SILVER STOCKS UP ON BRISK DEMAND

of Strike-Dome Feature of Gold Issues.

Market Discounts Early End

Confidence that the Cebait strike is about to be settled inspired brisk buying of silver stocks yesterday, with the resait that this section of the list more than vied in interest with the gold group in the mining market. The demand was particularly insistent for Timiskaming, Trethewey, Adanac and Peterson Lake, and substantial gains were scored. Among the Porcupines, the chief feature was the upturn in Dome Mines. In New York, 2100 shares Dome Mines. In New York, 2100 shares of Dome were traded in yesterday, the price advancing to $14.25, and closing at $14.12½, as compared with $13.50 on Wednesday. Locally, only 100 shares changed hands, the price being $14.95. an advance of 45c a being $14.95. an advance of 45c a share from the previous sale price. Yesterday's transactions, 179,000 shares, showed the largest total in weeks. Brokers report that orders are accumulating, and they look for a steady extension of public participation and higher prices, with occasional recessions, such as occur in a healthy market. The Cobalt situation has been a drag, but it is believed that the strikers will, at their next mass meeting, vote decisively to remass meeting, vote decisively to return to work. The mine managers
