

DRY AGENTS IN RAID INVADE DELMONICO'S

Manager Held, Denies Knowledge of a Drink Raiders Say They Bought—S. S. Flottilla Also Raided.

(New York Times.)
Delmonico's restaurant, Fifth avenue and Forty-fourth street, was raided early yesterday morning by Federal Prohibition Agents Peter Reager, Edward Morgan and Charles W. Lagan soon after they had visited the S. S. Flottilla, Sixth avenue and Fifty-fifth street, opened last April by Dr. John A. Harris, special deputy police commissioner in charge of traffic.

The agents alleged that they bought liquor from one of the waiters in Delmonico's. The waiter was not arrested, H. L. Hannan, the assistant manager, was taken to the East Fifty-first street station and released in $1,000 bail. Hannan denied any knowledge of the matter. He said that he was in the office at the time, and if a sale took place it was made by some waiter who had smuggled liquor into the restaurant.

Johnson de Jekel, manager of the Flottilla restaurant, and Peter Geline, a waiter, were held in $1,000 bail by Commissioner Hitchcock for hearing next week. Dr. Harris yesterday made the following statement regarding the raid on the Flottilla:

"I am deeply concerned with the fact that it was alleged that waiters at the Flottilla restaurant have been found violating the law by the sale of liquor. I have taken every precaution in the past to see that the law was rigidly enforced at the Flottilla restaurant. I have given the most stringent orders to that effect. I have never heard of any violation going on there. Of course, I am not able to guarantee that each and every waiter is honest or that he will carry out instructions. The men who have been arrested have been immediately discharged by me. While I have no personal knowledge of the facts of their case, if it is found that they have violated the law I hope that their offence will be dealt with accordingly."

Judge Harlan B. Howe, in the Brooklyn Federal Court, was informed that three men he had committed to jail six months ago as material witnesses in a rum-running case were still in prison. Judge Howe expressed surprise and ordered that the men be brought before him on Monday, when he said that he would dispose of their cases. The three are Robert Pike, Joseph Maul and Michael Murphy, all members of the crew of the schooner Henry L. Marshall, seized last August.

Ralph A. Day, federal prohibition inspector, on his return from Washington, announced that he had appointed General Agent O. A. Greaser as his chief assistant. The place of assistant director was still vacant, he said. About twenty new agents would be added, he said.

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Prevents Food Fermentation, Sour Gassy Stomach and Acid Indigestion.

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion, you have already tried pepto-bismol, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

But before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic just try the effect of a little Bismarck Magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, or milk, but the pure Bismarck Magnesia, which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powder or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and see what a difference this makes. It will instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment and sour, causing gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling that seems to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little Bismarck Magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow, and, moreover, the continued use of the Bismarck Magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.

DO NOT FAVOR PASTEURIZATION

A meeting of the city council was held yesterday afternoon with all present but Commissioner Thornton. The report of the commissioner of finance and public affairs was received and adopted. The commissioner reported that the city had received a letter from the National Milk Producers' Association, dated January 1, 1922, recommending the pasteurization of milk.

The letter stated that the association had a large amount of capital invested in the business. The letter said that milk naturally produced under hygienic conditions could not be improved upon. The communication was signed by the president, J. M. McKnight, and secretary, H. L. McKnight.

Mr. Bullock said the pasteurization of milk was a matter of public health and it was decided to inform the association it would be heard if the matter came to a head. A letter was received from L. W. Simms offering $800 for four lots in Lunenburg. The price of these lots had been fixed at $1,200, and it was moved by Mr. Bullock that the price of each should be dropped $100.

The matter was set over until Thursday. In regard to the claim of Mr. Max McCarthy regarding the city's right of way over land formerly owned by the Balbouge Club, it was decided to notify Mr. McCarthy that the city did not recognize any liability in the matter. A motion was passed that the city of water extension near Murray and Gregory's mill be carried out and the estimated cost be increased to $3,750. The matter of relief to unemployment was taken up and it was decided to ask the federal government for additional information. A motion was carried that the city back up the exhibition with $8,000 in case of a deficit.

