

The Pamphlets referred to can be obtained from the Publishers, as follow:

Houlston & Co., Paternoster Row, London:

"The Close of Twenty-eight Years of Association with J. N. D.; and of Fellowship and Ministry amongst those who adopt his Doctrines concerning the Sufferings of Christ." By W. H. D. (Price One Shilling.)

"Grief upon Grief: a Dialogue." By P. F. H. (Price Sixpence.)

"Translation of a Letter from M. Guinand, of Lausanne, to Mr. J. N. Darby." (Price Threepence.)

"Divers and Strange Doctrines Stated and Examined." By 'Tertius.' (Price Fourpence.)

"Darbyism: its Rise and Development; and a Review of 'the Bethesda Question.'" By Henry Groves. (Price One Shilling.)

William MacIntosh, 19, Paternoster Row, London:

"The Exclusive Brethren: their Origin and Discipline." (Price Sixpence.)

Rowse & Co., Stephen's Green, Dublin:

"Mr. J. N. D.: a Sketch of some of his Recent Doctrines," &c. By T. R. (Price Twopence.)

Charles Caswell, 135, Broad Street, Birmingham:

"Cause of his own Withdrawal from Certain London Meetings Explained." By George B. Gilpin. (Price Twopence.)

George Morrish, 24, Warwick Lane, Paternoster Row:

"Brethren and their Traducers." By W. Kelly. (Price Twopence.)

G. J. Stevenson, 54, Paternoster Row, London:

"A Caution against the Darbyites." By J. E. Howard. (2nd Edition. Price Sixpence.)