The Evening Chit-Chat

By RUTH CAMERON

"Yes, I've found just the man I'd like for my private secretary, so far as brains go," quoth the business man. "Why don't I hire him? Because he looks like a fool."
No, the point is not—avoid looking like a fool.

It is just this—be impressed anew with the fact that presence is almost as great an asset as brains in the business world.
When Sarah Bernhardt was told the other day of a young man, who failed to get the position of secretary to a rich old woman, because when he applied for it he relied wholly upon his cleverness and neglected to dress for the part, she said:
"I don't believe a woman would have made that mistake. When a man has any important interview before him his first thought always is, 'What shall I say?' But a woman's is, 'What shall I wear?'"

"And both are wrong and both are right," as the old rhyme says. The "What shall I say" is the skeleton of the interview, its backbone, as it were, but the "What shall I wear" is its flesh and blood. And most of us don't like skeletons any better than spineless lumps of fish, and vice-versa.

But of course, presence isn't wholly a matter of "what shall I wear." A good presence includes also a good carriage, dignity and good manners. Every man and woman who wants to succeed in business or in the business of living—I suppose I might just as well condense, and say "the whole human race"—should realize that presence is one of the tools that must be used and should seek to perfect and sharpen it just as they try to perfect and sharpen the tools of brain and specialized knowledge.

Neat and becoming, and at least moderately attractive clothes, most young business men and women can have if they will spend time and thought as well as money for them. A good carriage anyone can cultivate.

Good manners anyone can acquire if he will want them enough and keep his eyes wide open.
Dignity is less easily attainable. For real dignity is inborn, and is dignity of character illuminating the outward manner, but an external dignity of mind can be cultivated.
Moderation of speech and motion, modulation of voice, a habit of self-restraint, complete temper control, are some of its components.

You have doubtless heard people argue sometimes that the end justifies the means.
Now, this is a case, I think, where the means justify and glorify the end.

For the end to which I am trying to inspire to you work is mere selfish success.
But the means that you must use are bigger—self-improvement and self-control.
Who knows but when, for the sake of success, you have striven to attain a good presence you shall find that your best reward is that the result of your strivings is molded into your character, and that the outward dignity of manner has reacted to create a splendid inner dignity of soul?

Ruth Cameron

Afraid of Ghosts

Many people are afraid of ghosts. Few people are afraid of germs. Yet the ghost is a fancy and the germ is a fact. If the germ could be magnified to a size equal to its terrors it would appear more terrible than any fire-breathing dragon. Germs can't be avoided. They are in the air we breathe, the water we drink.
The germ can only prosper when the condition of the system gives it free scope to establish itself and develop. When there is a deficiency of vital force, languor, restlessness, a shallow check, a hollow eye, when the appetite is poor and the sleep is broken, it is time to guard against the germ. You can fortify the body against all germs by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It increases the vital power, cleanses the system of clogging impurities, enriches the blood, puts the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition in working condition, so that the germ finds no weak or tainted spot in which to breed. "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol, whiskey or habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. It is not a secret nostrum but a medicine of known composition and with a record of 35 years of cures. Accept no substitute—there is nothing "just as good." Ask your neighbors.

Fads and Fashions.

The one-eyelid pump with the long tongue is shown, and is now thought it will be a general favorite.
Standing turn-over collars still hold their own, and a few at least should be included in every wardrobe.
The white slipper and shoe, in kid, buckskin and canvas, will be much worn during the coming season.
A plain tailored blouse of marquisette is relieved by a hand-scalloping in color down the front opening.
Following the strong tendency of fashion for two-toned effects, stockings are made in this manner this season.
The strained, perfectly flat adjustment of the back breadth has quite disappeared from skirts of every sort.
School frocks for little girls show a continued adherence to the front panel effect, finished either with scalloping or braid.
Cotton embroidered in pale blue, pink and delicate tones of yellow is seen on many of the new lingerie models.
Curls hanging at one side of the head have returned to favor. This style is suitable for the youthful type of face.
Rings now comply with the "unity in color" idea if you wear sapphires, wear sapphires only, if emeralds, emeralds only.
For the frock of lingerie there is the dainty sheer mull Swiss and balise embroideries in wide banding insertions and edgings.
Manufacturers are turning out patent leather pumps daintily lined with scarlet Morocco, with heels about three quarters of an inch in height.
Peasant straw is a name given to a new coarse mesh straw which has the effect of woven grass. There are all sorts of smart little hats in it.

Toques of brocade with puffed crowns of plain satin are good for the early spring days. They are trimmed with small algrettes at one side.

Hints to Householders.

