10 CENT "CASCARETS"
IF BILIOUS OR COSTIVE

For Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Sluggish Liver and Bowels—They work while you sleep.

Furred Tongue, Bad Taste, Indigestion, Sallow Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a still barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist will keep you feeling good for months.

A quiet wedding was celebrated Wednesday last at the Methodist Parsonage, Fredericton, when Rev. Thomas Marshall united in marriage Mr. Donald O'Donnell of Ludlow, and Miss Elma Storey of Doaktown.

Moncton Officer Returns
Capt. Brenard H. T. McKenzie, of Moncton, who was wounded October 13th, landed at St. John on the S. S. Protetian Wednesday morning last, and is spending a month's furlough at his home. He was wounded in the head by a piece of shrapnel.

Coming From England
Mr. R. B. Bennett, K. C., of Calgary, who has been on a business trip to London, England, sailed on the Metagama from Liverpool, together with his brother, Captain Geo. Bennett, who has been in France since the outbreak of the war and for the past year has been seriously ill. Mr. Bennett and his brother are expected in Lunenburg Cape early this week.

Convalescent Hospital
His Lordship Bishop O'Leary has offered the old St. Vincent's Orphanage for use as a Convalescent Hospital for returned wounded soldiers. It is the intention to make a public appeal for funds to fit up the building as a Convalescent Hospital, and when this is done and all is complete, the hospital will be handed over to the military authorities.—Summerside Pioneer.

Destroyed by Fire
The beautiful residence of Mrs. John Menzies, Cassilis, together with all its contents and outbuildings were totally destroyed by fire, which broke out about six thirty on Wednesday evening. Mrs. Menzies with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. D. Blackmore, were alone in the house when the fire was first discovered in the kitchen, and before help could be summoned the house was a mass of flames, and neighbours efforts to divert to trying to save the barn and other buildings but in vain. In less than an hour there was nothing left but the smouldering ruins. The loss is estimated at $3,000, with $1,100 insurance.

Premeditated and Discussed Beforehand

Evidence to Show That Ozzanne Murder Was Premeditated—
Lieut. Coderre Committed to Stand Trial

London, Dec. 23.—After two days' inquiry the magistrate's court, Lieut. George Coderre, Sherbrooke, Quebec, Forty-First Battalion, was today committed to stand trial for the murder of Sergeant Ozzanne, of the 9th Canadian Mounted Rifles. During the inquiry not a question was asked by counsel for the defence. The outstanding feature of today's hearing was the testimony of two witnesses, showing that the murder was premeditated and discussed with soldiers who treated the discussion as a joke. The witnesses said that if they had regarded Lieut. Coderre as talking seriously the tragedy would have been averted.

Sergeant Alphonse Martin of the Forty-First Battalion, an employee of the engineering department of the city of Montreal, gave evidence relating to a conversation he had with Lieut. Coderre in the Savoy Hotel in London on December 6th. The Lieut., he testified, approached him and asked if he would assist him to get a man out of his way, the man being Sergeant Ozzanne, who Coderre said had deposited five hundred dollars with him. He offered a half of the money to Martin if he would help to dispose of the sergeant. Coderre then detailed a plan whereby the sergeant was to be knocked on the head in the camp next day and he proposed that Martin strike the blow.

Sergeant Martin said he did not take Coderre seriously, and told him that it was too difficult to spill blood the trick better. Then he jokingly suggested serum anti-tuberculous and at Coderre's request he wrote the name in the pocketbook of the owner. Coderre asked how he would administer the poison and the sergeant told him to give it to the victim in a glass of water.

Sergeant Martin said he returned to camp on the 7th and late on the following day, Wednesday, Coderre

Six From one Family
Here is a Dalhousie instance of family patriotism:—George Simmonds who has enlisted in the 132nd Battalion has four brothers at or on the way to the front, and one sister a nurse.

Wants Convalescent Home
Dalhousie citizens are talking of steps to be taken to get the Government to purchase the Inch Arran Hotel for a Convalescent Home for returned soldiers. The Hotel has two hundred and sixty rooms with good grounds and beaches, and could be purchased for less than one-half the actual cost of the buildings alone.—Campbellton Tribune.

Fifty Percent. for Union
According to figures compiled by the church authorities at Toronto, fifty percent of the Presbyteries in Canada have given a majority of 22,770 for union, with the Methodist and Congregational churches. The vote was for 75,172; against, 52,402. The number of congregations giving this vote was 903, of which 618 gave majorities for union.—Ex.

Representative Chosen
The selection of Mr. Harry D. McLean, son of Senator McLean, to contest the vacancy in the First District of King's caused by the appointment of his father to the Senate, is one of the best that could be made and insures that district's support for the government. The nominee is a business man of ability and one who has the full confidence of everyone in above district as well as in the country at large, and although it will stir him a bit to make as good a representative as his illustrious father, it will not take him long to become a mighty close second. The nomination as one can readily imagine was unanimous.

Only a Warbler
Summerside Pioneer—We were speaking to a young man on the street this week who took exception to some bantering remarks of ours in these columns, which he took to be a reflection upon the energies of those young civilians who "do their bit" by keeping the Old Flag flying, vocally, at recruiting meetings. After we had assured him that our remarks were kindly meant, he told us that he would like to do his bit in the same way, but, unfortunately, he only knew two tunes. "One," he said, is "God Save the King; and the other isn't." That is exactly it. In times like these there are only two tunes—one is God Save the King and the other isn't. There are only two kinds of young men—those who are in khaki and those who aren't.

EDITH CAVELL

(By M. Whelan)
She died for her country's glory. This brave but gentle girl. Her name shall survive in story. Old England's priceless pearl. She faced her ferocious foe men. In vain had her friends appealed. Shot down by those brutal yeomen. On that far and fatal field.

Her country's brave old Banner Pinned fast to her brave young breast. She fell at her post of honor. And sank to her silent rest. To her home on the rose-crowned meadows.

Her soul sent a message wailed As she passed thru the valley of shadows From that far-flung, fatal field.

The fame of fair Edith Cavell From her humble place of birth To the ends of the world shall travel To the utmost bounds of earth. While the nations are slaying and snarling, To the death they will not yield. They buried this British Darling On that far-flung fatal field. Renous River, N. B.
