

Salt Spring Island Parish and Home

APRIL, 1900.

A mild winter and an early spring.

Major and Mrs. Craig left for Ireland on the 31st ult.

Mr. J. Akerman, senior, and Mr. Harris were down with the gripe last month.

Mrs. Fritz Walter and Miss E. Hart are coming on visit to Salt Spring Island early in May.

A blast near the road side caused a runaway and an upset, Mr. W. Whims being the sufferer.

The Patagonian youth, known on the Island as Jimmy Broon, died in the Jubilee Hospital last month.

Lawritz Sparrow, while seal hunting off the coast of California, January 15th, was drowned. His age was 18.

James Robertson, reported drowned, while rafting on the Yukon six months ago, is all right. He has a contract on hand to get out 175 cords of wood at $6.00 cord.

Mr. I. P. Edwards, storekeeper, is now in charge of the Burgoyne Post Office, those under Mr. Rogers at Fulford Harbour and under Mr. Maxwell at Burgoyne Bay having been closed.

There was a row on the wharf at Ganges Harbour, the boat-day recently. Whiskey—a free fight—a broken nose—and one of the assailants sent down for six months. Not very creditable to the Island.

Rev. E. F. Wilson will be much obliged if those who have not yet paid their subscription for "Parish and Home" for the current year, will kindly do so. The magazine is now in its fifth year, and its circulation is well kept up.
