

FINE PICNICS ARE HELD AT SPRINGBANK PARK

Knights of Columbus Gather Three Hundred Strong For Big Outing.

HOLD BABY SHOW

Employees of Silverwoods Also Enjoy Splendid Annual Outing.

The Knights of Columbus of London held their annual picnic at Springbank Park yesterday and it seemed for a while that the rain would again stop the picnic proceedings. The picnic was planned for the park on July 16, but due to the bad outlook of the weather it was thought best to postpone it until yesterday. There were 300 in the picnic party and all arose to the occasion and had a splendid time.

The large program of sports was enjoyed by all and competition was not lacking in any event. A number of the prominent members of the Catholic clergy of London were present. Rev. Father Karney being presented with a box of cigars in recognition of the splendid work he had performed while a member of the London diocese.

From the women's point of view the baby show was probably the greatest event on the program. Every mother who could find it convenient to attend was there with the family pride, and all were positive that their baby possessed the hardest muscles and the most shapely legs. E. C. Killingsworth and B. C. McLean had the job of judging the entrants in the baby show, and although things were pretty hot when the decisions were awarded, both were able to go home on their own feet.

Baseball games were plentiful, and all seemed to join in these with a spirit of rivalry. Ed. Ryan, P. Flaherty and George Quigley, men who were prominent in the world of sport when young, came to the front and demonstrated their prowess for the younger folks yesterday.

The tug-of-war was won by the married men in three pulls, only after the single men had become exhausted after two pulls.

Race Results.
The results of the races were: Boys under 10—John MacLean, Bob MacLean and Pat Richardson. Girls under 10—Edith Atkins, Mary Corcoran and Irene Pettit.

Boys under 15—George Atkins, Fred Caton and Jack Kelleher. Girls under 15—Linda Croft, Leo Hart, Helen Kinsella.

Wheelbarrow race—Fred Caton and Helen Kinsella. Grassy Lane race—Leo Hart, George Atkins and Linda Grott.

Married women's race—Mrs. Howard, Mrs. Wyant, Mrs. Corcoran. Single ladies' race—Leo Hart, Eva Oatrich, Kathleen Kelleher.

Members' race, over 40—E. C. Killingsworth, P. Flaherty, B. C. McLean, J. Donohue, B. Delaney. Guests' race—J. Pettich, M. Robertson, C. Killingsworth.

Balloon race—Mrs. Griffin, Kathleen Kelleher, Helen Kinsella. George Quigley won the prize for having the largest family on the grounds.

Baby Show.
Winners in the baby show were: First, Betty McCarron; second, Joseph Comiskey; third, Dorothy Howard, daughter of Mrs. Lillian Howard.

The afternoon's entertainment was brought to a fitting climax when all sat down to supper made all the more tasty by the clever recitations of Grand Knight Barney McCann.

Those in charge of the successful outing were: T. Hayes, general chairman; Ed. Ryan, P. Flaherty, Jack Donohue, B. C. McLean, Gerald Loughlin, Harry Rahanan, E. C. Killingsworth and P. Murray.

ARVA METHODISTS.
Over a hundred were present yesterday at the Arva Methodist picnic of St. John's, which was held in Springbank Park. This is the largest picnic undertaken by this church for some years.

Results of the races are: Boys and girls, 5 to 7—Edna Turner, Marion Fresh, Lottie Turner. Boys and girls, 8 to 10—Margaret Webb, Alta Hudson, Evelyn Peters. Boys and girls, 11 to 13—Angela Robb, Gwendolyn McCarty, Bruce Turner. Girls, 14 to 16—Marion Webb, Olive Turner, Annie Webb. Young ladies' race—Nioma Peters, Vera Bartlett, Edith Wyant. Young men's race—Elmer Hudson, Gordon Webb, Catharine Ironside. Teachers' race—Mrs. W. McClary, Mrs. F. McClary, Mrs. G. Connor. Fat men's race—L. McClary, H. Knapton, E. Keen and W. McGilvray.

