

TO THE FRIENDS OF RURAL IMPROVEMENT.

THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN,

A WEEKLY JOURNAL FOR

The Farm, the Garden, and Fireside.

"Decidedly the Best Agricultural Publication in the Country."

This Journal completed, with 1854, its second year and fourth volume. The gratification with which it has been received by the public, and the liberal circulation already extended to it, show that its general plan and object has met with the hearty approbation of those whose interests and improvement it was intended to promote. It combines, in one large sheet, an Agricultural, Horticultural, and Family Journal, furnishing, beside its large amount of practical matter on Rural Affairs, in its FIRESIDE DEPARTMENT, a choice collection of articles peculiarly adapted to interest and exalt the views and aims of the FAMILY CIRCLE, together with a careful digest of the News of the Week, and a Full Report of the Produce and Cattle Markets; and it will be the constant aim of the publisher to make it indispensable to the Farmer, and desirable to every one who has a rod of ground to cultivate, or a home to beautify—and by devoting its columns to Improvement in Agriculture, Elevation in Character, and Refinement in Taste, to render the Country Gentleman the Standard in its Sphere.

TERMS—Single copies, $2—three copies, $5—ten copies, $15—payable in advance.—Fifty cents will, in all cases, be added, where payment is not made in advance. Two copies will also be sent one year for $4, and a copy of this book to each.

A new volume, the fifth, will begin with 1st January, for which subscriptions are solicited.

The new series of THE CULTIVATOR, commencing with 1853, offers a good opportunity to begin the purchase of a set of its volumes at that time. The vols. for 1853 and 1854 are now ready—price of each, in paper cover, 50 cents; bound in muslin, postage pre-paid, $1—and we desire to call the attention of all to the great practical value and cheapness of the large amount of matter contained in them.

We wish to solicit the aid of EVERY ONE in whose hands this book may fall, in placing a copy of one of the above publications

In the hands of Every Farmer through the Land,

From a confident belief that, by promoting the circulation of these Journals, while we shall

Elevate the Character and Standing of the American Farmer,

By inciting him to "improve his soil and his mind," we shall also render his labors by far more productive of profit and pleasure than when pursued in the thoughtless and unskillful manner practiced to so large an extent throughout the country. They have been pronounced, both by the press and the most intelligent of our farmers,

"Decidedly the Best Agricultural Papers in the Country."

See testimonials on another page. ☞ We shall send specimen copies when requested to do so.

All letters should be addressed to

LUTHER TUCKER, Albany, N. Y.

THE CULTIVATOR,

A MONTHLY JOURNAL

For the Farmer and Horticulturist.

"By far the Best Monthly Agricultural Journal in America."

THE CULTIVATOR having now been published twenty-one years, and hundreds of thousands of copies of it circulated, in every State in the Union, is too well known, as a

SOUND PRACTICAL WORK,

To render it necessary for us to call attention to its merits at the present time. It has been a faithful expositor of the Principles and Progress of American Agriculture—ever striving, in fulfilment of its original motto, "To Improve the Soil and the Mind," to present to its readers the views and experience of sound and reliable men, and to lay before them, so far as its limits will permit, the teachings of Science and Practice in all the branches of Rural Art. With no other interest to subservise than the public good—with no private advice or nostrums to dispose of, for a consideration—it has been and will continue to be our aim to promote the best interests of the entire farming community, and to make our paper, in the best acceptance of the term, a truly NATIONAL AGRICULTURAL JOURNAL—one to whose pages all may refer with profit and safety.

TERMS—Single copy, FIFTY CENTS—$0 copies, (with The Illustrated Annual Register to each,) $10.

The new volume will commence with the January number, at which time all subscriptions are to commence. Payments invariably to be remitted with the order for the paper.
