Awful Accusations.

ANTWERP, Sept. 6 .- Mme. Henry Joni has been committed for trial on the charge of having murdered her brother, sister and uncle to get their life insurance. Moors Routed.

PARIS, Sept. 6 .- Advices from Fez, Morocco, say that a body of Moorish troops, en route to Marakesh for the purpose of punishing some rebellious tribes, were met at Tadia by a strong force of tribesmen and completely routed.

To Avenge Britain.

LONDON, Sept. 6.-The Government has decided to send a gunboat to the Benin River, West Africa, to suppress Chief Nana, whose tribesmen recently attacked and killed a number of British subjects. The collision grow out of the opposition of the natives of Benin to British traders.

Oronhyatekha Banquetted. LONDON, Sept. 6 .- Dr. Oronhyatekha, chief of the Independent Order of Foresters, was entertained at a banquet by the London Order of Foresters this evening. The speeches were laudatory of the relations between Great Britain and Canada.

British Warship Ashore. SYDNEY, N. S. W., Sept. 6 .- The British warship Ringarooma has gone ashore on the island of Mallicollo in the New Hebrides group. Assistance has been sent to her. No details can be obtained. The Ringarooma is an eight gun 2,575-ton cruiser of 7,500 horse-power. She is detailed for service in Australian waters.

The Divine Right (?). BERLIN, Sept. 6 .- Most of the evening papers print conspicuously an account of an incident at the unveiling of the old Emperor's statue at Koenigsburg on Tuesday. After the ceremony Emperor William, turning to a group of officials and officers, said impressively: "This is the spot where King William openly declared that he, held his throne as the gift of God alone. My own deepest conviction is expressed in the declaration, which has ever served to guide all my actions."

Austrian Maneuvers. VIENNA, Sept. 6 .- The Austrian maneuvers ended today with the four-hour battle ander the walls of Landskron. The cavalry's work was especially creditable. Two bodies from the opposing armies charged at full speed, with lances rested. across the Schlossburg fields and halted within 40 paces of each other. The infantry fought on the Schesdorf slope and at Schlossburg. The day ended with a cannonade from 121 guns. Gen. Anton Tuma commanded the attacking force and Gen. Merta the defensive one. The um-pires decided that the defense had failed. Emperor Franz Josef was present throughout the day.

Distinguished Admiral Dead. LONDON, Sept. 6 .- Admiral Inglefield died here yesterday.

Sir Edward Inglefield, Kt., K.C.B., D.C.L., F.R.S., was born in Cheltenham in 1820. He was educated at the Portsmouth Naval College, and at the age of 20 took part in the operations on the coast of Sidon. He was detailed subsequently for service in South America. He commanded H.M.S. Comus in the naval battle of the Parana, and soon afterward got the rank of commander. He became vice-admiral in 1875, superintended the Malta dockyards from 1872 to 1877, and was commander-inohief of the North American station in 1878-79. He commanded three Arctic expeditions. He published several works on naval subjects and one on his experiences in the Arctic regions.

A prolonged debate ensued upon a resolutien to nationalize all lands containing mines or minerals. Mr. James Kier Hardie, M.P., moved an amendment that besides the land the whole means of production, distribution and exchange of the output of mines ought to be nationalized. Mr. Hardie's motion was carried by a vote of

Waiting to Fight,

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 6 .- Pekin newspapers, brought by the steamer Peru, which arrived this morning, contain news that bodes ill for Li Hung Chang. The sole responsibility in the conduct of the present war rests on him, and for every disaster the Chinese land or sea forces sustain he is held accountable. The Hichi and several other papers state that a committee for the impeachment of the Viceroy has been appointed, and that Wang Jung-Ho, Li Hung Tsan, Chang Chitung, and an elder brother of this Chang, all enemies of the Viceroy, have been appointed its members. That the court of Pekin was disposed towards a pacific policy, and that the declaration of war was forced upon it by the Viceroy Li, is evident from the great consternation with which the statesmen in Pekin received the news of the sinking of the Kow Shung. The Viceroy underrated Japan, which he regarded as incapable of taking any decisive step.

A private telegram is said to have been received in Tokio to the effect that it has been proposed that the Chinese military council take advantage of the want of menof-war on the Japanese coast to send warships to attack a number of ports at the same time. The correspondent says the reports of great Chinese victories in Corea are pure fiction.

The Coreans attacked 50 Japanese foragers recently, capturing 30, and handed them over to the Chinese. The troops now coming from Japan are landed at Chemulpo. Twelve mountain guns and twelve mortars have been taken ashore at that

A Tokio dispatch says that the last reports from the front tell of heavy rains which have impeded military operations. The streams of the Corean Peninsula have risen rapidly, and much of the adjacent low land is partially flooded. The Japanese officers say it is not likely that any battle will be fought before the floods subside.

