FIGHTING FOR ROVNO

Place Is Being Stubbornly Defended by Polish Troops.

Warsaw, March 25.—Aftacks have been launched against the Polish line at scattered points along the front of The reds have been compelled to re-treat from several newly-acquired posi-tions along the front, but fighting still continues, the soviet troops using heavy artillery, tanks, armored cars and other apparatus captured from General Dene-kine on the south Russian front. Most severe fighting took place on uesday on the Polesian-Podolian front, near the Galician frontier, the Bolsheviki concentrating their attacks on this sector in an effort to capture Rovno, an important railroad centre, and Kamenetz-Podolsk, a city highly prized because of its strategic importance. Further north, in the region of Rzecycza and Kalenkowitz, northeast of Mozir, the enemy took several small villages which were recovered by the Poles after a day's fighting.

Heavy Fighting Continues.

Heavy engagements are also reported in the vicinity of Zaslava, southeast of Rovno, and Staro-Konstantinov, where the Reds attempted to cross the Slutch River. East of Kamenetz-Fodolsk, the battle is still going on, both sides using artillery and bringing up reinforcements.

Rovno is particularly valuable to the Rovne is particularly valuable to the Poles, as through it runs the only railroad by which supplies can be shipped to the army along the southeastern front. In their drive again this city on Tuesday the Bolsheviki hurled two divisions into the battle in an attempt to outflank the Poles. Hand-to-hand fighting ensued in villages just to the east of the Slutch River, and the enemy was finally compelled to retire. He resumed the onsleaght, however, and the struggle is still going on in the the struggle is still going on in the vicinity of Bubar and Ostropol, where in spite of their use of heavy artillery in preparation for their assault, the Reds have not succeeded in crossing the Slutch.

CANNED TOMATOES BEST FOOD FOR MONTH-OLD BABES

New York, March 25.—Canned tomatoes, given in one-ounce quantities, are ideal food for month-old bables, according to Dr. Alfred Hess of this city, who discussed the subject at the second session of the 114th annual convention of the Medical Society of the State of New York.

He declared pasteurized milk, the infant's usual diet, is not nourishing enough, and to prevent scurvy they should be fed with something else, either orange juice or canned tomatoes. It was harmless, he asserted.

LATE REV. G. M. COX

Impressive services were conducted this morning by His Lordship Bishop David Williams of Huron at the funeral of Rev. G. M. Cox, one of the oldest retired ministers in the Diocese of Huron, who died on Tuesday in Victoria Hospital in his fist year.

The Anglican clergy of the city attended the funeral in a body, while many out-of-town clergy who attended college with Mr. Cox, were also present. Rev. C. C. Waller, principal of Huron College, and Rev. Archdeacon J. B. Richardson assisted the bishop in conducting the services.

Richardson assisted the bishop in conducting the services.

The pallbearers were Rev. S. Robinson of Strathroy and Rev. William Lowe, both college mates of the deceased; Rev. Canon G. B. Sage, Rev. A. L. Beverly, Rev. Harry Ashby and Stephen Grant. A sheaf of white roses completely covered the casket, and other floral tributes in every design were taken to the grave. Interment was made in Woodland Cemetery.

THE NAVY THEN AND NOW

The caucus cocked its eye at the proposed navy and said. "Not today" Admiral Jellicoe had presented a most accommodating program, all we millions accommodating program, all we millions down to five, a sort of club breakfast bill of fare. But Canada had no appetite. No metable that the polity is full of the national debt, and she cannot relish any more her belty is full of the national debt, and she cannot relish any more diversed. The Opposition held no caucus on it but there is every reason to believe that they hardly agree that a navy problem comes up again, and no doubt almost any sovernment would welcome that solution of the contentious subject. Passing the buck to the people at large has a nobler air than passing the buck to the various provincial governments, which is Union Government's way of getting over a stile. We take it for granted, I think, that there will be a referendum on the Canadian navy, however modest the proposals. But not just now—plenty of time when we get our debts settled.

Borden Favors Navy.
Rumor has it that Premier Borden is the only person in favor of an immediate navy. He favors it largely because the others don't, and he would like to have a mayy as a monument to his career. Cynics say that Premier Borden has caught the navy habit from logging around with Admiral Jellicoe made an excellent report and stressed, if anything, the idea of a home-made, home-controlled Canamian navy—the navy, in short, which sir Wilfrid Laurier advocated and (Continued on Page Five.)

