

"The best cure for infidelity is missionary literature."—Rev. A. T. Pierson, D.D.

"I see no business in life but the work of Christ; neither do I desire any employment to all eternity but His service."—Henry Martyn.

"I am wondering why God has chosen a weak instrumentality such as I am for promoting His Kingdom in this Empire of Japan. I could simply say to Him, 'Here I am, employ me in Thy vineyard if Thou findest a pleasure in Thy humble servant.'"—Joseph Hardy Neesima.

"Had I a thousand lives, I would give them all to God. It is impossible for any rational creature to be happy without acting all for God. . . . There is nothing in the world worth living for but doing good and finishing God's work—doing the work that Christ did."—David Brainerd.

"I have made up my mind to go back to South America and leave no stone unturned, no effort untried, to establish a mission among the aboriginal tribes. They have a right to be instructed in the Gospel of Christ. While God gives me strength, failure shall not daunt me. . . . Our Saviour has given a command to preach the gospel even to the ends of the earth. He will provide for the fulfilment of His own purpose. Let us only obey."—Captain Allen Gardiner.