The Japanese regulars in Corea now number 30,000. Some 18,000 Japanese occupy a strong position at Ping-Yang. They have thrown up earthworks and mounted sheavy guns. The Chinese army, with about 20,000 men, has taken up a position facing the Japanese. Scouting parties from the two camps have met frequently and exchanged shots, but the mortality has been inconsiderable. The spirit of the Japanese troops is said to be all that could be desired. WATER MELON TRACEDY.

A Farmer Poisons His Crop and Causes the Death of His Son and Two Others.

He Is Himself Shot Dead by the Father of a Victim.

CHICAGO. Sept. 7 .- A special from Magiolia, Ark., says: Near Dykesville, La., just across the Arkansas State line, Clinton Thompson, a farmer, has a fine melon crop. Raids by boys became so frequent, the old man put poison in some of the finest melons, and awaited results. Yesterday his son Felix and George Bridges, a neigh bor's son, and a man named Jacob Muir were found dead in the patch. The neighbor, whose son was among the victims, was the first to discover the dead bodies, and called Thompson out to show him the corpses. When Bridges learned that Thompson had poisoned the melons and caused the death of his son he drew his revolver and shot him dead.

Seven Hundred Dead in Pine County, Minn., Alone.

Pestilence Feared From the Dead Bodies of Animals.

An Entire Indian Party Perish in the Flamos.

BARNUM, Minn., Sept. 7 .- Dr. Cowan, coroner of Pine county, believes that the dead list in this county will reach 700. A serious problem for the survivors in this neighborhood is the disposal of the dead animals. The region about Hinckley is littered with the carcasses of horses, cows, lilway mail clerks. nogs, deer, and even a few moose. The terrible stench from them promises to breed pestilence among the few people left.

brings a report that the bodies of 23 Chippewa Indians, bucks, squaws and papooses, lie upon the baked sands between here and Opstead, a small settlement on the eastern shores of Lac Mille Lake. They are scattered over ten miles of country and will in all probability prove food for buzzards and wolves, as the country where they lie is too far from civilization for burial ceremonies. The Indians left their reservation two months ago and built a hunting lodge along one of the forks of Spadina Creek. Chief Wascoutin was the big chief of the party, and he perished with his followers.

DULUTH, Minn., Sept. 7 .- The relief commission is here. It will ascertain if there is any chance of the saw mills being rebuilt in the burned district. If not, it is planned to rebuild Hinckely, as a farming town and junction of the two roads. All the territory burned over is ready for the plow, and it was the opinion of the commissioners that all heads of families can be given farms of generous proportions. The St. Paul and Duluth Railroad representatives offered to give rading of the Lord's Prayer. farms to all who do not now own them. It was further outlined that the women and children refugees who are here will be provided for in this city antil the fathers can put up temporary buildings in the burned district. Single men will be urged and aided to seck work elsewhere, and an effort will be made to have the orphans adopted into worthy families. Mrs. Grimsby, with her daughter, aged 18, a son of 16, two little children aged 2 and 4 years, and a baby of six months, started on foot for Rainy River, three miles distant, by the corduroy road, through a narrow cutting. The cordurey caught fire and their escape was com-pletely cut off. All six were suffocated, and the bodies of all, except the mother, when found were nothing but charred remains. Mrs. Gamsby was alive when rescuers arrived on the scene, but she died on Sunday morning from the awful injuries she had received and from the shock of her terrible experience. All were buried in one grave. The scene at the graveside was heartrending. The bereaved father and one son were further in the woods when the rest of the family were burned, and they

The Carpet Trade.

We devote one entire warehouse, containing 9,900 square feet of floor space (the largest carpet wareroom in Canada), exclusively to Carpets and Housefurnishings.

We devote $40,000 capital to keep this immense place stocked with the newest, brightest and best productions of the leading manufacturers of three continents. We carry a larger and more complete line of Capets than all other dealers in this vicinity combined. We employ none but the most competent assistants, who know their business from A to Z, and who will use their knowledge for your benefit—if you wish. When the advertising atmosphere is heavily charged with exaggeration—that is sometimes prevarication-it is well that you should remember who are the trustworthy advertisers. For many years we have labored to make our store news plain. Always strong as facts demand, but never overstated. Our grand merchandising in this department never involves less than $40,000, often rising above $50,000. These great operations develop from present conditions very remarkable bargains in the carpet trade. We tell you of them clearly, truthfully, That's the point we with to emphasize.
