Indian Empire, from the borders of the Arctic circle, from the islands of the Southern sea, as well as from Australia, Africa and Canada, men and women will meet in London for counsel and prayer, with a view of setting forward upon earth more vigorously than heretofore the rule of the Lord Jesus Christ over the daily life of those for whom He died upon the cross.

The programme for the week's congress will be a comprehensive one, dealing with (1) the sanctity of marriage, (2) law and public opinion on marriage, (3) commercial morality. (This last will be treated in its widest sense, covering such questions as the liquor traffic, gambling, the stock exchange, (4) the church and human thought, (under this head will be treated the faith and agnosticism, the faith and science); (5) the Bible, how it ought to be taught, (6) the church's ministry, (7) mission sin non-Christian lands, (8) missions in Christendom.

In addition to these deliberative meetings the church is invited to make, by contributions garnered from its every part, a great thank-offering to God for His fatherly guidance of our life and work in the years that are past and among the specially benefited by the gift thus presented to Him is to arm the church to fresh endeavors and to equip it for doing better work. It is to be a joint offering whereto every church member is invited to add his quota, however small.

Next Sunday thank-offerings are to be taken up in every church in this city. It is time that church people in every parish, in every home, were considering what part they can severally and collectively take in making the thank-offering a reality. Already we learn of the glad and loyal contributions which are being offered on the remotest frontiers of Christendom, in Esquimaux villages, in Melanesian islands and in African forests; they of their poverty are sending their two mites to be added to the gift for the common good.

The church people of Hamilton will, it is believed, not be behind hand in a task belonging to all. Special envelopes for the purpose are to be had at the Synod office free of charge.

There are those who dream that the great thank offering which will flow in from the whole Anglican communion and will be presented at a service in St. Paul's Cathedral on the 24th of June (St. John the Baptist day) will amount to $2,000,000. The most faint-hearted can be certain that it will reach $1,000,000. The fund thus raised is to be distributed for the prosecution of missionary work throughout the world. No part of it is to remain in England—all will be sent to the domestic and foreign mission fields. There is a strong consensus in favor of devoting a large part of the unappropriated offerings to "the extension of church work in western Canada." The feeling that the more backward part of our own country is to be specially benefited by the thank-offering should incline Canadian members of the Church of England to be cordial contributors to it.

One of the most striking proposals is that made by the Bishop of Dorchester, that there should not only be a great thank-offering of money at the thanksgiving service at St. Paul's Cathedral in connection with the Congress, but that there should also be a substantial and notable offering of men for foreign service.

The Bishop recently addressed a letter to the members of the Junior Clerical Missionary Association in the Diocese of Winchester, in which he states: "An offering of money is a trifling thing, compared with the need of a substantial and notable offering of men to go. Do you think that ten of us from the Diocese of Winchester could on that day make such an offering. As a Bishop, it belongs to my office to offer my name first; not as feeling clearly and individually called, but as believing in the response to this inquiry and challenge should prove ready it will be a sufficient sign that the idea is not a mere fancy, but from the Divine Spirit leading us; and to me a sufficient assurance that in no other way could I at this time serve the Church better than by breaking through obstacles and helping to lead the way. Do not say that something of the kind would be good, but that ten from our diocese is too large an order, because the diocese must suffer. For a long time we (the whole Church of England) have kept more than our share. It is time that we had less than our share now, if need be."

Although originally intended only for the younger clergy of the Winchester Diocese, the appeal has found a response in other parts of the country, and missionary workers in other dioceses are taking the matter up, so that a stream has been set flowing, which may, under Divine guidance, become a mighty sea fraught with blessing to the millions of heathenism.

The Japanese budget for the year 1908, 1909 shows a deficit of nearly $5,000,000.

JOINED IN REVIVAL

Zion and Barton Bands Assist at Charlton Avenue.

The meeting in Charlton Avenue Methodist Church last evening was a rousing one—one of the best of the series. A band of young women was present from Zion Tabernacle, and also a band of young men from Barton Church. As usual, there was a short musical session, the choir rendering some fine music. A most praiseworthy thing is the way the choir has turned out to the meetings. It has been very helpful in the series. Mr. McHardy's theme was "Almost Persuaded to be a Christian." He took his text from Mark xii. 24, "Thou art not far from the Kingdom of God."

