

Lower Saxony and one by the British force. The Canadian force shall be entitled to appoint a representative to the Committee when Canadian interests are involved. The Committee may in the course of its discussions call in experts.

- (b) The Committee shall discuss without delay questions which might arise from the application of paragraph 2 of Article 45 of the Supplementary Agreement. In particular, it shall, as a matter of priority, deal with complaints based upon subparagraphs (a) to (c) of paragraph 2 of Article 45 of the Supplementary Agreement, and as quickly as possible determine the necessary details on the spot. The Committee shall inform the officer appointed in accordance with paragraph 1 of this Article of its findings.
- (c) In case of differences of opinion between the German authorities and the authorities of the force the Committee shall endeavour to reach an agreement as soon as possible.

Article 6

The British liaison office shall make a combined notification monthly to the Land authorities and the Military District Administration of exercises which are to take place outside the areas made available for permanent use by the force under Article 2 of this Agreement, the notification to be made by the tenth day of the preceding month. The notification shall contain details concerning the nature and duration of the exercise, the designation and approximate strength of the units in training, the approximate total number of wheeled and tracked vehicles, and, if necessary, details concerning any special arrangements to be made (as for example in respect of blocking of public roads). The British liaison office shall, in addition, notify the Permanent Committee established under paragraph 3 of Article 5 of this Agreement of the approximate area in which it is planned to carry out exercises outside the areas made available for permanent use by the force under Article 3 of this Agreement. The notification shall be made as early as possible and in any event not later than seven days before the exercises are to take place.

Article 7

1. The present Agreement shall be submitted for ratification; the signatory States shall deposit the instruments of ratification with the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany.

2. The present Agreement shall enter into force on the same day as the Supplementary Agreement.

3. Articles 81 and 82 of the Supplementary Agreement shall apply mutatis mutandis to the present Agreement.
