WAR AND COMMERCE.—It is urged by some that English trade has gained larget by by the Franco-German war, and that she has been serving both belligerents to the great advantage of her commercial interest; but official statements serve that such has not been the case. But it is true that the sales of the "Commadian Pain Dostroyer" are rapidly increasing, and gatning the confidence of the public, for curing coughs, colds, rheumatism, neuralgia, summer complaints, &c. For acle by all Druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per bottle.
