

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Special.

Rev. F. M. Holt, of Lynn, Mass., whom the Church called to the Pastorate, visited us and preached last Lord's Day, both sermons were greatly enjoyed and appreciated by those present. The After Meeting was largely attended, and some 73 persons gave testimony to the goodness of God in a brief half-hour service. From our short acquaintance, we were greatly impressed with Bro. Holt as an all-round man—"Godly, genial, able, gifted, humble, and a preacher, etc." Our Brother expressed himself as satisfied "That the North Church has Spiritual life in a large measure." He enjoyed his stay amongst us, and received from one and all hearty Christian greetings. Bro. Holt will give his reply to the Church at an early day.

Rev. J. W. Manning preaches to-day and next Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Manning gave words of cheer in the Wednesday evening meeting. She and her little daughter, Dora, are guests of Mrs. M. Smith, Young Avenue.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL is important.—Business and Prayer Meetings are important, so also is the Sunday School. It is said by some that the Sunday School is the Church at work teaching and training her young in ways of righteousness and truth. Can we grasp its meaning. That great living vital truths are impressed upon the young mind which live throughout Eternity, taught in the Sunday School. What a responsible position the teacher holds, moulding the lives of scholars for Eternity. In view of this great responsibility, how should we teach? With what earnestness and anxiety, with great desire for the scholar's salvation. Labor on, pray and trust in Jehovah for blessed results, and wait patiently for His welcome words—"Well done," Thank God for the faithful Sunday School teachers. The Church should arouse to her great responsibility and save the young.

Our Calendar: Items for the CALENDAR must be received not later than Thursday morning. Address—Clerk of the Church.

Applications for Sittings should be made to Deacon Jas. McPherson. The seats are assigned, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.
