-Henry Clark, Walnut street, London West, was arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable J. W. Ward on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. Clark was crossing the Dundas street bridge and was wheeling a baby carriage in which was a child about a year old, while his little boy walked beside him. Clark is said to have been so intoxicated that he fell, knocking the koy down and scratching his face.

-Thos. Fryer, an 18-year-old youth living at St. Johns, was brought to the City Hospital last evening suffering from the effects of a gun explosion. It appears that Fryer overloaded an old musket, with the natural result that the gun exploded, knocking him down. His injuries, besides numerous bruises and scratches, include a broken nose and a lacerated wrist. The arm just above the hand is badly torn and several arteries were cut. It will be a few weeks before Fryer will be able to leave the hospital.

-The remains of the late Mrs. Davey, of Newport, R. I., arrived in the city yesterday and were interred in Mount Pleasant. The funeral was private. Mrs. Davey was the mother of the Rev. Arthur Wallace, who was the first pastor of the Congregational Church here, opened eighteen years ago Sunday. Mrs. Fanny Brooks, of Constantinople, Turkey, is a daughter of deceased, and was married in London, but shortly afterwards left for the far east. The cause of Mrs. Davey's demise was a broken thigh, sustained in an accident about ten days prior to her death.

Sixty members were in attendance at the W. C. T. U. meeting yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Robertson occupied the chair, and led in the devotional exercises, after which Rev. Mr. Fowler gave an instructive Bible reading. Two new members were received. Preparation for work at the dining hall in Queen's Park during the Western Fair was largely the work of the afternoon, after which an interesting programme was carried out as follows: Recitation, "Poorhouse Nan" by Miss McKericher; solo, Miss Hartson; address, "How to Serve" by Mrs. Douglas; duet, Mesdames Arm-

CHICAGO, Aug. 29 .- The new tariff bill caused a record-breaking day at the custom house yesterday. Heretofore $60,000 was the biggest day's receipts on record, but be-fore 9 o'clock $90,000 had been received and the platform with such speakers as the late Ingersoll and many others. Dr. Demick at 10:30 $103,000. It was expected that the proposes to pay London another visit and receipts for the entire day would foot up to $150,000 or $200,000. The bulk of the will give one of his celebrated lectures, which no doubt the citizens will turn out wares taken out was drygoods. Appraiser Hoyne said: "Chicago merchants have in force to hear. The reverend gentlemen left the city at noon today and while here about $4,500,000 worth of imports tied were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. up in the bonded warehouses of the city. The customs tax on these goods will amount to $1,500,000. There is During the month of July there were a large amount of cigars on hand which the importers will rush through under the reduced duties of the new bill. The reduction, small as it appears, will save importers $500 on every 100,000 cigars brought in under the new tariff. Liquors and wines will make more trouble than any other class of goods to be re-examined." Collector Russell expects the rush to continue fully 30 days.
