

Beaumont.

Mr. Piper's mill has been refitted, and the enterprising owner is now in a better position than ever to attend to business in his line.

Dangannon.

The Ashfield agricultural show will be held here on October 4th.

Quite a number of our citizens are attending the exhibition in Toronto this week.

Joseph Bell, who was on a trip to the old country, returned a short time ago with a fine stallion colt. Mr. Bell seems determined to improve the class of horses in this neighborhood, and deserves the hearty support of farmers of this vicinity.

It is our painful duty this week to chronicle the death of Miss Johnston, of Ashfield. She took diphtheria, and despite every effort passed away on Friday night. She was an interesting young lady of about twenty-years of age.

Colborne.

COUNCIL MEETING.—The municipal council of Colborne met in the township hall on Wednesday, Aug. 22nd. Members all present except Mr. Glehill. Minutes of last meeting were read and adopted. Communication from James Mitchell regarding the water running off the road into his property. The matter was left over for further consideration. Account of Star office for printing, $25.05, left over. Communication from the county clerk requiring the sum of $2628.36 for county purposes. Communications from the different school sections requiring the following sums for school purposes:—No. 1, $770; No. 2, $850; No. 3, $580; No. 4, $400; No. 5, $415; No. 6, $475; No. 7, $250; A. U., $86.42; W. U., $62.87. Moved and seconded that a rate of 2 1/2 mills for local and 2 1/2 mills on the dollar for county purposes be levied on all the rateable property in the township. Carried. George Bisset was paid $14.50 for building culvert. J. A. McDonagh was paid $33.75 for wire fence. The council then adjourned.

Leoburn.

A tramp, strangely attired, and loud vulgar and saucy in his talk hovered around this locality on Sunday. He was made to "vamoose."

Our Dunlop cotem, was defeated at a recent game of croquet, which had attracted much attention. By moonlight a pair of maidens played two waterfowl, and worsted them. The girls are almost invincible on the croquet lawn.

Last Sunday Rev. J. A. Turnbull occupied his accustomed place in the Presbyterian church here, looking much improved in health after his trip among old friends in Urbane. He intends to deliver a series of sermons from the fifth chapter of John.

W. H. Aborn has returned from a visit to the old country, and looks well after his trip over the billows of the broad Atlantic. He was the guest of his father in Lincolnshire. He reports the crops in England below the average. He will shortly proceed to Montreal, to study medicine at McGill College.

Dunlop.

A new and permanent boiler has appeared at the Exchange. It is a boy.

A number of our residents who visited the Senoy village on the day of the Caledonian games, had a hearty shake of the hand from A. Hodge, the well known lumber dealer, formerly of this place.

A BAB TRAMP.—Last Sunday about 2 p. m. one of that unfortunate class of persons armed with a brass pan and tin dipper, unshowered himself unannounced into one of our farm houses through the front door, frightening the inmates, (two families) and causing considerable alarm. One went far as to assist him, but did not get in another quarter, and the intruder was ejected. Half a mile further on, he made another call, this time using the door bell, and being asked for a name. While the latter was being prepared, he asked for the bible, remarking that it was Sunday. After reading a few verses, he began asking where it was made and said he never saw any book without knowing that. Not being engaged in his argument, and some neighbors appearing, he thought it best to make himself scarce, leaving his meal untried. He next applied at a Leoburn home, this time demanding a hot meal. Being told however, that a cold one would be more convenient, he used some profane language, which did not do him any good, and the impatient stranger was told to desist, or to "move on." Previous experience suggested "humbug." He then proceeded to the Presbyterian church sheds, intending to take up his quarters for the night. Being advised, however, to proceed elsewhere, he retraced his steps to Dunlop, taking the VIII towards Carleton Place. His dress and appearance were hideous in the extreme, and sent a thrill of horror through the women and children who beheld him. Happily the day was Sunday, and the men were about, to keep an eye on the fellow. The township council should provide some means of having such worthless characters quickly placed in a distance, as there is no need for any man to be loitering in this country at harvest time.

Advert.

Farmers have a most successful harvest. Some are through seeding.

Some lovers of mischief amuse themselves by throwing stones through the school windows occasionally. The trustees are on the alert, and if found the offenders will no doubt get their deserts.

Rev. Mr. Fritchard and family are off for holidays, visiting friends in the east. They left for Toronto on Monday morning. They propose being absent for three Sabbaths, during which time other supplies will be furnished the congregation. Next Sabbath Rev. Mr. Leask, of St. Helens, will preach.

While a lad named John Niclands, engaged by John Symington, west of the village, was returning a sulky rake belonging to the latter's father, on Tuesday afternoon last, the horse he was driving took fright and ran away. The boy kept his seat for some time, but the horse kicking, struck him on the leg a little below the knee, and knocked him off. The wound inflicted is a serious one, being very deep and about three inches long and has bled considerably. Dr. Young was telegraphed for and dressed the wound. The horse ran on as far as Mr. Symington's, where it stopped. The rake was completely destroyed, and the harness, which was almost new, badly wrecked.

Garbald.

