LOCAL NEWS

James McCafferty and James McCarren have been reported by Policeman Sullivan in Charlotte street on Saturday afternoon.

Four keys found yesterday in Main street may be had at the north end station, while a pair of wire pincushions may be had at central. They were found in Carmarthen street.

The annual picnic of the Tabernacle church and Sunday school will be held tomorrow at Waters' Landing. Boats leave at 9:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. Usual games and refreshments.

Saturday's Transcript says:—This week has been a busy one for the Point de Chene waterfront. Besides the large barques that are unloading there are three large steamers loading lumber.

Steamer Governor Cobb, Captain Allan, arrived in port this morning at 6:30 o'clock and landed 286 passengers from Boston. The Governor Dingley took away Saturday about 200 people.

The Fredericton Mail says that there were ratted at Springhill this evening eight hundred feet of bank logs. This did not include about 650,000 feet which came out of the Keswick and Nashvaukas streams.

At the meeting of the buildings' committee of the board of school trustees this evening, several matters in connection with repairs to the city schools will be discussed. It is thought possible also that the question of erecting the proposed school on the Weldon lot may be considered.

Four prisoners arrested yesterday and one on Saturday were dealt with this morning on charges of drunkenness in the police court by Judge Ritchie. Charles Anderson arrested on Saturday afternoon was fined $4 while the amount was doubled in the case of James Conroy, Eloy Braden, John Sheehan and Wm. Clarke.

Although the plant of the Campbellton Graphic is a total loss and Charles W. Anslow was fatally injured a few days later in an auto accident, the paper has resumed publication, being printed for present at the Union Advocate office, Newcastle. H. B. Sterling Jones, a young colored man, appeared in court this morning and exhibited a cut face as grounds for a complaint against another colored man, said to be Charles Williams, for beating him on Saturday night in Union street. Jones claims that his assailant, when he had in no way interfered with, struck him in the jaw with his fist, and a ring which he wore, inflicted a painful gash across his cheek. The matter will probably be given an airing tomorrow.

SHOCKING ACCIDENT

IN BATHURST MILL

Young Boy While Feeding Furnace Fell in the Flames—Died in a Few Hours

Bathurst, N. B., July 25.—(Special)—Francis Roy, a young lad aged 17, died here Saturday night, as a result of a dread accident which took place that afternoon. He was employed at the Bathurst Company's Shingle mill, tending the feeding of the furnace with sawdust, and other refuse material, when in some unaccountable way, he fell into the flames. When rescued he was horribly burned, and only lived a few hours.

MR. CARLETON CONFERS

WITH MAYOR FRINK

His Worship However Declines to Discuss the Paving Matter—Will Probably be Discussed at Board of Works Tomorrow

So far as could be ascertained about City Hall this morning there has been no new developments in the matter of the resignation of James L. Carleton, as inspector of the Main street paving. The former inspector had a conference with Mayor Frink, at the latter's office this morning, but as His Worship was silent, nothing could be learned as to whether Mr. Carleton added anything to what he has already said to the newspaper. Asked if anything in the line of a written statement with a specific charge had been handed in, the Mayor remained firm and insisted that he would say nothing.

Alderman McLeod, chairman of the Board of Public Works, also refused to make any statement, or even discuss the affair. He said that at the meeting of the board of works, tomorrow afternoon, at 3 o'clock, the City Engineer would probably have something to say, and that then he would not say what the board would do, or if they would do anything.

City Engineer Murdoch said that he thought that there was altogether too much excitement over the matter. From his own point of view there was nothing in Mr. Carleton's resignation more than the resignation of any other employe of public works department. The inspector of the Main street paving had resigned, which he had a perfect right to do, but as he made no charge there was absolutely nothing to it other than to say that a man had been appointed to his place. There was not, nor ever would be, any ill-feeling between he and Mr. Carleton over the matter; they had always been the best of friends and always would be. He had the highest opinion of the former inspector and believed him a capable man, for which reason he had appointed him.

The engineer said that he did not feel that it was necessary for him to make any formal statement to the board of works over the matter any more than the resignation of any other employe. He, of course, would be prepared to answer any questions that might be asked.

COTTON MILLS WILL

York and Cornwall Mills Will be Shut Down for a Time Owing to Scarcity and High Price of Raw Material

On account of the falling off in the cotton market of late, not only locally, but throughout the world, the two city cotton mills, Cornwall and York, are to be closed for the first week in August. J. B. Cudlip said today that while the market was very poor, the employes also wanted a rest, and so the mills would be shut down for a week, to start again immediately. He also said that the increase in prices of raw material was everywhere responsible for the falling off in the cotton trade.
