CHOOSE DEATH IN OCEAN RATHER THAN IN FLAMES

Ship's Officer and His Bride
Leap Overboard When Naphtha Cargo Explodes.

London, Jan. 21.—Eleven members of the crew of the German steamer Vesta, bound from Hamburg to Lisbon, as well as the wife of the chief officer, were killed by an explosion on the ship on Sunday following a fire, or net death by drowning. Ten survivors of the crew were landed at Lowestoft by a trawler late this afternoon.

Details of the disaster as related by the captain of the Vesta are to the effect that during heavy weather on Sunday night the deck cargo of the vessel, consisting largely of naphtha, shifted. An explosion occurred and a few minutes later the whole vessel was in flames, with the exception of the space near the bridge, where the crew huddled for safety.

A boat was lowered, but it was engulfed in the heavy seas and its three occupants were drowned. The mate, clasp his newly married wife in his arms, jumped overboard. Both perished. Others of the ship's company, also plunged into the sea from the now fiercely burning vessel, only to sink beneath the waves. Finally only the captain and nine men were left on board. They were rescued after great difficulty by a trawler, after six hours and when they had almost abandoned hope. Those rescued had been scorched by the flames and partially asphyxiated by the naphtha fumes.

St. John De Molay Preceptory held a short business session last evening in the Masonic Temple, Germain street.

THE CELEBRATED

"Wabasso" Cottons

Do you know the Wabasso? Wonderful little creature of Hiawatha, born of a snow drift, inhabitant of the trackless wintry Northland, equipped as he is with the most scientific means for immunity against the snow death.

Those marvelous snow-shoe feet given him by wise Old Mother Nature make him envy of his brothers of the wilds. Dame Nature has surely been kind to the little Wabasso for she also provides him a winter overcoat as white as the new fallen snow, and he literally hides as he runs.

The Little Snow-shoe Rabbit or "Wabasso" as the Indians named him was chosen as the Emblem of the Product of, and had given him the name to the Canadian Cotton Mills which make the goods shown in our large Annex window on King street today and offered on sale in our Cotton Departments.

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy

Really better than ready-made cough syrups and saves about $1.
Ready and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2½ ounces of Pinex, pour it into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar, syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is 16 ounces of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made and save easily $2. Tastes pleasant and never spoils.

This Pinex and Syrup preparation gets right at the cause of a cough and gives almost immediate relief. It loosens the phlegm, stops the nasty throat tickle and heals the sore, irritated membranes so gently and easily that it is really astonishing.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Butter has fallen from five to seven cents a pound in St. John in the last few days and the why and wherefore of the sudden drop are found to be mixed up in world commerce affairs. The Empress of Britain on her last trip brought back to Canada between 5,000 and 6,000 cases of Canadian butter which the overseas markets could not take. Of that shipment 500 cases remained in St. John and the rest was distributed among places as close to the port of arrival as could be arranged, as the dealers were not anxious to have double journeys through the dominion added to the cost.

Chatterbox says:

Can you remember those parties you used to go to when you were a kiddie? Those days when the people who are now years younger than you were the same age? The age of birthday cakes with candles, lemonade, curls, Eton collars, "Musical Chairs" and "Party Dresses."

It's a long way back to party dresses, but there still are party dresses for wee misses, so sweet and dainty, and wonderfully reasonable. Of dotted Swiss in mauve, blue or pink with collar, cuffs, sash and band on skirt of white organdie trimmed with black feather-stitching. Another fairy-like frock made of organdie in pink or yellow is also trimmed with white organdie bands and featherstitching.

No chance for a wall flower in a Party Dress like these: although one may be "mighty like a rose."
