The terific north-east gale that sprang up auddenly on Wednesday night of last week and raged during Thursday caused terrible destruction to boats and lobster traps along the shore at the western end of the Island. From West Cape along towards North Cape and on the north shore along towards Alberton and further east all the lobster factories suffered severely. A great number of boats were driven ashore and smashed or badly demaged, and the beach all along this section was strewn with brokes traps. The loss is away up in the thousands of dollars, and the lobster fishing, so far at least as some of the factories are concerned, is practically par-

This is what our readers will discover by reference to our advertising columns. Certainly this gathering can scarcely fail to be a most charming outing. The trip on the steamer, the charming scenery and the beautiful new church are phases that must be a second of the marily attract. Dont forget the date 181

BELOW we give the dates of the teaparties thus far advertised in the Herald. User leaders will make a note of these so as not to forget any of them. Following is the order: Tuesday July 4th. Morell; Wednesday July 5th. Sturgeon and Tracadie; Saturday July 8th. St. Teresa'e; Tuesday July 11th. Cardigan Bridge and Kensington; Thursday July 13, Fort Augustus; Wednesday July 19th. Pignish. Others will be noted later.

evening that George McIntyre, aged 22 years, a seaman on board the Schr. Nutwood, lost his hold while at the mast head and fell to the deck, a distance of sev feet. He was picked up in an unconsc and his face terribly cut and ma is thought that he was also badly injured internally. He died about ten o'clock onday night. He belonged to Souris.

A GLANCE at the advertisement published in this issue should be sufficient to convince anyone that the Centenary and Festival to be held at Tignish on Wednesday, Iuly 19th, will be one of the most elaborate affairs of a social nature that this Province has witnessed. An energetic committee has charge of the arrangements and nothing will be left undose to make the gathering an immense success. Read the advertisement, and don't forget the date.

Read, Reflect, Then Act

On your own judgment. That judgment will tell you something like this:

This fellow Ramsay makes a great noise for a young fellow. He blows a good deal about what he can do, and he says it with as much assurance as if he had been in the business fifty years. But this is one of the great faults of the young men of the day, thinking they KNOW IT ALL whether they do or not. But this fellow seems to have a ring of sincerity about him, and if he has the stock which he claims to have, he's got a nice stock, he's got the goods I want; he's got them at a smaller price than I have been paying for them. However, it don't cost anything to drop in and see his goods, and I am going to do it next time I go to Charlottetown. I'll just cut this advertisement out of this paper, put it in my pocket, take it with me, chuck it down at him, and then let him wriggle out of it if he can. He has then either to do as he says, produce the goods he says he has or eat his own words, and if he does that I guess he'll have indigestion so bad that he won't blow any more about his goods and values. Now that's logic. Honor bright. Ain't that the way you will reason it out? But will you take the trouble to test it? We will see.
