MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S VISIT.

Colonial Secretary Coming at Special Invitation of President Cleveland.

Montreal, Aug. 21.—(Special.)—A gentleman who arrived from the States to-day told your correspondent that it was generally supposed in official circles over the line that the chief object of Hon. Joseph. Chamberlain's visit to America was to confer with President Cleveland regarding the scheme to submit all disputes between England and the United States to arbitration. The correspondent's informant adds that Grover Cleveland's one dream before retiring from office is to bring this about and that Hon. Mr. Chamberlain is coming over upon.

A Pointer for Visitors. JOHN CATTO & SON, King-st., Opposite the Postoffice.

Natural conditions have been kind to us. Nowhere else in Toronto could there be erected a store like unto this. The southwest corner of Queen and Yonge-streets is peculiarly situated for a building of its size and character. These advantages placed in the hands of those skilled in constructing the most modern buildings have given us and the people the magnificent structure that meets the eye of everyone who travels Yonge and Queen streets. Its great height, substantial construction and completeness in interior arrangements make it pre-eminent among the retail stores of Toronto and Canada. Gone into stock within the walls of this store to-day the following new Fall goods:

7 Cases Ribbons. 6 Cases Parasols and Umbrellas. 23 Cases Millinery Goods. 8 Cases Hosiery. 5 Cases Fall Underwear. 3 Cases Shawls. 5 Cases Laces. 3 Cases Mantle Cloths. Cases Curtain Muslins. 2 Cases Veilings.
