

(c) to widen the authority of the Senate and of the House of Commons regarding the actual moving, transportation, travelling and telecommunication expenses to be allowed their respective members for each session;

to amend the Members of Parliament Retiring Allowances Act and An Act to make provision for the retirement of members of the Senate to provide for adjustments in the contributions and benefits under those Acts; and to further provide for consequential amendments.

Mr. Turner (Ottawa-Carleton), seconded by Mr. MacEachen, by leave of the House, introduced Bill C-243, An Act to amend the Judges Act and the Financial Administration Act, which was read the first time and ordered to be printed and ordered for a second reading at the next sitting of the House.

The text of the Message and recommendation of the Governor General printed pursuant to Standing Order 62(2) in relation to the foregoing Bill is as follows:

His Excellency the Governor General recommends to the House of Commons a measure to amend the Judges Act

(a) to increase the salaries of judges of the Supreme Court of Canada, the Federal Court of Canada, the superior and district and county courts of the provinces, and the judges of the Territorial Courts of the Yukon Territory and of the Northwest Territories;

(b) to provide salaries for five additional judges of the High Court of Ontario, three additional judges of the Court of Queen's Bench of Quebec, three additional judges of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, and one additional judge of the county courts of Nova Scotia;

(c) to provide for supernumerary judges and for their salaries;

(d) to provide for every judge in receipt of a salary under this Act, an increase in the additional salary paid as compensation for extra-judicial services performed at the request of the Government of Canada or the government of a province, and for incidental expenditures required in the execution of his office;

(e) to provide for the payment to every judge of the Federal Court of Canada and of the Territorial Courts of the Yukon Territory and the Northwest Territories, an additional allowance as compensation for special incidental expenditures inherent in the exercise of his office as judge;

(f) to reduce the age at which a judge may be granted an annuity;

(g) to provide for the annuity to be payable to a supernumerary judge where prior to becoming a supernumerary judge he held the office of Chief Justice or Associate Chief Justice;

(h) to reduce the age at which a judge of the county court shall be compulsorily retired;

(i) to provide for an annuity to the widower of a judge and to the children of a judge who dies while holding office;

(j) to establish the Canadian Judicial Council and to provide that it may engage counsel and other persons, and to amend the Financial Administration Act to increase the salary of the Auditor General.

Pursuant to Standing Order 39(4), the following five Questions were made Orders of the House for Returns:

No. 316—Mr. Foster

What amount of financial assistance has been made available by the federal government to each accredited university in the Province of Ontario for each of the past five years for (a) operating expenses (b) capital expenses?—Sessional Paper No. 283-2/316.

No. 337—Mr. Fortin

1. From December, 1961 to October, 1970 how much money has the federal government allocated to university students in (a) Canada (b) the Province of Quebec?

2. By year, what was the amount received in the case of each university in 1965 to 1970 inclusive?

3. What are the specific purposes, if any, of such scholarships or grants?—Sessional Paper No. 283-2/337.

No. 455—Mr. Dinsdale

1. (a) What countries are the sources of sugar imported into Canada (b) what companies in Canada do the importing, and in what quantities each year since 1960?

2. Were Canadian Sugar Refineries convicted under the Combines Act in 1960 for operating a cartel to suppress importations of Cuban refined sugar to Canada in favour of an agreed upon allocation of raw sugar and, if so, what were the details of the judgment at that time?

3. Has the Minister of Consumer and Corporate Affairs received information that Canadian Sugar Refineries are operating a cartel to maintain high domestic prices on sugar and, if so, what action has been taken?—Sessional Paper No. 283-2/455.

No. 693—Mr. Skoberg

1. For each year 1965-66 to 1969-70, how many consultants outside the Public Service of Canada were retained by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics?

2. What did these services cost?

3. What are (a) the names of the firms or individuals retained (b) the reasons in each instance for retaining the service (c) the costs in each instance where a firm