

Andrew Walter's Christmas Eve.

A STORY IN THREE CHAPTERS. For indeed it depended on this letter whether they should stay in their old home, or go out into the world and seek another.

CHAPTER III. 'ALL IS WELL.' Next morning Lucy was up early, and the season being one of those mild and open ones which have of late taken the place of the severer Christmas of our fathers, she ran out and amused herself, as children like to do, by digging.

The garden gate was not quite visible from any of the windows of the house, the path being curved; but Edie running out betimes (for they were all early risers) found the child busy there. She had excavated a very neat little grave, and was just giving the finishing touches to her work.

While the girls were busied therefore about their household morning work, doubly diligent that they might hurry to the church, Andrew Walter went with the mason and saw the memorial he had provided for his son erected over his own grave.

GREAT POWERS. Are always neutral in small squabbles.

PREST & HEPBURN. In the leather war now going on between their opponents on the south side of Wyndham-st.

WE do not believe in bosh and blarney, but deal with facts, and leave the verdict in the hands of the intelligent people of Wellington. We are prepared to prove, and we positively affirm, notwithstanding all the puffing and blowing which has become the order of the day, that PREST & HEPBURN, Wyndham Street, Guelph, manufacture more

BOOTS AND SHOES. And employ double the number of Workmen, of any other establishment in the County of Wellington. We invite the public to call and look through our Factory, and they will be convinced that we are telling the truth, and nothing but the truth.

A great deal has been said for and against machine made Boots and Shoes. Now we believe, and we are confident that very well-balanced mind in Wellington will agree with us, that the less machinery used in manufacturing Boots and Shoes the better. All our staple Boots and Shoes are made by hand, which must be admitted is far superior to any machine made goods. We have now on hand the largest and best assortment of Boots and Shoes ever offered to the people of Wellington, which we will sell as cheap as the best.

Remember that all our work is warranted, and no second price. Repairs done as usual.