"THE HOSPITAL." The views expressed in which must be taken as of the greatest weight, had the following with regard to the gas fire in its issue of January 15th last:—"There is a great deal of mistaken prejudice against the gas fire.
Nowadays, however, there are such excellent patterns in the market, the gas fire can be beautifully fitted, and its advantages in the way of cleanliness, convenience, ease of control, and satisfactory consumption—of impurities are so great that it is again winning favour. From a hygienic point of view, the modern gas fire of the type now used in hospitals, for instance, are irreproachable."

Minard's Liment Co., Limited, Gentlemen.—Theodore Dorais, a customer of mine, was completely cured of rheumatism after five years of suffering by the judicious use of MINARD'S LIMENT.
The above facts can be verified by writing to him, to the Parish Priest or any of his neighbors.
A COTE, Merchant, St. Isidore, Que. 12 May, '98.

Dr. Chadwick, Bishop of Derby, now in his seventy-first year, has been married at St. Bartholomew's, Dublin, to Miss Helen Jane Crozier. The church was crowded by a large assembly. The ceremony was performed by the Archbishop of Dublin, assisted by Canon White, incumbent of St. Bartholomew's.

Look Out Make no mistake. Use only those medicines the best doctors approve. Should your doctor order Ayer's Sarsaparilla, well and good. If something else, still well and good. He knows best. Trust him. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Want Postponement.

Special to Evening Telegram. OTTAWA, This morning. The Opposition will seek to have consideration of the Reciprocity Resolutions postponed until the Congress at Washington has acted. Notice to this effect will be given in the House by the Chief Conservative whip.

Precious Stones Found

Passing along Constitution Hill, Birmingham, Eng., a Mrs. Evans picked up a leather wallet, which contained about thirty tiny packets, in each of which was a quantity of precious stones. She took them to her husband, who showed them to his employer, a jeweler. He valued the stones at about $2,500, some of them being very rare. The wallet, which is of the type usually carried by jewelers' travelers, was handed over to the police.

This Old Gentleman Cured of Rheumatism

By One Box of GIN PILLS
YARMOUTH, N.S. "I have been bothered with Rheumatism for the past year and have taken good many different kinds of medicine and found no relief for it.
One day a friend advised me to try GIN PILLS, and after taking one box of them, I felt like a new man. I thought I would write you a few lines to let you know how thankful I am for the relief they gave me, and would advise all sufferers from Rheumatism to try GIN PILLS."

Wm. Conry, Don't bother with liniments and so-called "blood purifiers." They won't help your kidneys—and Rheumatism is caused by weak, strained or irritated kidneys. The only possible way to cure Rheumatism is to cure the kidneys. GIN PILLS will do this as nothing else will. Take GIN PILLS NOW and be free from Rheumatism this winter. 50c. a box—6 for $2.50—and money promptly refunded if you are not satisfied.
Order from us if your Dealer does not handle GIN PILLS. Sample box sent free on request. National Drug and Chemical Co., Dept. N. Toronto, 57

Items of Interest.

According to consular reports, the supply of raw meerschaum, which sustains a prosperous pipe-making industry in Central Europe, is approaching exhaustion, but the good old "French briar" will not be in danger as long as the apple-tree knots hold out.

An official, in a town of Prussia, a kind of red tape, has among his numerous functions the inspection of meat and the issuing of marriage licenses. He became confused when, placing the seal on a marriage certificate recently, and certified that the "animals could be eaten with safety." The high court of Berlin had to be appealed to to correct his mistake.

Potatoes were formerly used by young women for improving the complexion. They were not eaten, but were rubbed over the skin. Famous beauties are said to have taken potato baths, in which the potato was also applied to the skin and allowed to soak in. Needless to say, it was the pulp of the potato that was used, not the skin.

Palpitation of the Heart.

One of the first danger signals that announce something wrong with the heart is the irregular or violent "rob." Often there is only a fluttering sensation, or an "all gone" sinking feeling; or, again, there may be a most violent beating, with flushings of the skin, and visible pulsations of the arteries.
There may also be experienced a smothering sensation, gasping for breath, and feeling as though about to die.
In all such cases the action of Dr. Bove's Iron Tonic Pills in quieting the heart and restoring it to its normal beat, is beyond all question marvellous, as our thousands of testimonials will show.

Dr. Bove's Iron Tonic Pills are sold by all druggists and dealers at 25c per box.
If your Dealer cannot supply you send 25c (in stamps) to us direct.

The folloved composition on men is credited to a little girl: "Men are what women marry. They drink and smoke and swear, but don't go to church. Perhaps if they wore bonnets they would. They are more logical than women and also more zoological. Both men and women spring from monkeys, but the women spring further than the men."

A summer hotel at Hoquiam, Wash., containing 325 rooms, was partly washed into the sea a few weeks ago, and the remaining wing was left hanging over the water, in a position from which the next high tide was expected to dislodge it. People who have spent their vacations in the house will think with regret of one that they might have had in the house without having to pay extra for it.