George Morris is revelling in the lake breeze of Leoburn.

John Barker and a gang of men are rushing the job on the hill along in fine style.

Charlie Morris and his "Shoo Fly" brigade are busily engaged with hammer and plane on the new residence of Geo. Patton. The "little bird" has a whisper matrimonial regarding George's future.

Blyth.

On Sunday last a lecture was given by Rev. P. J. Shea, of Searforth, in St. Michael's church, Blyth, entitled, "The Unity and Universality of the Church," which was largely attended. The merits of a discourse by the rev. lecturer need not be dilated upon, as he is well known to be a good speaker and a clever debater. During the afternoon services were held by Rev. B. J. Watters, of Goderich, assisted by Rev. J. O'Connor, the parish priest. Music was furnished by the choir of St. Augustine church, under the leadership of Miss Hussey, the organist, assisted by Miss Cooke, of Goderich, whose singing of "O Salutaris" was much admired. Rev. Mr. O'Connor tendered his sincere thanks to the members of outside denominations who favored the lecture with their presence.

Carlow.

NEW WHEAT SOLD.—Wm. McPhee sold some new wheat in Goderich for $1 a bushel.

Mr. Correy has opened a boot and shoe shop in our thriving little village. We wish him success.

Rev. Mr. Leask, of St. Helens, is expected to preach in the Presbyterian church next Sabbath.

SOLD.—W. Downs has sold his house lot and blacksmith shop to J. Walters, wagonmaker, of this place, for $1,100.

IMPORTED.—F. McDonagh has returned from Scotland bringing with him a very fine heavy draft stallion. Mr. McD. is one of our leading horsemen.

Alex. Young has sold his three year old shorthorn bull to Wm. McLean, of Goderich, for six cents a pound, the animal weighing 2275 lbs. This bull was never beaten where exhibited.

COUNTY NEWS.

As the mixed train on the G.W.R. was on its way from Brucefield on Thursday of last week, a brakeman named McDonald, fell from the top of one of the cars, cutting his head open. When the train arrived at Clinton, and he was not on board, the engine backed down the road, and met him coming up on a dead run. He was very fortunate in getting off with such slight injuries.

Geo. W. Railton, of Yuma, Arizona, formerly G. W. R. agent at Clinton, paid his respects to his old friends in Huron last week. He looks somewhat bronzed by his residence west but has not otherwise changed in his appearance. Mr. Railton occupies the position of Division Superintendent of the Southern Pacific R. R.

This is what the Wichita, Kan., Eagle says about a former resident of Huron. "Ike" deserves it all.—"T. I. Humble, first assistant postmaster in the Wichita office, has accepted a position in the Kansas National Bank. Thus it has ever been with that postoffice. So soon as any young man demonstrates capability and honesty, and fairly masters the books, accounts, and routine work demanded by the people and by the Department, some banking or other institution never lets up till they have secured him. Mr. Humble, for no man can so satisfactorily handle the funds, accounts, and records of a public office, as he did, without everybody knowing it." By the way, he has recently been married.

HYMENAL.—A somewhat unusual event in the matrimonial line took place at the residence of E. Corbett, Esq., reeve of Clinton, on Wednesday morning, in the shape of a double wedding, when this gentleman's two daughters "joined their fates and fortunes" with two young gentlemen well-known to most of our town readers, at least. The contracting parties were Chris. Dickson, of the City Book Store, and Miss Annie M. Corbett, and John Powell, (principal of a Detroit legal firm), and Miss Mary M. Corbett. Rev. John S. Fisher, of Blyth, (an old friend of the family) performed the ceremony. The brides were dressed alike, in very pretty blue silk, and looked exceedingly attractive. Miss Rankin, of Stratford, being bridesmaid for the first-named, and Miss Powell, sister of the groom, for the second, both being dressed in white lawn, and all wearing natural flowers. Mr. Dickson's groomsmen was his brother, and Mr. Powell's, J. W. King, of Constance. A number of very handsome presents testified to the esteem in which the ladies were held. After dinner had been partaken of, the happy couples left on the 3.45 train, Mr. Dickson and wife intending to go from London to St. Catharines and other points east, and Mr. Powell and wife going direct to their home at Detroit. A very large number of friends gathered at the station to see them off, and wish them abundant happiness.—[New Era.

Dalhousy P.O., Tp. Ozgoode. Messrs. Churchill & Co., Dear Sirs,—I have been troubled with Piles for the last five years, and during that time I have taken medicine from five doctors which failed to effect a cure. I have used only one box of your Climax Eye Salve, which I purchased from W. F. Ritchie of Ozgoode Station, and can recommend it as a safe cure to all afflicted with same disease. I consider your Mountain of Health an excellent tonic to build up the system. Yours truly, A. B. McDIARMID.

Wedding Bells.