One of the results in giving oneself entirely to God is peace and joy in the Holy Ghost. He spoke of the parable of "the rich young ruler"; how he was almost persuaded, but to do nothing he would not give up. It is so to-day; so many are almost within the Kingdom, but stop at the door. There is one besetting sin they cannot let go, it may be money, amusement, or numerous other things. He gave instances illustrating the sad state between him and the Kingdom. A number went forward, and a large number gave testimonies of the Christian life they were trying to lead. To-morrow night McHardy will tell of his own life, giving a few pages from his experiences. Quite a number of young men stayed at an after meeting.

ROLLER RACING.

Eleven Entries For the Race at Britannia To-night.

Speed roller skating is becoming very popular in this city as shown by the enormous crowds that have attended the races held at the Britannia roller rink, every Friday night. To-night the third event in the one mile championship series will be skated, and the event is expected to be a fast and close one. To win the medal emblematic of the city one mile championship it is required that a skater win two events in the series. Among the list of to-night's entries will be found two winners of previous races besides a number who showed up well in the former events and several dark horses of whom much is expected, are also entered. To-night's entry list is: H. Cull, Walter McMichael, Harold Hamilton, Fred Garson, Willie Daniels, A. Peters, Sandy McMaster, Elmer Hawkes, P. Christie, Gordon Rigg, W. Smith (Burlington).

After the one mile championship of this city has been decided Preston B. Porter, of Buffalo, champion speed skater of New York State, will be brought to the Britannia rink and a match arranged between him and the one mile champion of this city. The matter of sending one or two representatives from this city to the Billboard roller skating race, which will take place in Cincinnati in April, is also being considered by the rink management.

The monthly meeting of St. Hilda Chapter, Daughters of the Empire, was held in the Y. W. C. A. parlors, the Regent, Mrs. H. H. Robertson, presiding. The attendance was very encouraging. THE MIGHTY DEEP.

Thou Mighty Deep whose vast expanse,
My senses doth confound,
For wonders meet my every glance,
Oh, mystery profound.
Diamonded I gaze upon the scene,
The mind recalls it fails
To grasp such skill so thick the screen,
Man's thought before it pales.

Not human wisdom set thy bounds,
For fixed thy limits were
By one unseen whose works astound,
And claims that none can tell.

Ten thousand worlds, their presence proves
The majesty and might
Of Him whose will controls and moves,
And spheres, His right.

ON BANKING.

Interesting Address at Knox Y. M.
U. Meeting.

There was a good turnout of the members at the weekly meeting of Knox Young Men's Union last night. The concert committee reported that arrangements were being made to hold the annual concert in March, and that the programme would be along the lines that had been so successful in other years. Mr. B. O. Hooper, of the Bank of Hamilton, was the speaker of the evening. He gave a most interesting and instructive talk on "Banking." He thoroughly explained the details of that business and the effect it had on commercial life. He dwelt on the problems the banks were called on to face and of the strict methods employed in carrying on the business. He regretted that Canada could not supply enough young men to fill all the positions, and hoped that it would not always be so. The laws of our country are very strict, and they helped to keep our banking system on a sound basis. The stringency of the money market and the criticism of banks for carrying loans in New York were also touched on. Mr. Hooper was tendered a very hearty vote of thanks at the close. N. E. Zimmerman, of Barton Y. M. U., and F. Griffith, of the Fireside Club, were also called on for short addresses. Next Thursday night the members of the union will go to Toronto to hear the debate with Cooke Church Young People's Society. The subject is "Resolved, that trades unions are detrimental to the best interests of the country." S. H. Lees, W. E. Knapp and H. Truscott will uphold the interests of Knox, and will have the affirmative side of the subject.

E. A. C. PEW DEAD.

Well Known Promoter, Formerly of St. Catharines.

