Ahorns Prohibition.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—I have wished to abstain from any part in the Prohibition campaign, but circumstances have arisen which make it due to the office I hold rather than to myself that I should endeavor to make my position clear. Furthermore a force within me impels me. I therefore ask you to be good enough to afford me an opportunity of making a statement.

My attitude to the question is suggested in a sentence contained in my note of protest kindly published by you a few days ago: "Temperance operates by the exercise of free will, prohibition by coercion; temperance is a divine means, prohibition a human one." There is on sale in St. John's now a picture which likewise gives a clue to my mind in the matter of our conduct in all things. The picture represents a soldier of the great European crusade dead on the field of battle and near unto him the crucified Christ as his fellow. I could wish the artist had further conceived the picture of the living Christ, gentle and loving, standing by the side of the living crusader in the line of battle—his shield and his sword, for is not Christ by the side of every one of us in every phase of our life—at work or play, in the office or at the bench, in the school or in the home, in the mansion or in the cottage, in the fishing-boat or in the woods, aye, even in the den—our philosopher, friend and guide, our strength and our support? Is not this what Christ wishes all of us, even the vilest sinner to feel, that He is by our side, right near to us—not to scold but to sympathize, not to imprison but to set free, not to drive but to lead?

And is not this what we should teach in relation to drink as in relation to all things? Think you that the sinner would sin if he could realize that the Holy Christ was by his side, that the man who dispenses strong drink could pass the glass to his brother already drunken if he felt

Christ near him, or that the father could pass the threshold of the drinking saloon if he saw Christ in the path pointing him to his wife and children at home starved and naked? There seems to me to be suggested to us here the solution of all sin: "I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto Me." Would that the image of Christ could be burnt in fire into the heart of not only the man who dispenses strong drink to the harm of his brother but of every sinner about to commit his sin!

Yes, Christ draws. He does not drive, and the grave question before us now is whether we shall depart from the ways of Christ or not, whether we shall endeavor by coercive means to hasten that happy state which Christ surely foresaw should be accomplished only by the free submission of the will of man to His Divine Will. If heaven cannot be gained by the means of grace given unto us by Christ, then clearly He came on earth and died in vain. This is my faith and at last I do not hesitate to declare it. If mankind will put Christ in His right place, there will be no need for coercion. Therefore to me Prohibition is a blunder and the responsibility to the Holy Ghost of him who votes for it very great.

I am prepared to work for temperance to the best of my strength and opportunity, prepared to regulate the traffic and to remove in reason temptations, but it must be for me along the lines of my faith. Prohibition I regard as the present measure in particular. The only thing to be said in its favor is the good and lofty intentions and hopes of those who are working for it, for the measure was born in cunning, nurtured in the lap of human pride, and its end must be shame.

I shall be very thankful if any one can furnish me with the following information:

- (1) Total number of families living in St. John's;
- (2) Total number in extreme poverty;
- (3) The number of those whose poverty is due to a drunken husband;

- (4) The number of them whose poverty is due to a drunken wife;
- (5) The number of them whose poverty is due to the incompetency of the woman.

A similar set of statistics in reference to the outports would likewise be helpful to a proper consideration of the whole question.

Thanking you for space,
I am,
Yours faithfully,
W. W. BLACKALL,
St. John's, Oct. 31, 1915.

Anxious to Get to Front

When the Newfoundland Expeditionary Force left for the Dardanelles Lieutenant Bert Tait was stricken with fever and was sent to the Red Cross Hospital. Writing to his parents he says:—

"I am pursuing the even tenor of my way at this hospital, and am waiting every day to get shifted away. I can't understand why they are keeping me here so long, for I am quite all right again, and beginning to feel that I'm a huge shirker, staying in and nothing really wrong with me, and there are so many poor fellows who would give anything to be in my place."

No Indigestion Gas Or Stomach Misery In Five Minutes

"Pape's Diapepsin" for sour, acid stomach, heartburn, dyspepsia.

Time it! In five minutes all stomach distress will go. No indigestion, heartburn, sourness or belching of gas, acid, or eructations of undigested food, no dizziness, bloating, foul breath or headache.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in regulating upset stomachs. It is the surest, quickest and most certain indigestion remedy in the whole world, and besides it is harmless. Millions of men and women now eat their favorite foods without fear—they know Pape's Diapepsin will save them from any stomach misery.

Please for your sake, get a large fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin from any drug store and put your stomach right. Don't keep on being miserable—life is too short—you are not here long, so make your stay agreeable. Eat what you like and digest it; enjoy it, without dread of rebellion in the stomach.

Pape's Diapepsin belongs in your home anyway. Should one of the family eat something which don't agree with them, or in case of an attack of indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis or stomach derangement at daytime or during the night, it is handy to give the quickest, surest relief known.

S.S. Association.

RETIRING PRESIDENT HONORED.

The annual meeting of the Star of the Sea Association took place yesterday afternoon, the President, Mr. E. M. Jackman, occupying the chair.

