Pieces Through Vulcan street. Works Building But No One Injured.

Iron Works, corner of Broad and Charlotte streets today and several huge pieces were projected through the outer wall of the building. Fortunately none of the employes of the works was in the paths of the flying pieces of steel and damage to the building only resulted.

On the payment of 1920 taxes, it is expected that the date will have to be postponed on account of a delay in getting out some of the notices. This is particularly true of Simonds, in which parish very few of the tax payers have received notice of assessment.
