Mansion House Hotel, Baltintone, Md.,—20th October, 1871.

Mr. James I. Fellows—Dear Sir: I have just finished the tenth and last bettle of your estimable syrup of the Hypophosphites. To its use I near the cossation of cough, of shurp pains in my back and chest, en' of copious expectoration; also, return of appetite, buoyancy of spirits, increase of flosh and strength to perform hay dily duties with a degree of pleasure unknown to me for a long time. The good I have experienced from it is beyond description, and I advise all persons affilicted with consumpt e1 not to delay a day in taking it. Feeling sure that were it not for your Hypophosphites, I would now be in my grave.
