

THE CHARGE given Mr. Gannet, at his Ordination. By the Reverend
Mr. William Randal, of Kingston.

AS you, Sir, by the providence of God are called to the work of the gospel ministry, and have declared your readiness to receive it of the Lord, we therefore in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by virtue of authority derived from him, do with the ancient rite of laying on the hands of the presbytery, constitute and ordain you a minister of Christ, committing unto you the keys of the kingdom of heaven—The whole administration of the gospel of Christ : as it consists in delivering the doctrines of Christ by preaching the everlasting gospel.

The administration of the sacraments of the New-Testament—Baptism and the Lord's Supper.

And dispensing the holy discipline of Christ's church.

In praying with and for your people, and in blessing them in the name of the Lord.

And we commit to your pastoral care and charge that society of persons, who have called you to the work of the ministry among them.

We therefore charge you before the great God, and before Jesus Christ, the glorious head of the church, and the great shepherd and bishop of souls, that you take heed to the ministry, which you now receive of the Lord, that you fulfil it.