Chicago, Feb. 4.—Judge Kenesaw Landis, baseball commissioner, has reinstated Joe Harris of the Cleveland Indians, accompanying his decision with a statement that Harris' service in France during the world war entitled him to consideration which might not otherwise have been given the player. RUN NECK AND NECK IN 40,000 YEAR RACE

Blue and Yellow Lights from Stars Travel Earthward With Equal Velocities.

Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 7.—In a 40,000-year voyage from the stars to the earth pulses of blue and yellow light run a neck-and-neck race, according to a bulletin issued by the Harvard College Observatory. Travelling 186,000 miles a second, the two kinds of light do not differ in velocity by as much as an inch a second, the bulletin says. In the entire journey neither gains as much as two minutes.

This conclusion has been reached by study of faint variable stars in remote clusters, one of the brightest and nearest of which is designated Messier 5. The star is a member of the Messier 5 cluster, a swarm of thousands of giant stars, just computed by Harvard astronomers as 122 kiloparsecs, or nearly 40,000 light years. This is the equivalent of more than 200,000,000,000 miles.

Photographs made at Harvard's astronomical station in Peru have shown that scores of stars in the Messier 5 cluster have undergone variations in light. These variations, which occurred during the past century, have been photographed simultaneously in blue and yellow light with the big reflecting telescope at Mount Wilson, Cal., and study of the plates has disclosed that the variable stars brighter and move away at exactly the same time for the two colors.

I. O. O. E. CHAPTERS HEAR REPORTS AND ELECT OFFICERS

The three primary chapters of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, the Royal Standard, the Windsor and the Seven Seas, each held their annual meeting last night and each received with gratification a year of splendid success.

Royal Standard Chapter.

The Royal Standard chapter met at the residence of Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, Queen square, and the regent, Mrs. J. Pope Barnes, presided. The secretary's report, read by Mrs. J. A. McKewen, told of five new members having been received during the year and of the decision to increase the membership to forty-five. Among the successful efforts of the chapter as a means of raising money were two rummage sales, a bridge-dance and the annual sale in November. On Empire Day the chapter united with the other primary chapters in presenting a tableau as part of the pageant of British history.

On that same day it presented a flag chart to the Westfield school. At Christmas it made many gifts, contributing to the Goodfellow fund, the Seamen's Mission, the Associated Charities, the East St. John Hospital and the Free Kindergarten Association. In the last year it contributed towards the salary of a Victorian Order nurse and also towards the salary of a kindergarten teacher in the East St. John Hospital. The chapter had been the first to respond to the Local Council of Women's appeal for milk for babies, who otherwise might not be able to obtain it. Later, through the generosity of two members, the chapter was able to increase its donation to this fund and to present it supporting two babies.

The report referred also to the fact that all appeals which had been made to the chapter had met with a generous response. Money had been given for hot plates for the General Public Hospital, towards the expense of bringing the children of the war to the Westfield school, and for the purchase of a milk can for the G. W. V. A. on Poppy Day, the Boy Scouts, the Salvation Army, the Canadian Red Cross, the Canadian Legion, the Canadian Nurses' Association, the orphanage in West St. John. The chapter members had assisted at the annual rummage sale at the St. John exhibition. Books had been contributed to the East St. John Hospital for patients, and the cost of money had been made to the war memorial of the I. O. D. E. The chapter hopes soon to complete its payments to the war memorial fund.

The educational secretary, Miss Ethel Hazen Jarvis, reported that in June prizes for the best marks in history were given to pupils in St. Joseph's and Victoria schools, and at Christmas eleven volumes were given to the Westfield school library.

The treasurer's report was read by Mrs. C. B. Allan, acting treasurer, and showed that the total receipts were $12,238, and the expenditures amounted to $8,047. The balance on hand was $4,191.

