Revolution Sunday-School Requisites.

ENORMOUS SAVING TO SCHOOLS.

It is well understood that it costs little comparatively for copies of any publication when once all ready to print. Other publishers figure expense of getting ready to print into cost of publication, then if circulation is large they consider the immense profit legitimate. We figure to save schools all we can, hence our large sales and proportionate prices. There is quite as much money in selling 100,000 copies of a publication at 6c. as $6,000 at 25c. or 30c. and we are quite contented to make prices on this basis. It is scarcely four years since we began publishing Sunday school requisites on the "Revolution Plan," when we issued two publications, we have now 36, besides 21 literary books, 100 books and a large number of miscellaneous Requisites. Sales last year aggregated over twenty-six million copies. There is not one of our publications but what since first issue has been either dropped in price or increased in size and quality, or both, beside expense of adding new publications. For example, we began with a small twelve-page scholars' quarterly at 9c. a year; the same is now 32 pages, each page nearly double the first size, better paper and matter, yet price the same. We began with the Royal Road and Gracious Words on cheap paper, little more than half the present size and yet sold at a higher price than now. In quality we are not to be surpassed. We employ ablest writers and pay for all MSS., using more original matter than any two other publishers in this line, having employed and paid 170 writers for services during the past year, besides seven editors. Nothing partisan or sectarian admitted.

5c. Library Books. Ninety three Sabbath school library books now issued one new one following each week. First fifty two are reprints of the best ones by Dancy, one by Leigh Richmond. Original price of these books varies from 10 cents to $2.15, the whole 3 books originally costing $7.45, averaging $1.05 each. The volumes above No. 32 are all new, written expressly for us, by best Sunday-school writers, such as Kate Hamilton Hope Leshard, Faye Huntington, Belle Kullback, Towne, and others, and are equal to any. Each book printed without abridgment in large clear type, on good paper, bound in pamphlet form, wire stitched, and put up in a neatly engraved cover—a different style for each book. The books are far better for Sunday-school libraries than the ordinary; being light and flexible, and wire-stitched, they will last at least three times as long. Being carefully selected before hand, they save selection, each book being numbered and containing descriptive catalogue of the whole, extra numbers, catalogues and labor. A new book coming each week replenishes the library with little trouble or expense. Fifty cts. postpaid—5 or more books, 4 cents each; 10 or more, 3 1/2 cents each; 20 or more, 3 cents each; 30 or more, 2 1/2 cents each; 40 or more, 2 cents each; 50 or more, 1 1/2 cents each; 60 or more, 1 cent each; 70 or more, 7/8 cent each; 80 or more, 3/4 cent each; 90 or more, 1/2 cent each.

5c. Song Books. Each book hand-printed on good paper, in strong, durable cover, price averaging one fifth what other publishers ask. By mail, postage extra.

No song book extant equal to it. Price 25 or more copies 6c. each. Six-month copy, postpaid, 10c.
FOR PRIMARY DEPARTMENT. "Primary Songs." Word edition. 30 choice songs for Infant class use; selected from over 300 choice compositions. Pieces set in very large type and illustrated. Sunday-School Papers. OUR PLAN. 1st. To put as much matter into each paper as possible by setting in a fine, but clear and readable type. 2d. To use only the very best material—the best articles from the best pens. 3d. To make attractive to the reader, by beautiful illustrations, attractive titles, frequent paragraphing, etc. 4th. To make as useful as possible, introducing nothing without it has some good teaching in it. 5th. To furnish at prices based on an immense circulation. Fifteen different papers. Specimen copies free.
FIVE CENT PAPERS. Four monthlies at 5c each per year, or 12c. per quarter, when bought in lots of five or more. Price 6c. each last year, now reduced to 5c., owing to increased circulation. Each paper contains as much matter as the average Sunday-school paper, and more than many.
SIX CENT WEEKLY. THE LITTLE LEARNERS PAPER a weekly paper for the infant class; 6c. a year, or 2c. a quarter, in lots of five or more. No other infant class paper sold at less than 18c. a year. Contains the lesson with little lesson pictures; also one illustrated story in each number.
THIRTY CENT WEEKLY. THE WEEKLY MAGNET, an illustrated Serial Weekly paper for the main school, an immense thing, contains five times the matter of most Sunday-school papers, (please count words,) also a choice serial, running through the quarter. Nothing like it to keep up the attendance; invaluable as a means of doing good in the homes; besides, in many cases, preventing the reading of bad books and papers. Other papers with less than one quarter the matter, cost 50c. to 60c. a year. (No single subscriptions.)

Lesson Helps. OUR PLAN, to furnish at lowest prices possible, based on immense circulation, such lesson helps as will secure the best possible results from the study of the lesson. We do this 1st by adapting the lessons to the various ages publishing a special teacher's help and scholars' help in five different grades. 2nd by giving credit to scholars for lesson preparation, a system somewhat on the day school plan, which is a success. 3rd by utilizing the song service of the school in the interest of the lessons, introducing purely lesson songs written expressly for our publications and growing out of the lessons. The whole series in perfect keeping and intended to be used together in the same school. Lesson hymns are arranged to sing at sight (without rehearsal) by the introduction of old and new tune combination. Old hymns also added for those who prefer to save cost of Song books. Scholars' helps with music and all cost but from 4c. cents to 11 cents a year. Teachers' helps from 15 cents to 30 cents a year. Samples, complete catalogue, etc., free.

25c. Anthem Book. Book of 160 pages, church music size. Choice pieces, by ablest writers, the whole costing but $3.00 per dozen copies; (postage extra.)
