
Staple and Fancy Lines.

Biscuits:

Our long experience enables us to avoid all difficulties in handling the flours, and overcoming the peculiar effects of our climate. Wherever possible we have improved the Style and Finish for the benefit of our Customers, and we need scarcely dilate upon the quality now so well known.

Boston Pilot Bread:

This line is our own conception. The original "Boston" biscuit was a small cracker. The success of this article of food has been remarkable, and orders are received for it from the far Eastern Provinces.

Soda Biscuits:

Our product is better than ever, and put up in convenient and tasty packages.

Plain Biscuits:

Sweet Biscuits:

Increased facilities, the most competent manipulators and the very best materials should, when guided by intelligent experience, produce goods worthy of your attention. Any slight deficiencies that may have been observed in our Biscuits have been supplied, and we place OUR COMPLETE RANGE before you with the utmost confidence.

Confectionery.

It is now a year since we added a Candy Department, and the satisfaction which has resulted has been gratifying to our numerous Customers. We have carefully studied their requirements and the conditions of the trade during the various seasons, and we are now in a position to execute large orders satisfactorily. Our range will be found the most complete of any handled by a single factory in the Province.

Boiled Goods and Bottled Goods:

Are the best produced in the Province, and have given great satisfaction wherever sold. They are meeting with a steady and increasing demand.

Bon Bons and Christmas Goods:

A very complete line in all attractive sizes and patterns.