The death occurred yesterday of Mr. E. A. C. Pew at the home of his eldest daughter, 31 Henry street, Toronto. Mr. Pew, who was in his seventy-fourth year, was a promoter well known in Ontario especially, and throughout Canada, as well. He was the father of a number of corporations which have proved successful, and while he promoted some companies, which failed, he was always regarded as one of the far-seeing men of the country.

Mr. Pew was one of the original promoters of the Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo Railway, and was also largely interested in the Niagara Central. He at one time owned a branch line, which he sold at a very good profit to the C. P. R.

He was the promoter of an iron mine near Ottawa. He was also interested in a number of ironfields along the St. Lawrence on the north shore.

Mr. Pew leaves two daughters and one son, all residing in Toronto. The funeral will be held on Saturday at 2.30 p. m. from 31 Henry street to Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Mr. Pew lived at St. Catharines up to a few years ago. He was quite a prominent figure in Hamilton for some years. Besides being connected with the T. H. & B. proposition in its early days he endeavored to promote two or three companies here later. Bringing water for power purposes from Lake Erie to the mountain brow was one of his hobbies.

The Best Fuel.

It makes a great deal of difference to the operator of a large manufacturing plant what kind of fuel he burns under his boilers. The heating value of various sizes and qualities of coal varies widely, and every experienced manufacturer knows that the cheapest kind is not necessarily the most economical to use. The same general rule applies to the advertising fuel that keeps up the steam in the boiler. There are cheaper mediums, cost alone considered, than daily newspapers, but none cheaper relative to the results produced. It is poor economy to pay out good money for avoidable waste. There is a medium of mispent energy when the advertising space is devoted to an active campaign in live newspapers. Advertise in the Times.

FINE DEBATE BY LIBERALS.

City Ownership of Street Railway System.

Was Won by the Negative Side Last Evening.

Trusts to be Considered at the Next Debate.

A revival of the old-time debates of the Liberal Club has been brought about, and friends of the club are to be treated to something much above the average in this line during the winter months. The club is fortunate in having a nice, cozy hall especially for debating, separate from the reading, recreation and card rooms, and last night this hall was filled by an appreciative crowd who listened to "Resolved, that Hamilton should own and operate its street railway," debated in a very able way.

The chair was occupied by Mr. Wm. Cooper, Vice-President of the club, who, in opening, explained that it was intended to organize a debating section and have a public debate once or twice every month. He invited all present to remain after the debate and talk this matter over.

Mr. Charles Peebles was the leader for the affirmative, and he presented the facts and arguments in favor of the city owning and operating the street railway, in a clear, forceful and consecutive way. He was followed by Mr. J. A. Soule, for the negative. After devoting about six or seven minutes to a consideration of each argument put forward by Mr. Peebles, he presented an ably thought-out line of argument against the proposition. Mr. Soule's argument was ably supported by Mr. H. L. Lazier, who dealt with Mr. Soule's arguments in a clever way, and Mr. J. R. Marshall was the last of the regular speakers, supporting his leader with some new arguments and making an able criticism of the opposite side. Mr. Peebles' reply was very effective.

The judges were Messrs. C. B. Linton, Thomas Leitch and Dr. D. McEduards. In delivering the decision in favor of the negative, Dr. McEduards gave a few words of the highest praise and criticism, especially advising that in future debates a time limit be placed on the speakers and strictly adhered to.

EXCELSIOR MEN'S CLUB.

The Excelsior Young Men's Club of Zion Tabernacle last night in the Sunday school room. Several new members joined the society. The programme took the form of a mock city council, which gave the members a good chance to express their views on various city matters. A reading was given by Robert Broadbent, also a solo by Mr. Mitchell. On Jan. 30 the club will debate with the Young Ladies' Society of Zion Tabernacle on a very interesting subject.

Price Drops $1.00 Each Day.

To-day Oak Hall special sale has reached the $11.00 mark, and over 400 suits and overcoats to choose from at that price, and on Saturday the price will be $10.00 for the garments left, and the manager says they have quite a lot of the high priced $15.00 to $25.00 garments yet. These, he explains, would have been sold before had the sizes been just right for those who wanted them. Next week the price continues to drop one dollar each day.
