Littledale Xmas Tree.

The Christmas Tree at Littledale on last Wednesday was a Jecided success. The afternoon was brought to an agreeable climax with a concert given by the pupils of St. Bride's College assisted by some city talent. The programme consisted of charmduets, spirited and humourous recitations, graceful dances, and a lovely idyl composed by one of the prinvarious items were run off with comy appreciated and liberally applauded by His Grace, the Archbishop. The city clergy and a full house. The Rev. Mother and sisters feel deeply grateful for the support given by the public, and wish to thank all those who worked to make the Xmas Tree and concert a success.
