LOCAL NEWS

Dundee and Sharkey Sign.
Johnny Dundee, junior lightweight champion, and Jack Sharkey have signed for a world's title round bout in Brooklyn on July 6.

Wins Over Walker.
Boston, June 27.—Louis Bogash, a Bridgeport, Conn., middleweight, was awarded the decision over Mickey Walker of Elizabeth, N. J., in a ten-round bout here last night. Bogash had decidedly the better of the early rounds, but showed signs of weakening toward the end.

Britton Retains Title.
New York, June 26.—Jack Britton, world's welterweight boxing champion, successfully defended his title against Benny Leonard, lightweight champion. Referee Patsy Haley claiming that Leonard hit Britton while the latter was on one knee, in the thirteenth round of their fifteen-round match tonight.

After two minutes and forty-two seconds of fighting in the thirteenth round, Britton suddenly went down on one knee and the referee started counting over him. Leonard walked over and struck Britton with a left to the body. The referee said he had not seen a foul blow struck before Britton went down, although Britton claimed one. Britton then sat in his corner unhurt.

Joe Leonard, younger brother of the lightweight champion, in his first appearance in professional pugilistic fight won a judge's decision in four rounds from Sammy Marco. Leonard weighed 130 and his opponent 133 1/2, the contest was the opening one, preceding the Benny Leonard-Jack Britton match.

STEINMETZ'S WIN IN DIAMOND MEET OFFICIALLY UPHELD

Montreal, June 26.—Alderman Louis Rubenstein, just returned from a special meeting of the International Skating Association of America, announces that the next annual meeting in November will be held in this city. The question of the legality of awarding the diamond meet championship at Lake Placid to Steinmetz, of Chicago, was sustained, Mr. Rubenstein being elected to the chair since the president was the referee who awarded the race. A protest on a decision given by Harding was also thrown out.

ATHLETES FOR IRELAND

(Halifax Chronicle.)
Representation for Nova Scotia at the forthcoming Irish Olympic games, which are to be held in Dublin in August of this year, if athletes of sufficient ability can be found, was strongly advocated at an enthusiastic meeting held at the Queen Hotel last night in the presence of Seamus Doherty, the representative of

An automobile owned and driven by Mrs. E. J. McLaughlin and a street car collided on Main street yesterday afternoon with the result that one of the front wheels of the automobile was torn off. Mrs. McLaughlin said that she did not know the car was dangerously close to her, while the motorman, H. M. Jones, claimed that he rang his bell in plenty of time for her to get out of the way.

Fire which broke out in Fairville about 1:30 o'clock this morning burned the blacksmith's shop of J. J. Breen in Fox's alley and badly damaged a barn owned by William Fox. The blaze was not extinguished until after three o'clock. It was feared for a time that another fire such as the one in April was threatening, but prompt and efficient work on the part of the fire department prevented this. The lack of wind helped the firemen greatly in their work.

The launching of a membership drive and the formation of a sewing circle were two matters decided upon as the future activities of the St. John sub-division of the Catholic Women's League at a meeting held last night. Miss K. Kane submitted the treasurer's report, which was satisfactory. Miss Amelia J. Haley resigned from the directorate and Miss Josephine Lynch was appointed to her place. The eight standing committees were named. Other routine business was transacted.
