also address a men's class in the af-ternoon. The death occurred yesterday of Thomas G. Cummings, aged 24 years, at the Englehardt Hospital, after a four weeks' filness of typhoid fever. The deceased was a fireman on the C.P.R., and was held in high esteem by all his fellows. He boarded at the house of Mr. Samuel Walker at 75 Ryding-avenue. A very sad circum-stance in the case is that Mr. Cum-mings was to have been married next Wednesday to Miss Chapelie of Wood-ville-avenue. Directly across the road is a large brick house that he had been working on in his spare time all summer, all ready for occupation. The funeral will take place to-mor-row aftermoon from Mr. Walker's re-sidence, and the body will be interred in Prospect Cemetery. Suckling & Co.

"Well," said Mr. Jennings, "to go back a little, the prospects of the Town of North Toronto in 1909 could not have been brighter. People invested, bought or built houses in the town with the expectation of annexation with the city, thus causing a demand for real estate. There is no doubt that at the present time, however," said Mr. Jen-nings, "that real estate movements are slow in the suburbs, caused, I should say, by the great increase in prices asked. In some cases these figures asked. In some cases these figures have doubled in the last 12 months, an advance which is above all reasonable prices. "Buyers look to North Toronto." said he, "as a place where they can obtain a home with reasonable lawn and sarden privileges, something they can-not get in the city. They take a trip out here where there are thousands and the body will be interred in Prospect Cemetery. find prices in some cases almost as high as in the city. This added to the double car fare and lack of modern transportation, cools their ardor for a DEER PARK, Oct. 14.—(Special.)— In the Deer Park Presbyterian Church to-night the Rev. Joseph Northey of Belfast, Ireland, gave a most interest-ing address on "Love, Courtship and Marriage." There was a large attend-ance. suburban home. "The activity in the northern end of the city," said Mr. Jennings, "tak-ing the locality around Upper Canada College and the extreme southern end of the town, and the demand for homes in that district, together with the re-luctance of buyers to go further north, necessitating the use of two car fares, is a pretty good barometer that the Town of North Toronto will never be what it should be until we are part of ance.

On Tuesday evening the harvest home tea and entertainment will be given, at which Rev. Byron Stauffer will give his lecture on "Fishing." F. B. Wal-don of Toronto will be the vocalist. Tea will be served from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. Town of North Teronto will never be what it should be until we are part of the city and have one fare. Annexa-tion will solve many of these problems.
