BRIEFLETS.

Rev. Father Poitras, O. M. I., was in town last week.
 Rev. Father Campeau, of St. Joseph, was a guest at the Archbishop's palace last Thursday.
 Rev. Father Morin, the great colonizer, stopped over here last Saturday and went east the following day.
 Dr. J. K. Barrett, Inspector of Inland Revenue, returned Thursday last from an official inspection at Moosejaw.

We regret to hear that Rev. Father O'Dwyer, of St. Mary's, Winnipeg, has been quite unwell these last few days.

Cardinal Bassa, an illustrious Dominican who had been Archbishop of Florence since February 1889, died last month.

The Rev. Mother General of the Sisters of Mercy arrived here last week from Montreal to inspect the convent of her order here.

The University examinations in Arts ended last Friday. The examiners are now busy awarding marks. Results will be known next Wednesday.

The General Intention for June, developed already in the American Messenger of the Sacred Heart, is "The Spread of the Apostleship of Prayer."

Miss Benoit, daughter of the Montreal Fire Brigade Chief, accompanied the Very Rev. Mother-General of the Sisters of Mercy in her journey hither.

His Grace Archbishop Langevin, O. M. I., returned from Assiniboia last Saturday, accompanied by Rev. Father Woodcutter. A full report of his visitation will be found in our next issue.

It is reported that the Sisters of the Order of Jesus and Mary have purchased a site of 15 acres at the south end of Maryland bridge, Fort Rouge, and will erect a handsome ladies' college thereon.—Tribune.

The British tank steamer Duffield from Shields in ballast for Philadelphia reports sighting, on May 4, directly in the pathway of the trans-Atlantic steamers, the largest iceberg ever seen in the North Atlantic. It remained in view during three hours.

The Very Rev. Vicar General Allard, O. M. I., came back from the east last Thursday and stayed a few days with the Fathers of St. Mary's, Winnipeg. He left for Rat Portage yesterday. His five months' rest among his relatives has considerably improved his health.

Answer to W. E. L.—The only change made in postal charges for the British Isles is the reduction of letter postage from 5 to 2 cents. A postcard still costs two cents, so that you gain nothing by writing postcards to Scotland except brevity, the dropping of polite formality and the advantage of being read by the country postmasters at both ends.

Rev. Fathers Fillion and Lemieux came to town yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. George L'Évêque were the godparents at the christening of Mr. J.-B. L'Évêque's fifth child, Alice, last Wednesday.

Rev. Antonin Dubuc, fourth son of Hon. Judge Dubuc, arrived here yesterday from the Montreal Seminary of Philosophy.

The Indian Commissioners, with their secretaries and interpreters, started for the northwest yesterday by the Pacific express.

Cardinal Newman says somewhere that the most beautiful passages in the liturgy are to be found in the office and the missal for this Pentecostal week.

Mr. I. Spencer, so long and favorably known as usher to patients and guests in St. Boniface Hospital, has accepted a position as warden in the Stony Mountain penitentiary.

Rev. Father Cherrier is being treated for rheumatism in St. Boniface Hospital. Rev. Father Drummond took his place at the Immaculate Conception for the month of May exercise yesterday evening.

Worshippers in the cathedral were delighted to hear their beloved Archbishop's ringing tenor in the solemn Pontifical Mass of the great Pentecostal festival. Father Messier was the assistant priest. The honorary deacon was Father Gravel, the honorary subdeacon, Father Woodcutter; acting deacon, Father Béliveau, acting subdeacon, Father Chapdelaine, S. J. Father Lacasse, O. M. I., preached eloquently on the Holy Ghost.

IN MEMORIAM.

Written in memoriam of a dearly beloved little favorite relative, Arthur J. Mary McHugh, aged five years, who died at 10.45, Friday, January 20, 1899.

[Published as an obituary notice.]

He was the joy of all the household, Affection pure and sweet, Rosy cheeks, cherry lips, Dimpled hands and feet.

That flower came among us And grew brighter day by day, But that tender blossom faded Ere it reached gay boyhood's day.

Ah! death came—soft winds sobbed And lulled nature into rest, While weeping ones kept vigil O'er dear Arthur's dying breast.

These, who watched beside him, Saw his young life ebb away, While his childish lips repeated Hark! I hear the angels say:

"Oh! come to me my little lamb, Fly to God's embrace, Come from death to life eternal, Sing 'Sweet Mary full of Grace!'"

His large blue eyes, half sunken, His white hands, joined in prayer... Death stamped his icy signet On that brow so fair.

Ah! those who watched with lost hope Sought their anguish deep to hide: That form lay cold as marble Farewell! farewell sweet child.

In the falling shades of twilight That winning voice is missed; Time cannot nor will efface Words to which I loved to list.

Far away in the graveyard, Those loving lips lie hushed; The pang of separation on A mother's heart has crushed.

Sleep, my darling, in thy tiny grave, Rest from pain in thy bed of clay. Thou shalt rise to meet thy loved ones At the call of "Judgment Day."

A beautiful child, beloved by us! With angels gone abroad, Preserved from the taint of the world To feast on the goodness of God.

Tho' tears have flowed since the death— The link that bound us sever, [Stroke did Yet in Heaven, that far reaching City, I pray we'll meet forever.

Lottie A. O'Doherty, Angus Avenue, Calgary.

