Justice Plates Destroyed.—A novel ceremony took place this morning in connection with the destruction of the plates from which the jubilee stamps were printed. In the House Hon. William Wilton said, after quoting the schedule of stamps to be issued this morning, that the plates from which they have been engraved will be destroyed in the presence of the head and two officers of the department. Accordingly this morning Mr. Mulock, accompanied by Dr. Couper, Deputy Post-Master-General, Mr. Leaneur, secretary, Mr. Stanton, chief clerk, and Mr. H. Gray, with Mr. Shadwell, head clerk, from the Governor-General's Department, and representatives of the press, went to the American Bank North of the plate was placed under a hard steel roll, leaving the impression of a fine check mark, and submitted to heavy pressure until the impressions struck from the plate gave the impression of a thick set vell over each stamp.

Johnson Promoted.—Mr. Johnson, chief clerk of the Accounts Branch of the Postoffice Department, has been appointed accountant in the place of the late Mr. Bartlett.

Grain Standards Board.—Sir Henri Joly has nominated the following gentlemen to compose the Board: E. P. Craig, A. S. Thompson, A. McPherson, Montreal; William Brodie, Quebec; D. Matt, Charlottetown; L. Spink, G. B. Watts, H. N. Baird, Thomas Flynn and John Carrik, Toronto; Isaac Lake, Hamilton; John Hunt, London.

The Board will meet in Toronto at the call of the chairman.

Indians Have a Grievance.—The Indians of Lake Temiscamingue district, extending northward to the James Bay, have a grievance against Father Renaud, laid before Mayor Goudeau yesterday. It is stated that the Quebec law now prohibits them from killing any beaver, and that a fine of $20 will be imposed on any person having a beaver skin in his possession. Father Renaud does not know whether this law will apply to his district or not, as it has never been positively determined that the boundary of Quebec extends as far as James Bay. He believes, however, that the effect of the new law will not be to compel the Indians to refrain from killing the

A large number of the members of the Toronto Conservative Club will attend the Conservative demonstration to be held in Toronto Junction on 18th inst.

The movement to extend the Toronto street along Broadview-avenue from the north-road is meeting with strong support. The number of men who have been working in Buffalo for the street between Queen-street and the north-road, and also several who are residents of the Township of York, all were of opinion that the extension is greatly to be desired. They also state that the line would certainly pay, as persons who would patronize a Danforth service is large.

The Toronto City Council has passed a resolution to purchase the Danforth-avenue line for the street. The line is now being worked by the Danforth-avenue franchise on that part of the road over which it has jurisdiction.

The Allen Labor Law.—Editor World: A well-authenticated case of our great neighbor's small dog in this direction has just come to me. A five-year resident of Toronto, who has been a former resident of Toronto for the last five years, has been out of a job for some time. When the veteran article mentioned him with employment on one of the triumphal arches (designing and erecting) he had such a reaction, he was greatly displeased. It was informed that it had been discovered that the Canadian law was being used to "get" him, and that sudden this after being a good citizen for years. He had once been a youth of living in the Dominion, and he has since been out. What justice? What magnanimity! What a great crowd are the Yankee politicians! Sam Jones.

Absolutely pure, fully matured, ingredients of the very finest quality. These are what makes Pabst the largest brewery, and their product the most popular of any in the world. The James Good & Co., agents, Toronto.

Misconception for the Klondike.—Mr. R. M. Dickie, a second year student of the Manitoba College, has been appointed missionary to the Klondike district. He has already left Winnipeg for Dyea, where he will winter, and in the spring he expects to go with a party still farther from civilization.

RAILROAD TRACKMEN.

Close of their Fifth Annual Convention in Toronto.

The fifth annual convention of the United Brotherhood of Railroad Trackmen, held in the Occident Hall during the past week, was highly successful. Sixty delegates, representing thirty branches, were present, covering the Dominion from Vancouver to Halifax.

On the last day of the convention Grand President Logan and Grand Organizer Love thanked Mayor Shaw and President Carey of the Trades and Labor Congress for the kindness and hospitality shown them, assuring them that the Brotherhood's visit to Toronto would ever remain a bright spot in their memory.

The officers decided to meet next September in Hamilton.

The officers of last year were again elected, as follows: James Logan, grand president; John Hogan, first grand vice-president; F. Lavoy, second grand vice-president; W. J. Cole, A. Lyons, H. Taylor, L. W. St. John, Esq., M.L.A., 23 Toronto-street, Toronto, will decide the competition.

THE "GUYNOT" GOT MAD.

His Supper Waiter Ready and He Made Things Very Lively at Home.

Chicago, Sept. 10.—Charles Sayers upon reaching home last night became angry and upbraided his wife because supper was not ready. William, the elder son, took the part of his mother, and the father struck the boy on the head with a lighted lamp. Edward, the 20-year-old daughter, attempted to save her brother from the father's violence, and she is now lying at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, frightfully burned. Mrs. Ellen Sayers, the mother, and Bert, a 14-year-old son, attempted to rescue Vedella from the flames and they, too, were taken to the hospital, severely burned. The father, who is now in the family and principled at the hospital, while the father, unharmed, was locked up.

A Miner in Vancouver.—According to The Vancouver World Mr. C. Klopfert, for South Wellington, and a director of the Diamond Jubilee Mineral Development Company, is visiting in Vancouver, B.C. The World says: "This is his first visit to the far west, but for years he has been transacting business with many concerns in this province, Manitoba and Saskatchewan. The visiting member is an essentially self-made man. It is not many years ago that he was a coal miner in the family and principled at the hospital, while the father, unharmed, was locked up.
