PRAYER UNION.

SOME time ago we suggested the advisability of a "Prayer League," extending throughout the entire Connexion, the members of which should unite to pray at specified times for particular objects. We have since learned that a similar arrangement has been in operation for some time in England and the United States; while a letter from the Rev. James Harris, in a late issue of the Guardian, shows that many in Canada have already joined in the movement. We lately received from the Editor of the King's Highway,—an English periodical, devoted to the spread of holiness,—the following card, which is being extensively circulated in England. We trust that our readers will endeavor to circulate copies as widely as possible in this country.

RESULTS OF A HOLINESS MEETING:

AT the last Norval Camp-meeting, Rev. Mr. Sherlock, having charge of one of the morning Prayer Meetings, turned it into a Holiness Meeting. Several short addresses were given on this subject, insisting on an immediate full consecration on the part of Christians, and present faith in the Divine acceptance of each consecrated heart. A call being given for those determined to seek the blessing of entire sanctification now to rise, all responded by rising to their feet. A short prayer meeting then followed; the burden of the prayers being: "Create in me a clean heart, O God." At the close of the service again a call was made on all who were now resting by faith on Jesus for full redemption, when over fifty arose and thus professed faith in Christ as a Saviour from all sin. The writer never before witnessed such a solid phalanx of testimony to the glorious fact that
