'ARMER'S DRESS.—A farmer, while laboring, is ught into pretty close intimacy with dirk, and clothes should correspond with his tabor. To ar fine clothes and clean linen while at work in field, would be highly inappropriate; but when rides into terms of the court of ar fine clothes and clean linen while at work in field, would be highly inappropriate; but when rides into town with his family, or market with produce, it would elevate his calling in the imation of the world, if he were a little more reful of his appearance. No matter how indendent we may feel—however we may affect to spise the opinions of others, we are none of ustircly insensible to the fashions of the times or ecopinions of the world. Henry Ward Beecher ce used the expression—"True, dress does not ake the man; but when he is made, he looks true devised us."

THIS great household edicine ranks among the leading necessaries of life. It is well known to the world that it cures many complaints other remedies cannot reach, the act is as well established as that the sun lights the world. Disorders of the Liver and Stomach.

Disorders of the Liver and Stomach.

Most persons will, at some period of their lives, sufferfrom indigestion, derangement of the liver, stomach or bowels, which if not quickly removed, frequenty settle into a damegerous illness. It is well known in Indias, and other tropical climates, that Holloway's Phile are the only remedy that can be relied on in such cases. Almost every soldier abroad carries a box of them in his knapsack. In England most persons know that these Pille will cure them whenever the liver, stomach or bowels are out, of order, and that they need no physician.

Weakness and Debility.

Are the sources of the deadliest maladies. Their effect is to vitiate all the fluids of the body, and to send a poisoned stream through all the channels of circulation. Now what is the operation of the Pills? They cleanse the bowels, regulate the liver, bring the relaxed or irritated glomach into a natural condition, and acting through the secretive organs upon the blood itself, change the state of the system free sickness to health, by exercising a simultaneous and wholsome effect upon all its parts and functions. Complaints of Females.

The functional irregularities peculiar to the weaker sex are invariably corrected without pain or inconvenience by the use of Hollowayla Filla. They are the safest and surest me-dicine for all diseases incidental to females of all ages. Bilious Affections.

Bilique Affections.

All young children should have administered to them, from time to time, a few doses of these Pills, which will purify their blood, and enable them to pass safely through the different disorders incidental to children, such as measles, hopping-cough, 'owypote, and other infantise diseases. These Pills are so barmless in their nature as not to injure the most delicate constitution, and are therefore more peculiarly adapted as corrective of the humor's affecting them.
