T. A. & B. Juvenile Treat

Over 350 members of the Juvenile T.A. and B. Society participated in the annual treat given yesterday evening. At 5 p.m. the assembly paraded to the Majestic Theatre, where they were given two hours entertainment through the courtesy and generosity of Messrs. Coady and O'Neil. After the moving picture show the boys returned to their hall, where the lady friends had a bountiful repast prepared. Full justice was done to the spread by the boys, and at the conclusion each was given a bag of candy, fruit, etc. During the evening speeches were made by Chairman of the Guardians Mr. John O'Toole, Vice-President Murphy and Mr. Jas. J. Spratt Chairman of the T. A. Club, who paid a well merited tribute to the work of the ladies for their interest in the Society. The day was concluded by a dance in which a large number of the adult branch of the Society participated. Music was furnished by the Empire Band.

Children Entertained.

His Excellency the Governor was amongst those present at the treat given by the Daughters of the Empire to 260 children in the Synod Hall. Most of the little guests were children of War Veterans. Others present during the day were Canon Jeeves, Dr. Bolt, Rev. J. Brinton and Mr. R. G. Rendell. Various games were indulged in during the evening and all entered into the fun whole-heartedly. Afterwards supper was served and all repaired to their homes thoroughly satisfied with the hospitality tendered. The Daughters of the Empire are very grateful to Judge Morris, Mr. R. G. Rendell, Hon. S. Milley and Mr. William Campbell, whose kindness contributed largely to the success of the treat.

Down for the Winter.

A young man named Teens was charged before Judge Morris this morning with vagrancy. This was the third morning in succession that the accused had appeared on a similar charge, and His Honour had no recourse but to send him down for three months. Teens is a brother of the two girls who are in the Jensen Camp Industrial Home, and has already served a term in the penitentiary.

REVENUE CASE POSTPONED.—A case which the Minister of Customs is bringing against a man from Cape Broyle, was to have been heard before Judge Morris to-day, but had to be postponed as the accused could not get to town. The charge is that he manufactured and sold cigarettes without a license. Mr. J. Barron is acting for the prosecution.

Particulars of Tragedy

ON SCHR. GEORGIANA.

In response to a message of enquiry sent by the Minister of Justice re the death of John Molloy of St. Lawrence which occurred on board the schr. Georgiana at Gloucester the following particulars of the tragedy have been received from the British Consul at Boston.—

"Your telegram re John Molloy, "schooner Georgiana. Deceased was "assisting to discharge cargo; was "running the engine, and had mittons "on his hands. When catching a "twisted rope his hands got caught, "dragging him around the top of the "engine, and before steam could be "shut off he was instantly killed. The "body is already embalmed. The crew "of the Georgiana refuse to have the "body on the schooner which proceeds "to Southern Atlantic ports."

Shipping Notes.

The S.S. Sable I., leaves Halifax to-morrow for this port and is due here Monday night.

S.S. Digby will not arrive in port before to-morrow. The Furness Withy Co. received a message yesterday evening stating that the ship was then 250 miles off the coast.

Many Milkless Breakfasts.

YESTERDAY AND TO-DAY.

The terrible blizzard which has been raging yesterday and to-day left many householders without their supplies of milk, as it was a physical impossibility in many cases for the farmers to leave their homes owing to the impassable condition of the roads. As a result grocery stores were raided for supplies of prepared milks, "Klim," etc., and there was a particularly brisk demand for the latter. To our minds a tin of "Klim" on the pantry-shelf is the best insurance against milkless breakfasts, and we pass along the tip for the benefit of our readers.

Rescued Child.

The rescue of little Paddy Summers from the ditch into which he fell on Wednesday, was effected by Mr. Clarence Winsor, son of Capt. S. R. Winsor. He saw the accident occur, and stretching himself out on the ice, threw a coat to the youngster, who just managed to grasp it. This ditch is situated where the old railway turntable was at one time, and it has never been filled in.

Agnes P. Duff Lost.

WRECKED NEAR RENEWS.

Yesterday afternoon Messrs. Campbell & McKay received a message from Cappahayden stating that the schooner Agnes P. Duff had gone ashore about 3 miles south of Renews. The vessel became a total wreck and Captain Snow and his crew were obliged to leave the wreck in the ships boat. They landed safely at Cappahayden. The Agnes P. Duff is a comparatively new vessel. She was on her way from Lisbon, after bringing across a load of fish. Last summer the schooner was caught in a hurricane at Barbados, and driven out of port, with only part of her cargo on board. She was not reported afterwards until she made her appearance undamaged in St. John's.

Another Carrier Wrecked.

SCHOONER ROSE M. ASHORE AT THE AZORES.

