BASE BALL. HAMS TAKE ANOTHER.

The Cockneys were never in the game against the Hams at Tecumseh Park yesterday, the aggregation from the Mountain Town cinching matters in the first two innings. It was two straight for the Hams, and Father Pete didn't at all like the turn that things took. He gave lots of good advice to his statwart nine, but everything seemed to go with the other fellows. The game was anything but a brilliant exhibition, as will be seen by the error column. The London fielders had an off de and made the most of it. Cooper we. ato the box, but had to retire in the arst. His arm, which he thought had regained its strength, is still far from being in shape. Kostal then wend in, and was hit pretty freely, and was somewhat wild. Bradford, for the Hams, pitched a strong game. Only eight scratch hits were received off his delivery. Bill Reed, in center, made a couple of nice catches of long drives, and his throwing to the plate was of the first order. Hams had a batting streak, and had no trouble in getting hits when they were needed McAndrews, at third, put up a good game for the visitors. He adds much to the strength of the team. In the third inning, Umpire Popkay was floored with a foul tip, which struck him just below the heart. He keeled over, and it was some time be-fore he could resume. The score: LONDON

FISTIC. WANTS THE WHOLE THING.

New York, July 27.-Sam Harris, manager of Terry McGovern, makes a statement which will greatly interest the numerous fighters. It is to the effect that all who want to fight Mc-Govern hereafter will be gladly accommodated, but it must be agreed that the winner take the entire purse. Loser's end will be cut out. In speaking of this matter, Harris said: "These fighters who are challenging Terry know perfectly well that they can never beat him, but they want to fight him so as to get a big loser's end. I will not make a match with a losing end proviso." LAWN BOWLING.

TOURNEY TALK. A. C. Coleman's rink, of Seaforth, was one of the surprises of the tournament. Last year it was the winner of the trophy; this year it was defeated in the first stage. As an evidence of the strength of the rink, however, it competed in the Consolation, and won first prize.

A. S. Wigmore's rink, the Canadas, of Toronto, duplicated their work of last year by winning second prize in the trophy match. Corbin Weld's rink, of London, played in hard luck throughout the tournament. It reached the semi-finals in three rink matches, but was defeated in each. Had it been successful in any of the three, it would have won four

This rink was also represented in the doubles, where it was successful until the semi-finals was reached, and was then defeated by Brown and Taylor. There was an exciting finish in the preliminaries of the trophy match. A The Grand Trunk are also building rink comprising J. Stephenson, E. Finchamp, J. S. McDougall and E. Weld (skip), played a tie at the last end with the Stratford rink, J. Steele (skip). An extra rink had to be played, and was won by an extraordinary shot made by Mr. Steele. It carried the jack with it, and was shot for their rink.

Mr, D, A. Forrester's (Clinton) success in the singles was one of the most popular victories of the tournament.