PRESENTATION TO PRINCESS PATS

Minister of Militia Signally Honors Fighting Unit.

ANTIQUE INKSTAND

From English Children of Victoria League, London, England.

An impressive presentation was made at Tecumseh Barracks Wednesday by Brig.-Gen. H. A. Panet, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O., on behalf of the minister of militia and defence. The sergeants of the P. P. C. L. I. were the recipients. The present was ar antique inkstand sent by the Victoria League Club of London, England, for presentation to the regiment most fitted to receive it as a token of appreciation by the members of the league.

The Victoria League was formed in bers of the league.

The Victoria League was formed in England for the purpose of welcoming the troops of the overseas dominions. The "Pats." besides having one of the most glorious records of the war, was the first unit from this country to be welcomed by the league.

The inkstand is of silver, and contains two glass ink bottles, a candid holder, snuffer and seal. It is mounted on a solid ebony base 16 inches square. The present is estimated as being at least two hundred years of age, in spite of the fact that there is not a scratch or blemish on it.

The Letter.

The following is an extract from the letter sent to the minister of militia:
"In June, 1915, when the first Victoria League Club was started in London, at 16 Regent street, an old Sheffield plate inkstand, on an ebony base was presented to the club, bearing the following inscription:

"To the gallant soldiers of Canada, who fought for the empire. A token of gratitude, from the Junior Associates of the Victoria League, Victoria League Club, London, 1915."

The Junior Associates are children living in London, who belong to the league. When they presented the inkstand they expressed their desire that when it was no lorger needed it should be sent to Canada to be presented to whatever sergeants' mess might be considered most suitable, to be held by them in remembrance of the admiration of the children of England, for the Canadian Expeditionary Force, and their pride in sharing a common citizenship with the soldiers of the Dominion.

THOMAS W. LAWSON ARRESTED OWING TO STOCK EXPLOITATION

Well-Known Broker Charged With Violating Massachusets Law.

PROMOTED "SILVERS"

Warrant Sworn Out by Order of the Attorney-General.

Boston, March 25.—The crusade of Attorney-General Allen against promoters and brokers who have been exploiting silver stocks led to the arrest of Thomas W. Lawson today. He surrendered himself at police headquarters to answer to a warrant charging him with violating on four counts a state law regarding the filing of information regarding stock issues. Four other operators and brokers were arrested yesterday, including L. C. VanRiper of New York, former secretary to Lawson. The latter is well-known in Canadian financial circles.

Lawson and VanRiper in recent months have been active in the promotion of silver stocks, which in the Lawson advertising were featured as "silvers, the greatest gamble of the age." Each announced he was developing certain individual silver mine properties as units of general-holding companies. In the campaigns the prices of individual stocks advanced from a few cents to $8 and $9, with subsequent reversals and fluctuations. After news of the arrests yesterday, these prices tumbled further. Nearly all the silver stocks which are named in the charges against Lawson, VanRiper and the other men, are now selling for so many cents a share.

It was the fact that securities were offered so cheaply, the attorney-general said in a statement yesterday, that attracted to them a class of persons without investing experience, who sacrificed Government bonds and savings accounts to obtain funds for stock purchases in hopes of early riches.

CANADIAN CURRENCY RISING IN VALUE ON AMERICAN EXCHANGE

Quoted At 9 Per Cent Today-Gradual Return to Normal Conditions.

Canadian currency is rapidly rising in value in the American market. The exchange rate on Canadian money was officially quoted at nine per cent this morning, but the premium allowed on American money by most banks and money changers was only six or seven per cent.

F. B. Clarke expresses the opinion that there will henceforth be a gradual return to normal value on the part of Canadian money. Canadian imports from the United States are dropping off considerably, due partly to the discouragement of Canadian trade by the high exchange rate demanded by American exporters, but mainly to the dropping off in the great volume of import trade of Canada of coal from the Pennsylvania mines.

English money is also steadily climbing in value, and in Canada today the pound was worth $4.25, and in the United States $1.82.
