owerless to dry their tearsconditions prevail in sections of the North, Yes, and right here in he city. A variety of circumstance sed these conditions to exist, but it is not my purpose to discuss these cirinstances here. I am now concerned with a remedy and in my humpinion Almighty God has provided the remedy, by providing work for our people to replace the public roads, wharves, etc., which He in His wisom wiped away in the storm of Friday and Saturday. Two million dollars at six per cent only one hundred and twenty thousand dollars, and in these years of enormous expenditures another hundred thousand dollars will make very little difference to our liabilities and the necessary repairs to our roads, wharves, breakwaters, etc., will be an the liability; and the happiness which people when the children gather round the fireside when the snow and rost hold sway outside and no little eyes are wet with tears of hunger, will be the greatest asset of all.

Yours truly, W. J. WALSH. 67 Long's Hill, City.

Wedding Bells.

CLARKE-BENNETT.

On Oct. 13th, shortly before 4 o' clock, St. Andrew's Church, Port au Bras, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Miss Mary Bertha Bennett, (May), only daughter of Mrs. and Capt. Samuel Bennett, was united in matrimony to Mr. L. J. Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Clarke. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. A feadon, B.A. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked exceed ingly pretty in a gown of white georgette over Duchesse satin with handsomely embroidered veil and wreath of orange blossoms, and carried an ivory prayer book, the gift of the groom. She also wore a gold bracelet, from her father, and a gold chain and pendasset which will more than pay for ant, the gift of her mother, both gifts were suitably engraved. The bride was will be in evidence in the homes of our attended by Miss Laura Clarke, sister of the groom. The duties of best man were performed by Mr. W. Ernest Brown, cousin of the bride. Appropriate music was rendered by Miss Alice I. Cheeseman. The weather was all that could be desired, and flags were flying in the breeze in honor of the young couple. After the ceremony the bridal party proceeded to the residence of the bride's parents where a splendid tea was given to about one hundred guests. The wedding cake which was admirably designed was a great object of attraction; on the top of the cake stood a silver vase filled with Lillies of the Valley and fern. It was ordered from the F. B. Wood Co., Ltd., St. John's. The bride was the reciptent of many pretty and useful presents showing the esteem in which the young couple are held. The writer joins with the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Clarke in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.
