- (c) The Committee should have the smallest number of members to perform its functions effectively but may, as required, appoint sub-committees or task forces to undertake specific tasks. Advisors and observers to the Committee may be paid by Governments or serve without salary or expense allowance; and,
- (d) The United States and Canadian sections of the Committee shall each designate a Chairman of its section. The Chairmen of the two sections shall be Co-chairmen of the Committee and shall be responsible for providing proper liaison between the Committee and their respective authorities. The Chairmen will keep their respective section members informed of plans, activities and progress. Each Chairman, after consulting the members of his own section of the Committee, may appoint a Secretary of that section.
