

A Canadian Encyclopedia

TWENTY VOLUMES—12,000 LARGE DOUBLE-COLUMN PAGES
1,000 ILLUSTRATIONS

The grandest set of volumes ever produced in this country are the twenty volumes of The Canadian Magazine. They begin with March, 1893, and end with April, 1903, the Magazine being now in its 21st volume. The writers include the best scholars, publicists and litterateurs of the period, such as

GOLDWIN SMITH
ADAM SHORTT
SIR GILBERT PARKER
JAMES HANNAY
D'ALTON McCARTHY
SIR JOHN BOURINOT
HON. DAVID MILLS

HON. CLIFFORD SIFTON
PRINCIPAL GRANT
LT.-COL. G. T. DENISON
J. S. WILLISON
T. ARNOLD HAULTAIN
HON. J. W. LONGLEY
SIR JAMES LeMOINE

and a hundred others.

The articles cover all the ground of Canadian thought and activity, and contain a mass of information presented in bright, readable form and unobtainable elsewhere. Sir John Bourinot's famous "Makers of the Dominion" is a history of Canada in itself. The series of more than forty "Canadian Celebrities" cover the biographies of nearly all the leading Canadians. In fact, the great and important features of these volumes are too numerous to be mentioned in one page of type.

In these twenty volumes there are also over three hundred excellent Short Stories, besides several complete Novels. These make splendid family reading.

There are only a very few sets in existence, but the publishers offer Five for immediate sale. Binding to suit the purchasers. Terms sent on receipt of a postcard.