At the meeting members made personal contributions to the Princess Mary wedding gift fund. The election of officers resulted as follows:—Honorary regent, Mrs. J. Pope Barnes; regent, Mrs. C. B. Allan; first vice-regent, Mrs. F. J. G. Knowlton; second vice-regent, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong; secretary, Mrs. H. A. McKewen; assistant secretary, Mrs. William D. Foster; treasurer, Mrs. E. H. Schofield, Mrs. Fred Peters, Mrs. Fred Harding, Mrs. Alexander Wilson and Mrs. W. B. Tennant.

Seven Seas Chapter.

The Seven Seas Chapter of the I. O. D. E. held its annual meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. Everett Hunt, Mecklenburg street. Miss Helen Hayes, regent of the chapter, presided. The report of the secretary showed that during the last year money was raised by means of two rummage sales, a pantry sale, a bridge and tea and also by means of talent money. The naval cadets were entertained last spring by this chapter at the home of Miss Irene McKewen.

Reports showed that, during the year just completed, the chapter had assisted at the Protestant orphans fair and had made several contributions to the orphanage; had provided Christmas cheer and presented two prizes to the scholars of Victoria school for competition; had contributed $30 towards the milk fund; had donated $37 to the West St. John orphanage; had given $55 towards the salary of the kindergarten teacher at the East St. John Hospital; had contributed $30 towards the Victorian Order of Nurses; and $80 towards the War Memorial of the I. O. D. E. The election of officers for ensuing year also took place last night and resulted as follows:—Honorary regent, Miss

Haley; secretary, Mrs. Everett Hunt; treasurer, Miss Edna Simon; Echo secretary, Miss Jean Somerville; educational secretary, Miss Faith Henderson; standard-bearer, Mrs. L. B. Estey; councillors, Miss Dorothy Jones, Mrs. Lloyd Farquhar and Mrs. A. L. Fleming.

Windsor Chapter.

The annual meeting of Windsor Chapter, I. O. D. E., was held last evening at the home of Miss Lois Fraser, Duke street, W. E., when reports were received and officers elected for the ensuing year. The regent, Miss Gertrude Lawson, was in the chair and there was a large attendance of members.

The chapter took part in the Empire pageant in the Imperial theatre, under the auspices of the Municipal chapter. Prizes for essays on "The Flag" were awarded to grades 7 and 8 of the Fairview Superior school and four flag charts were presented to the same school. During the spring flowers were provided weekly for two sick soldiers in the D. S. C. R. hospital. The report also told of various donations made by the chapter as shown in the treasurer's report. Personal donations were made by members to the Associated Charities for Christmas cheer and also for the milk fund.

The treasurer's report showed balance on hand on February 1, 1921, of $130.31. Receipts from various sources amounted to $8,047; from three dances, $73.45; from tea and sale, $403.52; accrued interest, $3.03; total receipts, including donations on hand, $8,530.39.

Pimples and boils

—caused by errors of diet

A well-known skin specialist says that pimples are "signal flags of danger" often indicating errors in diet.

Indeed pimples are so frequently associated with faulty habits of eating and improper digestion that the first thing to do is to see that our food is right.

Fresh yeast is a wonderful corrective food for these skin disorders. Fleischmann's Yeast is rich in the elements which improve appetite and digestion and which keep the intestines clean of poisons.

Physicians and hospitals all over the country are recommending Fleischmann's Yeast as a cause of pimples and boils. It gets right at the basic cause of these complaints. Eat 2 to 3 cakes of Fleischmann's fresh yeast daily before or after meals to keep your skin healthy. See that it's Fleischmann's Yeast—the familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label. Place a standing order with your grocer.

BOGUS 2-CENT STAMPS FOUND

New York Dealer Informs the Government of Clever Forgery, First of Kind Since 1894.

(New York Times.)

