Brace Up.

When the night is darkest, dawn will shortly break, so the sage remarker, and he is no fake. When your griefs are thicker than griefs ought to be, Fortune soon will snicker and be good to thee. As I've been a-movin' through all sorts of climes, I have seen it proven forty thousand times. Darkest nights will mosey, gloomy hours will trek, and Aurora rosey soon will be on deck. Cheerful be and patient, hopeful be and strong, and the joyful day shan't stay away too long. I have been so busted I had naught to eat, drilling round, disgusted, on my large splay feet, finding in dark hallways shelter from the storm, nothing but my galways on to keep me warm. But I kept a-humming, footsore, hungry, lame, better times are coming, and you bet they came! When the night was darkest, pregnant with despair, and the care that carkest seemed too great to bear, when my heart was aching, and my soul was blue, lo, the dawn was breaking, and the shadows flew! Are you sad and grieving? Do not lose your grip! Just keep on believing that your woes will skip!

Knee Joint Stiff Three Years

CURED BY NERVILINE.

Anyone would marvel at my recovery, writes Mr. Leonard Lotham, a young man well known about Chatham. "I had inherited a rheumatic tendency through my mother's family, and in my early days suffered frightfully. About three years ago the pain and stiffness settled in my left knee joint. I was lame and walked with a very distinct limp. Nerviline was brought to my notice and I rubbed it into the stiff joint four or five times a day. It dispelled every vestige of pain, reduced the swelling, took out the stiffness and gave me the full use of my limb again. I don't believe there is a pain-relieving remedy, not a single liniment that can compare with Nerviline. I hope every person with pains, with sore back, with lameness, with lumbago, with neuralgia—I do hope they will try out Nerviline which I am convinced will quickly and permanently cure them."
If Nerviline wasn't a wonderful painless remedy, it Nerviline didn't quickly relieve, if Nerviline wasn't known to be a grand cure for all rheumatic conditions, it wouldn't have been so largely used as a family remedy for the past forty years. No better, stronger, or more soothing liniment made. Get the large 50c. family size bottle; small trial size, 25c.; sold by any dealer, anywhere.

Coughed for 10 Years
Mrs. J. O. Barnard, of Lindsaville, Alta., says: "For ten years I was troubled with a very bad cough, particularly at night. I tried remedy after remedy but could get no relief until I tried PEPs. These pleasant little pastilles quickly stopped the irritation and ended my cough."
PEPs, 'The Cure You Breathe,' goes straight to the weak spot. Place a PEP in your mouth. As it dissolves, healing vapors are liberated, which you breathe down, right to your lungs, quickly stopping all irritation, and ending coughs and colds. Why experiment with cough mixtures, syrups, lozenges, etc., which go not to the lungs, but to the stomach, when PEPs go straight to the seat of the disease? For coughs, colds, asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness, sore throat, and all chest and lung troubles, use the up-to-date remedy PEPs. Refuse substitutes. All drug stores and stores, 50 cents box, 3 boxes $1.50.

Wedding Bells.

A very pretty wedding took place here on the 27th ult., when Mr. John Ducey and Miss Johannah Aylward were united in the bonds of matrimony. The Rev. J. Scully officiated. The bride was very neatly attired and was attended by her sister Miss Agnes Aylward, while Mr. Thomas Ducey, brother of the groom, was best man. After the ceremony the happy couple drove to the bride's home at Knight's Cove where a sumptuous supper was served and dancing kept up till the wee sma' hours. We trust Mr. and Mrs. Ducey may enjoy many years of wedded bliss.
