

THE GREAT FIRE SALE AT JAMES EATON'S FAIR

THE DRESS GOODS.
The most gigantic bargains in Dress Goods ever offered to the buying public. Thousands of yards must be sold. Hardly a yard in the store but was more or less damaged by smoke, and we have therefore decided to clear the whole lot out—no thought whatever of the loss.

THE STAPLES.
The greatest sale of Satens ever held in Toronto commenced here on Monday morning. We made a purchase last week close on 10,000 yards of the Finest French Satens, all at one straight price; every yard worth 20c and some worth 25 to 30c. We are enabled to announce the sale of these at 10 and 12 1/2c yard. You never saw the like before.

Here, under this heading in this department, we can preach till the sound reaches from the Atlantic to the Pacific Oceans. No person ever saw Ladies' White Underwear retailed at such prices before. One of the reasons was that these white garments were more easily soiled by smoke. Monday morning we brought forward the reserves and placed them on the counters.

NOTIONS, ETC.
How many things we could fill this space with! There are hundreds of special things that we have not room to tell of, but we'll let a few of price wonders have recognition.

FANCY GOODS.
Never have we sold such vast quantities of Handkerchiefs as we have sold since this sale started.

HOSIERY and GLOVES.
More than wonderful the selling of Gloves and Hosiery here. Thousands and thousands of pairs have been cleared out, and not one single pair has been sold at regular price—oh, no!—we announced a great sale and we kept our word. Selling everything lower than any other concern makes such crowds every day.

SPECIALS:
Purses—All Leather and some Plush, to be cleared at 50c each.
A Job lot of Hair Brushes clearing at 50c per pair, less than regular price.
Combs, 15 and 20 kinds to be sold at 10c.
Another lot of purses, some damaged, 15c per pair.
Another lot of purses, 10c to 15c.
Six Boats to be sold at 25c.

THINK OF SUCH MARVELOUS PRICES:

4500 yards of fast-colored 10c Prints will be offered at 7c yard; of course not damaged, but at fire prices.

2000 pairs of Ladies' Cotton Hose, fast dye, 15c pair, worth 20c everywhere.
Another great purchase of Gloves—tremendous big quantity. We cleared out a wholesale house. All new goods, comprising Silk Mitts and Gloves and Tafetta Silk Mitts and Gloves, prices are 10, 20 and 25c; exactly half their retail value.
3000 yards of Laces. We purchased them at half-price—so will you. This morning they go on sale at 5, 7 and 11c.
All Hats and Bonnets in the Millinery Department trimmed free of charge.
1300 Ladies' Ribbed Vests to be sold at 7 1/2c each—marvelous cheap.