A message has been received by Mr. M. E. Martin stating that the schooner Rose M., Capt. J. Kendrick, had gone ashore at the Azores. Except advising that the crew had landed safely no other particulars were given. The Rose M. loaded at Fogo for the Nfld. Labrador Export Co. and was bound to Oporto. The vessel had 4,000 qtls. of codfish on board.

"Jean McKay" Damaged

IN COLLISION WITH JAPANESE STEAMER.

A message from Mobile, Ala., dated Jan. 4th, states that the schooner Jean McKay was badly damaged in a collision with the Japanese steamer "Tasmania Maru." The mishap to the Jean McKay occurred in the Yucttau Channel, Gulf of Mexico, whilst the vessel was bound from Barbados to Mobile. A large portion of the vessel's rigging was torn away, her deck was sprung, and her starboard side forward somewhat damaged.

Portia's Passengers.

The following passengers have booked to sail for the Westward by the S.S. Portia:—Messrs. Pine, Capt. Petite, J. T. Young, Capt. Thornhill, Lake; Mesdames J. Molloy, Rowsell, Power, Petite; Misses Beck and Delaney. The Portia will in future make Argentia a port of call instead of Placentia as formerly.

Personal.

Mr. Colin Tavernor, onetime purser on S.S. Sagona, who has been in hospital for some weeks, is rapidly regaining strength.

Mr. John T. Young, merchant of St. Bride's, who has been in the city on business, returned home this morning by S.S. "Portia."

√ Honours Divided.

Masons and City Teams win games each—Masonic Club has lead on points in Inter-Club Billiards.

Honours were divided, so far as games were concerned, in yesterday's play in the Billiard Tournament between the City and Masonic Clubs. The Masons obtained the advantage in points and were able to add to their already large majority of points. They are now leading by 510 points. Six games remain to be played in the first round, and the City Club will have to put forward every atom of skill they posses, to reduce their opponents lead.

The Opening Game.

The opening game between J. Chaplin (City) and Walter Joyce (Masonic) was won by the latter, who played a careful game throughout. The scores were Joyce 250, Chaplin 211, and the breaks were:—

Chaplin.—13, 10, 12.
Joyce.—20, 13, 13, 12, 11, 10.

This game was played in the afternoon.

The evening games began at 7 p.m. the first to play being J. P. Blackwood (City) and L. J. Harnum (Masonic). This game was a very close one. Blackwood took the lead and kept it practically throughout, although Harnum crept very near at times, scoring 152, tied with and passed his opponent. This momentary gain was soon lost and when the game ended the score was Blackwood 250, Harnum 211. The breaks were:—

Blackwood.—15, 10, 22, 17.
Harnum.—18, 18, 16, 10, 15.

A One-Sided Game.

The game between J. J. Kelly (City) and Gus Sellars (Masonic) was very one-sided, and consequently not productive of much interest. Sellars obtained 105 while his opponent was scoring 23 and when the game ended, had 250 to McKay's 161. The breaks were:—

McKay.—11, 13, 15.
Sellars.—13, 11, 13, 15, 12, 15.

The last game for the night was between A. Hayward (City) and Greaves (Masonic), the former winning by a substantial margin. An excellent break of 35 was made by Hayward during the game, while Greaves gave a nice exhibition near the end when he made a 16 break. The scores were Hayward 250, Greaves 20[illegible] the breaks:—

Hayward.—11, 35, 16, 12, 16, 11, 12.
Greaves.—10, 10, 10, 10, 10, [illegible]

Six more games remain to be played as follows:—

City	Masonic
W. Campbell	J. [illegible]
F. Bradshaw	[illegible]
W. McNeilly	W. [illegible]
A. Williams	G. T. [illegible]
G. Knowling	W. [illegible]
H. Dickenson	S. Thomas

The first game will be played this afternoon, while that between Bradshaw and Fox, which promises to be a good one, as both are expert handlers of the cue, will begin at 7. It is hoped that the games in the Masonic Club will be concluded to-day or by to-morrow, when the first of the return matches to be played in the City Club table will be arranged.

Supreme Court.

(Before Mr. Justice Kent)

Thomas P. Kemp trading under style and name of T. P. Kemp & Co., and James J. McKay and F. Fearn Trustees for the benefit creditors of said Thos. P. Kemp plaintiff, and George M. Barnes Walter S. Monroe defendant.

Mr. L. E. Emerson for plaintiff. Wood, K.C., for defendant. Mr. Emerson opens the case for the plaintiff and calls Thos. P. Kemp who is sworn and examined and cross examined by Wood, K.C. James J. Davis of Portia and Joseph Kelly a member of the crew of the Frank H. Adams were also examined. The hearing adjourned at 1 p.m. until this afternoon.

S. S. Digby is expected to arrive in port to-morrow night. At 8 o'clock last evening the ship was 280 miles off, encountering heavy seas and an easterly blizzard.
