

laws, we are breathing the freedom of the boasted English constitution. It is well to emphasize it. Catholic Ireland robbed for Protestant endowments! Catholic Ireland taxed to pay by the pennies of her poor for Godless education! This, too, in the face of the awful revelation of national robbery by over taxation, which has lately startled the conscience of the Christian world! Catholic Ireland thus treated by a people to whose ancestors, aye, and to the princes of whose blood, she opened her schools, her home and her heart, in the golden years when she was the light and the generous benefactor of Western Christendom. But she is not faint-hearted not less brave and hopeful now than in her dark centuries past. She will continue to cry and to struggle for justice, and she must be heard, she must succeed. She must have her parliament and her school and her altar despite the power of tyrant, and the selfish bigotry of a foreign church."

P. J. GALVIN, '00.

I venerate the man whose heart is warm,
Whose hands are pure, whose doctrine and whose life,
Coincident, exhibit lucid proof
That he is honest in the sacred cause.

—Cowper.