In a baseball game between teams captained by Miss Olive Turner and Miss Ida McClary, the former team won by the score of 17 to 13.

COCHRANE FAMILY.
The gathering of the Clan Cochrane held yesterday at Springbank was attended by 126 descendants of the original family, which settled in this district from Scotland years ago. The threatening weather did not dampen the spirits of the clansmen who were present from a dozen towns in the district.

Cochrane families were on hand from Nisbetown, London, Mount Elgin, Salford, Tillsonburg, Aylmer, Stratfordville, Delhi and St. Thomas. They were present with their children, great-grandchildren and elder members of the family, who recalled the time when Ontario was a veritable forest. In the matter of sports, the committee in charge arranged one of the most varied programs to be run off at any picnic. Baseball games for girls and boys, novelty races for the children, and a grand old-fashioned and grandmother were included in the program.

Following the sports all sat down to a sumptuous repast, served by the ladies, and which brought to a climax one of the most successful outings the Cochrane family has held in a number of years.

Race Results.
Result of the races were: Boys and girls, under 5—Roy Knott, Norma Warren. Boys and girls, under 5—Marion Campbell, C. B. Caswell. Bernice Kilty. Fat women's race—Mrs. Garlick, Mrs. G. Keen and Mrs. Cooper. Father and son race—D. L. Cochrane, W. B. Cochrane, G. A. Cochrane and J. W. Cochrane. Married daughters' race—Mrs. D. Kilty, Mrs. G. Barker and Mrs. W. Knott. McCoy's Defence Gets Hard Blow

Associated Press Despatch.

Los Angeles, Aug. 20.—A blow was dealt today on the structure of defence built for Kid McCoy, ex-pugilist indicted yesterday for the murder here of Mrs. Mors, with whom he was living.

McCoy's sister, Mrs. Jennie T. Mas, turned over to investigators $5,000 worth of jewelry which she said McCoy gave her after the death of Mrs. Mors, and which Albert A. Mors, divorced husband of the dead woman, declared were stolen from her body.

Raymond Martin, Cochrane daughter, race Zella Cochrane. Hope Cochrane and Mrs. W. Knott. Sons-in-law race—G. Barker, Wilson Hodges and Robert Garlick. Backward race—H. Wilson, E. L. Cochrane and Edward House. Free-for-all race—Alfred Warren, Harold Wilson and Eddie House.

In the scope of the game between the girls and boys the former were victorious by the score of 6 to 8.

The committee in charge of the picnic were: J. W. Cochrane, chairman; George House, secretary; Ben Bryan, starter.

SILVERWOODS LIMITED.
Silverwoods Limited held their annual picnic at the park yesterday. The number present was 300, including all branch office employees.

The feature of the afternoon and the one that provided the most enjoyment for the spectators was the ball game between the office force and the warehouse. It is thought that the office team won, but nobody was sure because when the pencils of the scores became worn and all the chalk used up and the scoring still continued, there was nothing to do but try and remember the number of runs scored. This was a satisfactory result for awhile, but when one declared that there was dirty work being done in somebody's mind, then the game was declared a draw by the officials.

Results of the races were: girls, six and under—Gertrude Beaton. Boys, six and under—Alex. Beaton. Boys, eight and under—Mary Beaton. Girls, eight and under—Mary Beaton. Boys, eight and under—Mary Beaton. Girls, eight and under—Mary Beaton.

PLAYGROUNDS TANK MEET POSTPONED

Events Will Be Run Off Saturday Afternoon Next.

The city playgrounds aquatic meet planned for yesterday at Thames Park was, owing to the weather conditions, postponed until Saturday afternoon.

The water was icy cold, and with rain falling until 3 o'clock, it was decided to postpone the event so that the spectators would be comfortable.

The program will be the same on Saturday as that which was to have been stroked off yesterday, said Chief Supervisor Goodman last night. "It was a big disappointment, yesterday's weather, but we expect even a bigger crowd on Saturday with half a week's more notice."

The beachers moved from Queen's Park to accommodate the crowd will be kept at Thames Park until Saturday, and even more seating accommodation is being sought.
