

B. SHORT-TERM ELEMENTS

14. With effect from the adoption of this decision and continuing until the formal completion of these negotiations on agriculture by December 1990, participants, within the scope of their existing legislation and their existing GATT rights and obligations, undertake to ensure that current domestic and export support and protection levels in the agricultural sector are not exceeded. Participants undertake to ensure that tariff and non-tariff market access barriers in force at the date of this decision are not subsequently intensified in relation to imports of agricultural products nor extended to additional products, including processed agricultural products. Participants shall be deemed to be in compliance with this undertaking so long as the access opportunities granted to individual products in 1989 and 1990 are not less than those granted on average in 1987 and 1988. Participants shall also ensure that support prices to producers, to be expressed in national currencies*, that are set or determined directly or indirectly by governments or their agencies are not raised above the level prevailing at the date of this decision or otherwise take actions to ensure that the current levels of support for the commodity concerned are not increased.

15. Participants state their intention to reduce support and protection levels for 1990. This could be done either by using an AMS or by taking specific policy measures. They will notify the undertakings for fulfilling this commitment by October 1989.

Reporting requirements

16. Participants agree to report on their compliance with the above undertakings at six-month intervals. The first report shall be submitted not later than 1 December 1989.