On Tuesday evening, 11th inst., a very large number of relatives and friends from Tiverton, Brussels, Teeswater, Kincardine and elsewhere, assembled at the residence of Mr. John Scott, Lake View Farm, Lorne, about four miles north of Kincardine, to witness the marriage of Miss Janet Scott, one of the most esteemed and charming of Kincardine's many fair daughters, to Mr. James Struthers, of Teeswater, the popular north-end druggist, (son of Gavin Struthers, of Goderich.) At nine o'clock the bridal party entered the drawing room, the beautiful young bride, leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. John Scott, and attended by two lovely maids, Miss Bella Scott and Miss Maud Reid. The bride was attired in a cream satin, white tulle veil, orange blossoms wreath and loop. The bride's maids wore cream cashmere, Spanish lace, and rare and choice handkerchiefs. Mr. Leslie acted as groom's man, and performed the duties of that somewhat embarrassing position in a dignified and graceful manner. The groom was slightly nervous, but as a supremely happy-looking as any fellow in such an enviable position could well afford to be. The bride looked composed and bewitching, and the beauty and grace of her attendants were so beautiful as to inspire the most indifferent and fastidious young bachelor with an irresistible desire to follow the noble example of the groom. The Rev. Mr. Murray officiated, and after the beautiful and impressive marriage ceremony had been performed, warm congratulations were bestowed on the newly-made husband and wife, and the company partook of a sumptuous repast.

The following were among the bridal presents: A china tea set, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. W. S. Drummond; a dinner set, Mrs. I. Scott and Miss Scott; a breakfast set stone china, Mr. and Mrs. Paterson, Tiverton; a dozen hand painted fruit plates, D. F. Fairbairn, Teeswater; a handsome bedroom set, Dr. and Mrs. Martyn, Kincardine; a china tea set, Mrs. Robt. Wilson, Goderich; a hand painted bedroom set, Mrs. G. Struthers, Goderich; a silver card receiver, Misses Peter, Kincardine; a silver fruit dish, Dr. Stewart, Teeswater; a silver pickle cruet, Miss Maud Reid, Kincardine; Two silver napkin rings, names engraved, Misses Fisher, Kincardine; two silver silver spoons and silver spoon holder, Misses Drummond, Tiverton; a silver card receiver, Mrs. McKibbin, Teeswater; a set of trays, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Marshall, Kincardine; a pair of vases, Miss F. Thornhill; a handsome table cover, Miss Cornick, Brussels; a dozen table nappies, Mrs. Perry, Simcoe; a dozen silver forks, Mrs. Hewitt and Mr. Peter Beroy; two silver napkin rings, Miss Carrie Templeton, Exeter; a five o'clock tea set, H. C. McKibbin, Teeswater; a silver napkin ring, pepper and salt dish attached, R. I. Leslie, Kincardine; a silver butter cooler, Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Scott, Kincardine; a silver pickle cruet, Mrs. Cowen, Exeter; two silver napkin rings, Mr. and Mrs. McEae; a silver pickle cruet, Mr. and Mrs. Struthers, Underwood; a sofa pillow and fancy table cover, Miss Scott; a set of napkins, Mrs. D. Campbell; an egg holder, Robt. Scott, jr.; a glass decanter and pickle dish, Robt. Struthers, Goderich; tea cup and saucer, W. N. Scott, Kincardine; glass water pitcher, Miss Mary Wiles, Goderich; a dozen nappies and two table cloths, Mrs. Robt. Wilson, Goderich; walnut spoon and thimble stand, Miss Mary McDermid, Goderich; a large bride's cake from Mrs. T. F. Endlow, Lucas, State of Iowa, U. S.

The happy couple have the best wishes of a large circle of friends for success in life.

Visit to Goderich.

SPECIALISTS from the International Throat and Lung Institute, 173 Church st., Toronto, will be at the Albion Hotel, Goderich, two days, Sept. 28 and 29. The surgeons will have a supply of spongiometers, the invention of M. Souville, of Paris, ex-amine surgeon of the French army, for the cure of Catarrh of the Larynx, Bronchitis, Asthma and Consumption. Consultation and trial of the spongiometer free. Don't fail to see the surgeons while here, as they make a speciality of diseases of the head, throat and lungs and are curing thousands of cases every year that have failed in general practice. Crowds are visiting them in every town and city. For particulars write to 173 Church street, Toronto, or 13 Phillips Square, Montreal.

Warren Smith gone Sare.

Halifax, N. S., Sept. 15.—Diligent enquiry has been made, but nothing has been heard of the schooner, W. A. Smith, that left here on the 27th ult., to go fishing. She has undoubtedly been lost with all hands. Her crew comprised seven men, including the captain, Warren Smith, the widely known oarsman, and Wm. White, and Joseph Ryan, two brothers-in-law of Smith.

Lindsay's Wharf.

Aug. 22d, 1883. Messrs. Churchill & Co., Gents.—I have been afflicted with Salt Rheum for the past three years, and have been treated by some of the best doctors in Eastern Ontario without any lasting benefit. I was recommended by Mr. C. J. Lindsay, of Kars, to try your Fountain of Health. After using five bottles of the Fountain and two bottles of your Climax Salve, I have I am perfectly cured. My general health is also much improved, and I now feel like a new man. Yours truly, ROBERT BURNETT, Engineer Str. "Olive," Montreal and 2 1/2 Portland Line.
