

Dr Edward Dupré, and
 teur, rectors; and Mefs.
 and de la Taste, cons."

Portuguese begin to er Dr Willis a greater than the pope; and it is the utmost difficulty
 the priests are able to
 at the people from wor-
 ing him.
 ey have hit upon one
 ent, however, but it ob-credit very slowly, to their ascendancy. It
 —they have declared
 the intercession of the mother church, the pope and Dr Willis, and gave a anointed cross, which
 n as the queen touched
 s cured.

ril 26. A duel wa
 yesterday se'enight
 aris, between two mem-
 of the National Assemblies Gouvion and Cho-
 in consequence of some
 language which passed
 en them on the subject
 soldiers of Chateauin the Assembly on ay the 9th; they were panied by seconds, and with pistols.—M. Gouad the first fire, which fatal to his antagonist.
 Gouvion has since
 y resigned his seat in tional assembly, but has mitted Paris, where the
 racy have decreed ho-
 and triumphs to the
 ters of his brother.

INDEX.

- | | |
|--|--|
| A.
 Account of a voyage to the Hebrides, 81-173-209-280
 Anecdotes, 39-80-118-191-223-254
 266-311-330
 Anecdotes of brigadier Resen, 242
 —of Peter the Great, 244—of the emperor Severus, 254—of marishal de Toiras, 255—of Alphonso king of Arragon, 255
 Animal instinct, observations on, 9
 Anti-farmer General on mercantile legislation, 256
 Antiquities in Scotland, 53-94-286
 Arcticus on brigadier Resen, 201-242
 —on Peter the Great, 244
 —Scottish literature, 313
 Arts, &c. intelligence respecting,
 228-264
 —in India, intelligence respecting, 32
 B.
 Baya, remarkable Indian bird,
 description of, 18
 Benbecula island, account of, 221 Blanchet abbé, memoirs of,
 with a portrait, 1-48
 Boydell's views on the Thames, Forth, Clyde, and Severn, an account of, 114
 Britain, political improvement
 of, 41-161-233—remarks
 on ditto, 170
 Brodie's chart of the German ocean, an account of, 232 Buchan, earl of, card from,
 —letter to G. Washington, 142
 C.
 Cannay island, account of, 176
 Caouchouc, experiments on,
 Card from the earl of Buchan,
 Chicorium intybus, 268 | Correspondents, acknowlege-
 ments to, 40-80-120-200-272-312
 Course of reading, observations
 on, 126
 Curious discovery, 75
 D.
 Description of a view near Edinburgh, 294
 Dictionary, a specimen of, 179 Disquisitions on the uses of the dhunes in Scotland, 56-94-286
 Dhunes, remarks on, 53-94—con-jectures concerning their uses, 56—considered 1st as watch
 towers, 57—2d as forts, 59
 —3d as habitations of princes,
 98—4th as places of worship,
 286—a different kind of, 330
 Docility of animals distinguished from tractability, 17 Dog, his singular attachment to man, 9
 Downie's charts of Scotland, account of, 228
 Drowned persons how to recover, 273
 Dutch government at the Cape
 of Good Hope, 256
 Dyer's weed, culture of, 307
 E.
 Earth-worm, physiological queries respecting, 137
 Entails observations on, 333
 Eulogium on the minister, 150
 Exercises on practical grammar, 179
 Experiments on chicory, 268
 F.
 Fine arts, intelligence respecting, 113
 Fragment, 253
 Frederick the Great, reflections of, 23
 G.
 Grammar, exercises in, 179
 Gregory's history of England,
 account of, 116 |
|--|--|