at whose meetings in Rochester, N.Y., Hess was touched by the spirit of the Lord.

Hess, before his conversion, travelled in nearly all parts of the world, and the story of his life during this period is more thrilling than the page of fiction, whilst the narration of his work of the past five years is an epoch in evangelistic action and literature.

Burdick, and illustrations of Mr. Hess at different periods of his life, and a full page portrait of the Hess family, consisting of father, mother and three children. Bound in English cloth and gold.
