

the last perilous days,—those in which we are living,—who are “lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God, having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof.” If such unfaithful parents, and others who follow, or sanction, those ensnaring and contaminating engagements and practices, ever seriously peruse the inspired volume, may they, before it is too late, be led to solemnly mark and obey the awful warning of our Lord:—“Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must be that offences come, but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!”