MISS ELEANOR CASS.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cass, of 172 Vaughan street, Winnipeg, are mourning the premature death last Thursday of their dear daughter Eleanor. She was their second daughter and only fifteen years old. The poor child had been ailing for a long time and bore her sufferings with admirable fortitude. Death came to her pure soul as a welcome release, for which she was fully prepared by the consolations of our holy faith. The REVIEW unites with the many friends of this excellent family in tendering its heartfelt sympathy.

The funeral took place on Saturday morning from the family residence to St. Mary's Church, where Rev. Father Guillet, O.M.I., sang the Requiem Mass. The sacred edifice was thronged with sympathizing friends of the bereaved family. Miss Madge Barrett sang with deep feeling "Angels ever Bright and Fair." From the Church the funeral cortege proceeded to the Fort Rouge cemetery. The pallbearers were: Geo. Gelle, Chas. Kelly, H. Cronin, O. Marrin, M. Allman and L. Lawler. The large number of floral tributes witnessed to the popularity of the dear departed one.

MR. ALPHONSE PAILLÉ.

The death is announced last Sunday at 1 p. m. of Mr. Alphonse Paillé, a highly respected farmer of St. Charles, Man., who went to God with deep sentiments of trustful piety, leaving a widow and a large family and many devoted friends to mourn his rather early demise at the age of fifty-five. One of his sons is an Oblate scholastic in Ottawa, and will soon be ordained priest. Yesterday evening Rev. Father Caron drove the Most Rev. Archbishop out to St. Charles, where His Grace presided at the obsequies this morning. Dr. Dame, who was a school-fellow of Mr. Alphonse Paillé, also went to St. Charles for the funeral. The deceased came to this province twenty years ago from Lowell, Mass.

A WITTY PEASANT.

A thunder-storm overtook the Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria when out shooting in 1873 with old Emperor William of Germany and Victor Emmanuel. The three monarchs got separated from their party and lost their way. They were

It is undoubtedly a fact that our grandmothers, the pioneer women of the country, led more laborious lives than the housewives of to-day. In spite of this fact, they bore their husbands' health, robust sons and daughters, and did not become weak, complaining invalids as a consequence.

There are probably several reasons for this. One is, that they lived more in the open air, and another, and probably the most influential of all, is that they were less prudish than the women of to-day. They were not ashamed to know something of their own physical make-up. They were not too nice to take care of their health in a womanly way. Women now-a-days suffer untold tortures in silence, because of weakness and disease of the distinctly feminine organism, rather than consult a physician, or even talk upon the subject to their own husbands. They imagine that troubles of this description can only be cured by undergoing the disgusting examinations and local treatment insisted upon by the average modern physician. Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures all diseases peculiar to women in the privacy of their own homes. It does away with the necessity for examinations and local treatment. It acts directly on the important organs concerned in making them strong, healthy and vigorous. It fits for wifehood and the burdens of household duties. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It banishes the discomforts of the time of expectancy and makes baby's advent easy and almost painless. Thousands have testified to its merits.

drenched to the skin, and, in search of shelter, hailed a peasant driving a covered cart drawn by oxen along the high road. The peasant took up the royal trio and drove on.

"And who may you be, for you are a stranger in these parts?" he asked after awhile of Emperor William.

"I am the Emperor of Germany," replied his Teutonic majesty.

"Ha, very good," said the peasant, and then, addressing Victor Emmanuel, "and you, my friend?"

"Why, I am the King of Italy," came the prompt reply.

"Ha, ha, very good indeed! And who are you?" addressing Francis Joseph.

"I am the Emperor of Austria," said the latter.

The peasant then scratched his head, and said with a knowing wink, "Very good, and who do you suppose I am?"

Their majesties replied they would like very much to know.

"Why, I am His Holiness the Pope."

A New Departure.

Dr. Marschand, the celebrated French physician, has at last opened his magnificently equipped laboratory in Windsor, Ont. There is a large staff of chemists and physicians at his command, and the men and women of Canada may now procure the advice of this famous specialist free of charge.

Dr. Marschand has a world-wide reputation for successfully treating all nervous diseases of men and women, and you have but to write the doctor to be convinced that your answer, when received, is from a man who is entitled to the high position he holds in the medical fraternity.

Why suffer in silence when you can secure the advice of this eminent physician free of charge.

All correspondence is strictly confidential and names are held as sacred. Answers to correspondents are mailed in plain envelopes.

You are not asked to pay any exorbitant price for medicines, in fact it rarely happens that a patient has expended over 50 cents to one dollar before he or she becomes a firm friend and admirer of the doctor.

A special staff of lady physicians assist Dr. Marschand in his treatment of female cases. Always inclose three-cent stamp when you write and address The Dr. Marschand Chemical Co., Detroit, Mich. U. S. A. Mention the Northwest Review when you write the Doctor.

"About 1730," says Dr. Ashe "Porter has first manufactured in the City of London." This name was given to the beverage, because the principal consumers, were the Stalwart Porters of the day, who found its invigorating properties most beneficial, under their strain of work.

The names of Porter or Stout (as used by the public) are synonymous. We wish to mention our STOUT. Made from pure Malt and Hops it is most nourishing to the Invalid, because of its peculiar, aromatic flavour.

It is grateful to the Jaded Palate because of its TONIC QUALITIES.

It creates a healthy appetite, and builds up the system.

All sized bottles from half pints.