Rev. Dr. Greene, the Spiritual Director, was present and addressed the members congratulating them on the Society's progress during the past year.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was conducted by Mr. Jas. McGrath, and resulted as follows:—
President—Mr. Jas. T. Martin.
Vice-President—John Holden.
1st Asst. Vice-Pres.—T. P. Hickey.
2nd Asst. Vice-Pres.—John Murphy.
Treasurer—S. J. Congdon.
Asst. Treasurer—Francis Kenny.
Grand Marshal—Mr. Rd. Buckley.
Deputy Marshal—M. Leonard.
1st Insurance Trustee—John Byrne.
2nd Insurance Trustee—John Gladney.
Secretary—W. F. Graham.

Upon the retirement of the President, Mr. E. M. Jackman, after a term of twenty-one years, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted by the Society:—

- 1.—That this Society deeply regret the resignation of Mr. E. M. Jackman from the office of President.
- 2.—That it desires to place on record its high appreciation of Mr. Jackman's leadership during the past twenty-two years. Our Life Insurance Fund with its cash reserve of over $8000, our position in athletics, in lectures and entertainments and the general progress of the Society is due in a large measure to his zeal and ability.
- 3.—That our thanks are due to him for the fine spirit of his Society speeches in their relation to church and state, there was always a tone of true loyalty and earnest co-operation and of good will towards the members of all kindred societies.
- 4.—That we tender him Life Honorary Presidency of the Star of the Sea Association and a scarf of honour, and that a committee be appointed to prepare an illuminated address and suitable present to mark our gratitude for twenty-two years of faithful service, in advancing the best interests of the Star of the Sea Association.

President Martin in tendering the above resolutions paid a high tribute to the work of Mr. Jackman during his term of office.

Mr. Jackman expressed his appreciation of the kind remarks made by his successor in office and said that though he was retiring from active participation in the Society's work, he would still continue to take the same interest in the Association and everything that tends to promote the Society's welfare.

Twillingate Strongly for Prohibition

Special to Evening Telegram.

TWILLINGATE, To-day.

Twillingate is sounding the tocsin of victory. After weeks of campaigning we have reached a climax which assures us of a sweeping majority for prohibition, and people are longing for the 4th inst. to register their votes against the drink traffic. The campaign opened some weeks ago by a successful central rally in Alexander Hall. Since then public meetings have been held in quieting places. On both islands, as the campaign has been extended to settlements outside Twillingate, we have met no opposition. In fact many who hitherto were not total abstainers have joined hands with long standing temperance workers to unselfishly help to deliver the unfortunate victims of drink. They the members of our large general committee and sub-committees, all working with one aim to free our countrymen from the curse of the liquor traffic. Twillingate strongly appeals and earnestly hopes that all the outports in Newfoundland will readily respond to the call of the hour and also roll up a substantial majority for prohibition and be on the winning side.

Parcels for Our Boys.

Editor Evening Telegram:

Dear Sir,—I enclose copy of letter from Mr. Steel-Maitland, addressed to His Excellency the Governor, regarding parcels for the Dardanelles, which I shall be glad if you will kindly publish in the next issue of your paper.

J. R. BENNETT,
Colonial Secretary.

St. John's, Oct. 30.

Downing Street,
October 12.

Dear Sir Walter Davidson:—Since I dictated my letter of a day or two ago, I received your telegram with reference to the Ladies' Committee. I will endeavour to meet your wishes in any way possible, and will write further on receiving a list of names.

The question has cropped up of Christmas fare for the troops. There should be no difficulty as regards the reserve Companies in Scotland. I foresee, however, a very great difficulty in getting comforts over to the Battalion on service, especially if it is still at the Dardanelles. The extraordinarily perfect arrangements for the troops in France have, I think, spoiled people a little as to what is normally impossible under conditions of warfare with troops in the situation of the Dardanelles. It is really too much to expect that individual parcels, even if packed securely, should reach individuals safely for Christmas purposes; and I think our friends in Newfoundland will be disappointed if they build upon their gifts so doing. The difficulty is that three men, and packed in the regulation way. For this reason I would strongly suggest that, while those in Newfoundland should send their parcels for the reserve Companies, they should not expect to get small parcels through to the troops. If possible they should be persuaded to leave Christmas fare for the troops to us here, who can get things done up uniform in size and package and all the rest of it.

The Executive Committee wanted me to put this in a telegram to you, but I was quite sure that a telegram would be open to misunderstanding, and I have, therefore, preferred to write. We will do our best with parcels that arrive before this warning, but there will not court disappointment by thinking they can send their parcels after they have had this warning.

Yours truly,
ARTHUR STEEL-MAITLAND.

Ladies' Costumes Fall---1915---Styles.

Was there ever a more fickle lady than Dame Fashion? She is always making changes, and this season has surely surpassed herself.

There is a more decided change in this Fall's styles than has been known for many seasons. While materials are similar, Serges, Gabardines, Tweeds, Cord, etc., the designs are absolutely unlike any of their predecessors. Coats are of many styles, chiefly a la militaire, with high collars, snug-fitting sleeves, and the entire coat in some instances is beautifully braided. Skirts are much fuller, both pleated and gored, and are worn very short.

As descriptions are quite impossible, we can only say that we carry the largest and smartest line of Ladies' Costumes in the city.