An excellent counterfeit of the current two-cent United States postage stamp has just appeared here. A stamp dealer who is quick at detecting peculiarities in postage stamps discovered the forgery. He has several hundred of the counterfeit in his possession awaiting inspection by a post office department official.

Edward Stern, of the Economist Stamp Company, 87 Nassau street, is probably the first man to detect the difference between the two-cent forgery and the genuine issue. Early in the week, Mr. Stern said yesterday, a man interested in stamps came to his office with a few sheets of ten United States two-cent stamps, all properly gummed but a shade lighter in color than the customary deep red. Closer inspection disclosed the fact that the "U" in the word "United" on the stamp at the upper left-hand corner of the sheet of ten was imperfect at the curve. There were several other minor defects. The perforation number is twelve instead of eleven.

Mr. Stern offered to buy the stamps at their face value and when told what others might be had, asked for more.

As a result I got several sheets of ten, numbering several hundred stamps," said Mr. Stern. "The defective 'U' was clearly apparent on every sheet, showing conclusively that the stamps were printed in sheets of ten. The man who sold them to me did not know that the stamps were counterfeits, saying that the person from whom he obtained them had purchased them from a lot of unused stock from a big mail order house. 'I got the big batch of forgeries on Wednesday and immediately sent them out with an explanation to the United States Bureau of Printing and Engraving at Washington. I have not noticed any counterfeits on letters, nor have I heard that any collectors or dealers have found any copies, which they would doubtless detect from the lighter shade. The counterfeits in Mr. Stern's office are very cleverly done, being executed in the surface printing style used by the government several years ago. They look somewhat like lithographed stamps. Mr. Stern believes the stamps have been counterfeited in sheets of ten because they would be easier to sell in small quantities in that form than as single stamps. Moreover, counterfeiting is easier in small units.

This is the first time, explained Mr. Stern, that a counterfeit United States stamp has appeared since 1894, when similar forgeries were discovered in Kansas City. Post office inspectors traced them to Chicago. Mr. Stern has one of the 1894 counterfeits.

Inquiry at the post office here disclosed the fact that none of the officials knew of the new counterfeit.

WIND STEALS HAT, 7 LAND IN RIVER

Owner Reaches for It, Holding Another's Hand, While Two Hold Him—Splash!

(New York Times.)

In an attempt to recover the hat of one man, the owner and six others had an unexpected bath in the icy water of the East River off the foot of Webster street, Long Island City, last night. The first four fell in and narrowly escaped drowning. The other three were rescued but could not compete the rescue until helped by a dozen men from the nearby plant of the East River Gas Company. The hat was not recovered.

William Smith of 354 Hancock street, Thomas Taggart of 314 Hancock street, and Samuel and Hugh Welch of 107 Vernon avenue were standing at the end of the pier at the foot of Webster street, when a gust of wind blew Smith's hat into the water. The river flowed six feet below the edge of the pier, but a stronger jutting pier at the water level, and several projections gave Smith an opportunity to climb down. He did so, but Taggart, who had climbed half way, holding him by the hand, while the Welch brothers, standing at the edge, kept him from falling. Smith leaned out, but the floating hat was several inches beyond his fingers. He slipped and the lurch sent all four into the river.

Daniel O'Reardon and Matthew Phelan, firemen of Engine Company 205, at 692 Vernon Avenue, and Michael Callaghan of 180 Jamaica Avenue heard the cries for help and jumped in for a rescue. They were unable to climb the slippery end of the pier and lacked strength to attempt the swim to shore. The first four men were in the water when the gas company employees arrived and pulled them out.

An ambulance was called and Dr. Sweeney ordered all seven men taken to St. John's Hospital. The two firemen and Callaghan left after restoratives had been administered to counteract the effect of the submersion in icy water. The other four remained in the hospital. No serious results were expected from their exposure.

"I have found the young are just about the same today as when I first began to teach," Miss Roemer said.
